Salespeople Note!

We've been thinking for a long time that a grand astrological angle would be something strictly for salespeople, both men and women. Your editor served a long hitch as a salesman when he was, er, younger, and therefore knows all the discouragements that await those who launch out as "ambassadors of business."

And who is more in need of astrological guidance than the folks who have to use their personality to influence prospects several times each day, as well as use their ingenuity trying to learn what the other fellow is thinking?

There is a great deal of depth to this subject, perhaps more than any one writer could do more than touch on in an article as short as the one you'll find on page 14 of this issue. But we promise you there will be more such articles coming.

And Now a Telepathy Test!

We told you Miss Dahl was going to produce something highly interesting in that new "ESP" department. Now turn to pages 10 and 11, and you'll see the first big surprise. Be sure and mark the day of the long-distance psychic test on your calendar.

Here's a New Writer!

On page 7 of this issue you'll find a very inspiring article by a writer who is new to our pages. There is a lilt to Miss Mawson's citing of the Aquarian in us all that we're sure you'll enjoy. And we'd like to have your comments on this new writer and what you think of her first article.

GINGER ROGERS

Sun-Moon Conjunction In Cancer

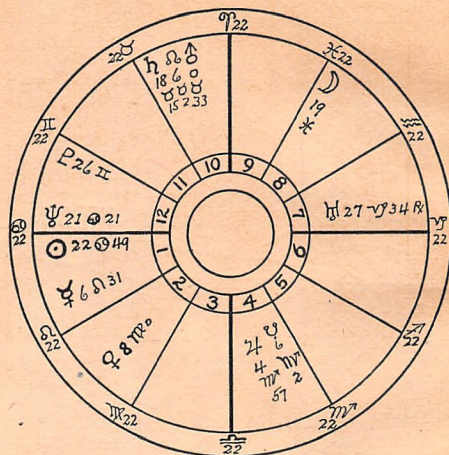

Foreordained Her For Screen Fame

THERE is a deep astrological significance in the fact that fascinating and sprightly Ginger Rogers won the 1940 Academy Award as the actress producing the most outstanding motion picture performance of the year. In other walks of life, this award is comparable to a politician becoming president of the United States or senior senator from his home state, or the accumulation of his first million by a man bent on conquering the financial world. It is the ultimate in the profession, the crowning achievement.

Ginger Rogers was born on July 16, 1911, when the Sun was passing through Cancer, the sign of plain, common people, fond of home and family life. That is where the significance creeps in, for Miss Rogers won her award for her work in "Kitty Foyle," a story of the daughter of a Philadelphia laborer with a strong accent on the family life of the common people.

"Kitty Foyle" was thus a "natural" for Ginger Rogers with her Cancerian nature fitting into the role as naturally as if she were actually living the part in real life. This does not mean that a young woman needs only to have the Sun in Cancer at her birth to play such a role, but this fact did give her a fine start. And the imaginative planet Neptune (the motion picture planet) in conjunction to Miss Rogers' Sun in her chart certainly strengthened her chances in her stardom in a picture with an across-the-tracks background.

It is this combination of Sun and Neptune in Cancer at her birth which accounts for the dramatic talent for motion picture work—and which doubtless brought stardom to Ginger Rogers. The Moon in Neptune's own sign, Pisces, also contributes to her fine dancing ability, her musician and general dramatic talent. In the Rogers chart the Moon is in harmonious operation and support to Sun and Neptune, a powerful contact for success and popularity, especially in the chosen profession of this popular young woman. This is one of the most ideal combinations possible in the natal chart of one aspiring to fame on stage or screen.

Young people who aspire to success in Hollywood or on Broadway could glean a very good idea of their probable chances in this work by ascertaining if their own charts have any of these significant features.

Not only because of her Cancerian nativity, but also because of Moon in Pisces, Ginger Rogers will work to best advantage in just such parts as "Kitty Foyle" although she is much too versatile to be typed in all her pictures, and would not be happy under such circumstances, and even though she plays naturally the poor girl, glamour and association with higher types should be a part of any role she plays, as her chart shows best success when not limited to a narrow environment.

Eccentricity and independence is noted by the opposition of Sun and Neptune in Miss Roger's department of personal self (solar house) to the planet Uranus (eccentricity and independence) thus she, like so many celebrities, is at her best when she is soloing or not sharing the spotlight with others. This theory might seem to be refuted by her magnificent team work with Fred Astaire in dancing roles, but in this Miss Rogers finds the nimble Astaire a compliment to her own efforts. Note how in such acts the male member of the team always takes the background, giving the lady the bow.

The Lend-Lease Bill

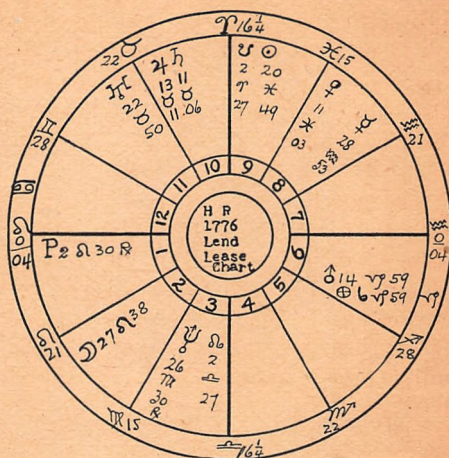

THE history-making Lend Lease Bill with its colossal seven-billion-dollar provision making the United States the arsenal for Great Britain, China and other countries at war with the aggressor nations was signed by President Roosevelt at Washington, D. C., March 11th, 1941 at 1:50 P.M. EST.

This time shows an interesting planetary formation with the first or "Dignity" degree of the rulership sign Leo ascending, the dictator planet Pluto also rising. Sun governs the chart and operates in Pisces in the 9th solar house. The bill was made possible because of the sympathy and compassion of our people and the administration for those in distress in foreign lands. Rising Pluto, retrograde, shows public consciousness in reflection and influence by dictator nations with aggressive policies.

The interpretation of the Sun's degree fits in so well with conditions leading up to the bill's passage and the outlook ahead for its administration that we will cite it verbatim: Twenty-first degree of Pisces—symbolized by a lunar crescent emerging from behind a cloud from which proceeds a flash of lightning. This denotes a populace of strong, forceful nature, proud and conflicting spirit, great dispatch and celerity of action, penetrating and swift thought and tremendous executive faculty.

Here is the determination and direction of force in the highest degree, executive in all its affairs of life but not always productive of success and a happy ending. Hopeful though the nature is, its schemes will not always bear the light of day, and as sometimes in the darkness imagination paints a bright and hopeful picture, so in the night time also will judgment strike home to the sundering of root and branch. Beware the dark hours. It is a degree of cleavage. The cleavage in this case is aimed at the support and maintenance of the fight for freedom against the attempt of aggressor nations to enslave mankind.

Favorable congressional support was evidenced by Uranus having rule over the 7th house (foreign affairs) and the 8th house (foreign finances) being posited in the 11th house (congress) and receiving the good application of the Sun—representing the President and the people by Sun's rule of 1st house.

Venus in the 8th (foreign finance) in good aspect to Saturn and Jupiter conjoined in the 10th (administration) shows the partnership and cooperative phase of financial support to foreign countries to be very helpful for those countries so favored. It is the conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn, representing finance and industry in the Taurean channel of finance, that steps up the sizeableness of the amount involved.

Venus rules the final disposition of things and forms a productive working aspect with Mars in the 6th house of food and supplies, workers and the army, giving militaristic emphasis and purpose to the act. Mars governs the 10th house (officialdom and success) and Venus the end, which has a good indication of working out successfully, providing food and supplies in line with the purpose of the bill.

While Sun in good aspect to Uranus also shows favorable working principles and arrangements with foreign nations to be helped, the benefits and gain are mainly on the side of the chart related to others. This is in line with the "kindness of heart" attitude depicted by the rising sign degree. There are adverse opposition tendencies to this lend-lease bill that indicate unsatisfactory and unsavory complications.

Each of Us Is an Aquarian

By MARY I. MAWSON

WHAT are you doing with your Aquarius? You do have one, you know. In fact, everyone of us has a nice, generous slice of this forward looking sign tucked away somewhere within our complex, cosmic consciousness.

But if, to date, you are not sure as yet as to where this one twelfth of your psychical area is located, be assured that it is that excellent part of you that picks up the urn of your feeling, and thinking, and doing, and causes you to pour, from these sources, out into the swiftly flowing current of human life something that will revitalize and refresh the languishing spirit of mankind.

In other words the Aquarius within us all is something, which, if we put it to work, can do more for us than any other avenue of character expression, simply because when we use it we are doing something, for somebody else and not for our own selfish selves. Paradoxical, isn't it? But oh, how abundantly true!

Now of course, one careless, cursory glance about us will enlighten us as to the very certain fact that everyone does not become conscious of the Aquarius within his nature at the same time. In fact, some people unhappily never discover that they possess within themselves such a valuable resource for the doing of good for the race.

But today, we cannot escape inquiry of this most important part of our natures, for, with the ever persistent echoes of the cannon's roar within our ears, (the god of Mars turned greedy) now is the time for us to stop and take stock of our attitudes toward man and the world at large, if ever we did.

And, if we will but focus our gaze through the Aquarian part of our nature we shall certainly discern clearly, beyond the blood-stained present, the heartening sight of the brand new Aquarian Age ascending over the horizon in all its mute but certain glory. The Age of Brotherly Love, wherein man is going to help his neighbor, and not hurt him. This new born age is going to be a time in which you and I and our cousins and their cousins are going to discover the affirmative answer to that querulous question that Brother Cain once asked for us so many years ago:

"Am I my brother's keeper?"

But no doubt you are saying: "But what has all this got to do with my Aquarius, and if I have one how am I going to find it and determine what I, as an average individual can constructively do about it?"

The answer to that question is the simplest one in all the world and yet the most difficult to follow: "We must learn to love our brother as ourselves."

And, in order to attain unto this desired state of feeling it is essential that we must follow a dim, uncertain trail that will lead us out beyond the ranges of our own self-centered thinking into the nebulous, non-familiar and unaccustomed borderland of thought which lies just beyond all selfish seeking.

This path is not a well-worn roadway, but it is a still uncharted trail that leads us counter-clockwise, and in a contrary manner, away from this all-insistent and urgent centripetal force, called I, out into a region fraught with threatening difficulties, and personal dangers.

Now just suppose we do a little investigating and turn back the pages of history to see what the selfless attitude of Aquarius governed men did when they followed the urge to step across the borderland beyond this selfish thing called I, long enough to give mankind a new type of thought and set new barriers for men to press onward and outward to attain.

In the scientific field, and back so far we have to dust off our histories when we read of him, is good old Galileo, born into the ignorant and limited sixteenth century, on the 15th of February, 1564, in the little town of Pisa, Italy.

This man, who gave us the telescope and many other worthwhile contribu-

THE NATION

In JUNE and JULY

*War Fever Grips the Populace Sabotage, Espionage Rampant
Defense and Aid Intensified
Mars Looms in U. S. Horoscope*

THE Gemini new Moon of May 26th, 1941, at Washington, D. C., occurs in the third house of the lunation chart and denotes considerable emphasis to news and issues of a purely local character, which will, however, be outweighed by interest in our foreign affairs.

Administration attention is centered on foreign reports, news, information, communications and transportation, as well as the thought and attitude of the populace, this latter being on edge because of unsettled world affairs and the aftermath of the previous fifty days.

The ponderous planets Saturn, Jupiter and Uranus are conjunct in Taurus in this third-house locality, which brings additional subject matter into news, radio reports, industrial, economic and labor discussions—also our close neighbor countries, as much effort, with probably indifferent success, to bring about a closer working harmony of the "good neighbor" policy.

The national tempo rises to a new high, with Aquarius rising at the time of the new Moon near to the locality of the Moon in the U. S. natal chart. The twenty-second degree of Aquarius ascending is a degree of violence which, according to astrological symbology, shows a condition of excessive passions and anger, leading to violence. There is more force than self control in evidence now. Thus brute force can lead to victory over outward enemies when a conservative policy would be preferable. A rising Mars in Pisces excites the nation to a militaristic-emotional impulse and can bring INTENSIFICATION OF NAVAL ACTION.

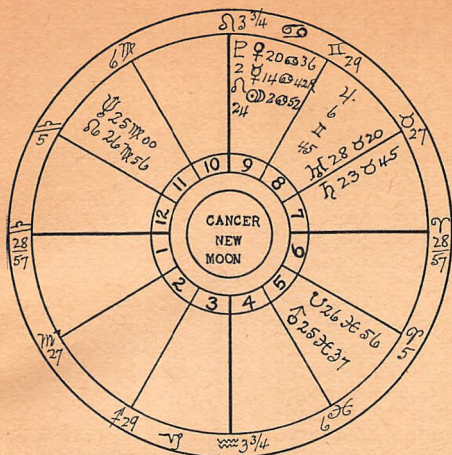

Uranus governs this lunation from the 3rd house, where he is besieged by Saturn and Jupiter, indicating some censorship of news by administrative and congressional order. Public clamor for administration action pertaining to foreign lands now expands and shows intensity. It is safe to say that if a national poll of public opinion were taken the sentiment would be overwhelmingly in favor of OUTRIGHT WAR. Affliction to the U. S. Moon shows adverse conditions in connection with colonial affairs, which are affected by the policies of other nations and our national outlook in this respect is likely to be a gloomy one at least temporarily. The Uranus zone of the U. S. natal chart gets its first touch-off of the many which are due to become operative in the seven years ahead. At this time we can expect an extension of foreign commitments, shipping and transportation and all defense measures. This is stressed by Jupiter's change into Gemini along with the new Moon.

Neptune holds forth in the 7th house of foreign relationships of a political and commercial character. This is not so good as it is conducive of underhanded and secret combinations, confusing and undependable contacts which may prove detrimental to our own national conditions due to the adverse square of Venus and Mercury to Neptune. News and reports will be conflicting and unreliable.

Saturn and Uranus in good application to Neptune emphasize humanitarian activities on the part of our government and steps up our aid to beleaguered nations in the form of food and supplies. There is a tendency, however, to neglect our own social welfare and thus cause a division of thought here at home. Pluto in the 6th house can bring governmental regimentation in connection with food, clothing, labor and army development.

NEW MOON, May 26, 1941, 0:10 A.M. T.L.T. at Washington, D. C.

NEW MOON, June 24, 1941, 2:14 P.M., T.L.T. at Washington, D. C.

A review of geographical Astrology in line with the midheavens and ascendants of European and Asiatic cities shows Uranus (reforms, upheavals affecting government officialdom, new era methods, power politics, etc.) moving over Saloniki; Sofia; Athens; Lemberg; Poland; Riga, Russia; Kimberly, Africa; Bucharest, Rumania; Smyrna and Turkey. Europe east of Berlin is due to feel the disruptions brought into manifestation by Uranus.

It is interesting to note that Venus conjunct Mars in Hitler's birth chart is in conjunction with the Berlin Midheaven. Radix Sun in Hitler's chart is conjunct London's Midheaven. Hitler's progressed Saturn is in conjunction to London's ascendant. Thus the astrological student can easily understand the dictator's interest in London which, unfortunately, happens to be destructive. Hitler's mission in life seems to be that of a wrecker of political and social structures. The closest historical comparison to Hitler is Attila the Hun, who styled himself the Scourge of God and specialized in the subjugation of peoples and the devastation of lands. It is comforting to note that he was finally defeated and that the flimsy fabric of his empire was dissolved. This comparison should be of interest to students of reincarnation.

While the Gemini new Moon of May 26th shows mainly a domestic expression, this expression naturally being tied up with our foreign activities, the Cancer lunation of June 24th shifts completely over to the foreign side with an intense 9th-house activity, focusing our interest on events in other countries. Shipping, trade agreements and arrangements, cooperative movements all draw administrative and mass thought and action.

Attention to our financial and economical operations as regards our assistance to other countries reaches a new high. The twenty-ninth degree of the partnership and associates sign Libra rises, stressing the cooperativeness and unity of Venus in the 9th house of navy, transportation and foreign places. Venus forms good aspects to Mars, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune, with the conjunction of Mercury moving toward Venus, giving an encouraged outlook for our participation in the interest of foreign democracies. We can expect more advantageous results from our defense and assistance program during July than was the case earlier. Mars in Pisces in the 5th house, opposing Neptune in the 11th is made to order for Naval attention or action regarding the Philippines. Both the Midheaven and Ascendant of Manila are in the path of afflicting Saturn and Uranus, this continuing up to June, 1942.

A new and important factor for consideration in July is Mars' entry into Aries on July 2nd, and the fact that he continues until January 11th, 1942 in this militaristic sign in the U. S. (Libra Ascendant) 7th house of war and public relations. Mars will afflict the U. S. Sun, which under the present world conditions can easily lead to strife, conflict and war.

Mars is in conjunction to South Node in the Cancer lunation chart, and rules the 6th house (army, labor, supplies) and 7th (war and financial affairs). This is a direct indication of trouble through, by and to enemies. It can also be productive of sabotage, poisoning and underhanded military methods by those who are unfriendly to our nation. Some serious disturbance affecting children and amusement centers or places of entertainment is likely.

Those born in the last six days of Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius and Pisces should take sensible precautions in travel, with food, and in general affairs of conduct as queer things can happen unannounced. A crisis of some kind is headed toward many persons in these signs.

Be prepared for a change in the universal current, which is the U. S. manifestation shifts back toward the mystic issues following the new Moon of July 24th, 1941. National finance, with some danger of inflation will now be the center of interest. The death angle shows prominence in July for the populace and representative persons with the death of a government official.

President Roosevelt's inaugural chart shows loss, trouble and depression in connection with domestic issues in June and July, but strength, amity and co-

YOUR MYSTIC LIFE

ESP Department

Staff-Conducted by CHRISTINA DAHL, Associate Editor, collaborating with TODAY'S ASTROLOGY and the Astro-Psychical Research Foundation
(Address letters to 3041 N. Kolmar Ave., Chicago, Ill.)

What is ESP? Does everyone possess psychic perception, occult powers? Can these mysterious abilities be developed? Used at will? How can you gain information not available to the physical senses? Send and receive thoughts from a distance? How is it possible to foresee events before they happen? Or "see" things happening at a distance? Are there authentic instances of the dead communicating with the living?

These are but a few of the many vital questions with which this department will deal. In each issue of TODAY'S ASTROLOGY we will present your real-life experiences with psychic phenomena, conduct tests or tell you how to conduct your own to determine your psychic ability, and will present material based upon modern researches in this fascinating field, correlated with Astrology.

Have you ever had a prophetic dream? A clairvoyant, telepathic or other psychic experience? PLEASE WRITE US ABOUT IT, and be sure to state if we may publish your letter.

A VOICE FROM BEYOND?

It was the occasion of my mother's funeral. When it was over, and I was returning home on the train, still having 200 miles to go, I was startled to hear my mother's voice. "Get off this train at the next stop," it said. I put this down as grief deranging my mind. But over and over, this message was urgently repeated. When the train stopped at the next town I had no intention of getting off. The message was repeated again, and it seemed like a hand jerking me violently so I almost fell. I got off, now really frightened. Some 20 minutes later, which I had spent sitting in the railroad station, upbraiding myself for a fool and wondering what to do next, news came that the train I had been on had gone over the side of a faulty bridge, many having been killed, or seriously injured. What was this? Premonition? Telepathy? Clairvoyance? Or just coincidence? Never had any other psychic experience. Birth-date (deleted by request).

Mrs. Ivar Larssen, Chicago, Ill.

Coincidence? That is a word we sometimes use when we run into a natural law of which we are ignorant. This experience was a premonitory one, a genuine sensing of disaster before it happened. Whether this was a case of an actual "voice from beyond" of a person departed this life, or whether your subconscious mind used this dramatic form of conveying the warning, would not be considered conclusively proven, by scientists. However, we might observe that there are a number of things science has not yet proven, but which is common knowledge in human experience. You, Mrs. Larssen, are an earthy, matter-of-fact Virgo-Capricorn person, likely to have psychic experiences only under unusual emotional stress.

BEFORE THE HOLOCAUST

It was April 16, 1906, and I was a boy of 13, living with my parents in San Francisco. That night I woke up yelling, terrified by a terrible nightmare of the city in flames, the earth opening up gulfs in which buildings and people fell . . . Mother and Dad woke; I told them the dream, they laughed, and sent me back to sleep. Calmed by their reassurances, I fell asleep again, and like a movie, the horrible dream resumed at the point at which I had wakened before. I insisted that we leave town, go to Grandmother's place. Finally Dad, humoring me as I had just gotten over a case of measles, said Mother and I could take a vacation at Grandmother's. Two days later, April 18, the San Francisco earthquake and fire . . . My father was one of the fortunates who escaped unscathed, but we lost our home and many dear friends. Between 13 and 18 I had many similar experiences, but none since. Born, June 28, 1893 . . .

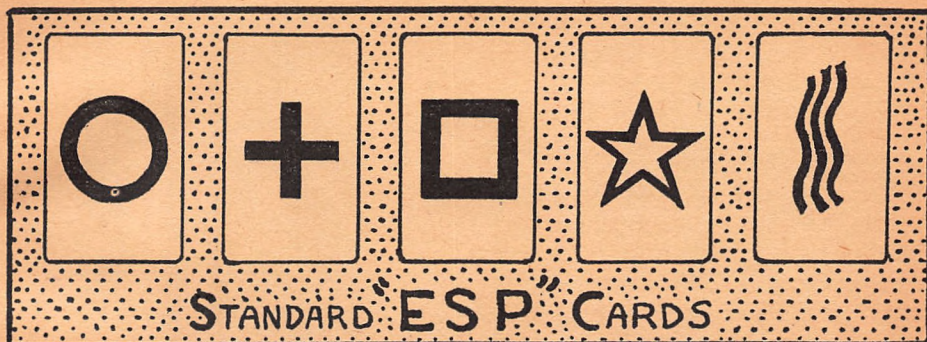

G. S. Goldfine, Los Angeles.

There is much evidence extant to show that before a major catastrophe many persons who usually are not psychic experience prophetic dreams. The authenticated (sworn and witnessed) cases concerning the San Francisco Earthquake alone are very numerous. It is

1st Prize, $10 Horoscope; 2nd Prize, $5 Horoscope, by Christina Dahl.
Duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of tie.

ESP Test # 1:

The Time: Sun. June 22, 1941, at 9 p.m. EST (8 p.m. CST, 7 p.m. MST, 6 p.m. PST), same as 10 p.m. EDST (9 p.m. CDST, 8 p.m. MDST, 7 p.m. PDST). Be sure to ascertain if your community is on Standard Time (ST) or Daylight Saving Time (DST).

You, the Percipient ("receiver"), need only a quiet room, comfortable chair, a clock you have set according to radio time to be sure it is right, a pencil, paper, pad or table on which to write. Arrange to be free from interruptions for the duration of the Test—25 minutes.

Before the appointed time, write on the sheet of paper you are to use: Upper left corner, your name, address, birth data. Your birth data will not be published, should you be among those who make the highest scores. Upper right corner, write "ESP Test # 1" and the date. Down the left margin write the numbers from 1 to 25. It is alongside these numbers that you will mark down one by one the telepathic impressions you receive during the test.

We, the Agents ("senders"), will consist of several members of the Astro-Psychical Research group: Dr. M. Langner, M.D., and Dr. T. Johnson, M.D., of Chicago, Dr. W. M. Scholl, Ph.D., of Detroit, and myself. We will be gathered at Chicago headquarters. Before the appointed time, we will thoroughly shuffle a deck of ESP cards (see illustration). The deck will then be placed face down on the table around which we will be seated. I will have a paper similar to yours, numbered from 1 to 25, and will record each card as it is drawn from the top of the deck.

The ESP cards to be used in this test are standard. There are 25 cards in the deck. Five cards are printed with a Circle, five with a Cross, five with a Square, five with a Star, and five with Wavy-lines. To keep the symbols in mind, have TODAY'S ASTROLOGY'S illustration before you.

As said, I will record each card that is turned up. Drs. Langner and Johnson will critically observe the proceedings, checking against any possibility of error, while Dr. Scholl will turn the cards up, one at a time. At exactly 10 p.m. EDST (9 p.m. CDST, etc.) the first card will be taken from the top of the pack and laid face up on the table in plain view. Under number 1 on my ESP Test sheet, I record the first symbol turned up. Then we four fasten our gaze and concentrative powers upon the card, striving to broadcast it to you by mental radio. When one minute has elapsed (at 10:01 p.m. EDST), the first card is discarded, and the second card taken from the top of the deck, and given the same treatment as the first: recording, checking, and broadcasting to you. The exact procedure described will be followed with all the cards, taking one minute for each one, until all

GEMINI

LOOKING AHEAD

For Those Born May 21-June 20

*Expansive, Busy Year for Gemini
Instruction, Education, Aviation
Gemini Expression in New Order*

WHILE the economic sign Taurus has held the spotlight during the past several years, the great cosmic wheel of the Zodiac in the spring of 1942, and, lo, your own sign Gemini, the Twins, intellectual, mental, artistic, scientific, travel and communication interests and expressions, moves into the limelight!

During the transit of Uranus through Taurus, which has occurred in the last seven years, great upheavals and reforms in money, banking, exchange and economics have taken place in our commercial, financial, industrial and political world.

In the seven years ahead we can look forward to a new horizon as relates to our material and objectivized ideas, thought, opinions, instruction and educational systems, travel and communication methods. Air travel (for Gemini is an air sign) will prevail over all else. Just as one's thoughts can travel over great distances in a matter of seconds, so will man aim to contact distant places in a matter of minutes.

Thus we can but predict intensified activity in radio, wireless, the telephone, air mail and all forms of communications between peoples during the seven years from 1942 to 1949. Incidentally, these seven years have more than ordinary significance to our own United States, during which we will experience a modern, streamlined version of our Civil War of the last Century.

Two major groups will fight it out for control and we will undergo such strife and turmoil as very few living Americans have seen. We further predict great changes in scholastic and religious teachings, leading to strife and dissension on the part of those who have their own particular ideas of how to bring about the new order of thought and instruction.

Scholastic dictators will rise, but only to their own discredit and disrepute. We have a good example of this new order of thought in the undemocratic and unworkable proposal by Prof. Robert J. Havighurst, new professor of education at the University of Chicago. Prof. Havighurst advocates a new system of education, wherein five percent of American children would be trained for top managerial and professional positions while the remaining ninety-five percent would have to content themselves with minor positions or common labor.

We will see much of this type of dictatorial theory propounded in our schools in the future, but it will be overrun by our American way of thinking and relegated back to limbo along with other forms of dictatorship.

The educational outlook has been in-

LOOKING AHEAD

For Those Born June 21-July 22

*Eventful Period July 2, '41 - Jan. 11, '42
Service in Defense Program Is Stressed Mystic-Occult Progress to the Fore*

AS THE nation goes, so goes Cancer, can be set forward as a truism in the American way of life. This is because the Sun was moving through the Cancer area of the Zodiac when the United States was declared a free republic. It is the most appropriately American of all the signs because Cancer, by nature, governs the mass populace. It is the public sign and the family sign and our nation was formed to give liberty and progress to the people.

A strong 12th solar house expression is stressed for the natives of Cancer in the seven years ahead and it gets an expansive start with Jupiter in Gemini up to June, 1942, and slips right into the Gemini notch of the Zodiac in May, 1942, with the entry of both Saturn and Uranus. The remainder of 1941 can be used to prepare the way for your induction into the Gemini planetary vibration and its 12th-house manifestation which will be so prominent in your daily life and affairs from 1942 to 1949.

This is likely to be an unsettled and trying period for our nation, so it might be well to give careful thought and attention to such plans as you intend to get under way in the year ahead, especially if these plans can be influenced by these seven years. You can read the Gemini Looking Ahead article in this issue to advantage, for it contains some high lights on what to expect. That which affects your neighbors can have a bearing on your own direct interests.

The 12th-house expression is identified with seclusion, restrictions, undercover activities, confidential arrangements, sorrow and trouble, self-defeat, enmities in secret, interest or employment in relationship to hospitals, asylums, prisons and reformatories—all these when planetary influences are of a disturbing and negative.

In a constructive sense it refers to research, secluded and secret work that calls for patience and loyalty to the task without the stimulation of publicity and honor, assistance to mankind, social service, occult and metaphysical study and endeavor.

Jupiter has much to do with your work, profession and health, your fathers and brothers and sisters. In Gemini Jupiter shows addition and expansion to any work and health conditions, medical attention, travel and the law as it relates to your employment, education or kin. Some phase of employment or self-confinement in a hospital or public institution is due to manifest. You can be of service to the sick. For you young Cancer men Jupiter is helpful in your promotion and learning during your training period in the army. Cancer young women serve well as hostesses or nurses. Those Cancerians of more mature years can act in connec-

ASTROLOGY WILL INCREASE YOUR SALES

By A. J. HAWORTH

SINCE the dawn of civilization, barter and trade has been man's most important economic consideration. And today, the distribution of products is probably the chief problem of the commercial world. One thing is certain, salesmanship is the largest occupation in the world, with the possible exception of this temporary business of soldiering.

And this brings us to the point regarding the wonderful opportunities that the war is opening for salesmen. Unprecedented defense plans by America brings to the surface over $17,000,000,000 to lay into the laps of producers and distributors. This figure includes $4,600,000,000 to spend on our two-ocean navy. The Lease-Lend bill calls for $7,000,000,000 worth of supplies. Almost every item of merchandise, known to man is included in this giant undertaking.

Are you prepared to get your share of the gravy by reorganizing your sales program or getting into this lucrative field that is being opened? Astrology can help you apply yourself to the question intelligently. Let us first take a general survey of the national situation before getting down to your individual case.

The nature of the work involved in arming and maintaining our army and furnishing British aid has caused a sudden change in the geographical sales map of the U. S. Cities near army camps have had a sharp increase in population, as well as those in the areas of shipbuilding yards, motor firms, aircraft plants and any industrial plant engaged in defense production. And do not overlook state and city governments who are now good prospects. Study carefully the shift in marketing areas for most concerns are reorganizing their sales force and allotting large new quotas to territories that were considered "average" a short time ago. They are also looking for "new blood" to inject into their sales forces as well as new items.

Everyone has always had something to sell, service, goods, themselves etc. And that seems to be the reason why there are salesmen born under every sign in the zodiac. But do you know yourself, your basic characteristics well enough to apply them to your daily sales work? And are you engaged in selling the right product for you? Like in many other vocations, there are many failures or mediocre salesmen because they are round plugs in square holes or vice versa. They have not found the department into which they naturally and astrologically fit.

Astrologically, the world's goods fall into four classes; and are governed by the four zodiacal elements, namely Fire, (Aries, Leo and Sagittarius), Earth, (Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn), Air, (Gemini, Libra and Aquarius), and Water, (Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces). Naturally, salespeople, who work in their ELEMENT will come in contact with others working in the same element and will therefore do better work because of natural harmony.

If your sunsign is Fiery or there is a heavy majority of your planets in Fiery signs, work in the following lines, which of course is partial, but will give you the idea: Metals, fire, machinery, engines, supplies for butchers, barbers, hardware dealers, surgeons, firearms, etc. If you will analyze the world of fire and metal you can't go wrong.

Aries people in the field exhibit self-esteem, initiative, pioneering and are courageous, ambitious and enterprising, but must guard against self-will, temper, and overbearing traits. The Leo man is full of vitality and is a generous loyal affectionate person but he must look out for arrogance, vanity and even cruelty. The Sagittarian is more the idealist, inspiring others, generous, loves the outdoors, but the weak tendency is to be a bit fanatical, dogmatic and overconfident.

When the sun or planets lean to Earthy signs the most profitable merchandise to handle will be things from the earth that feed, clothe and shelter the race: Agricultural products, foodstuffs both raw and prepared, for groceries, commissaries, etc. Also real estate,

WALLACE BEERY

Wins False Arrest Suit

By ELBERT BENJAMINE

President of The Church of Light

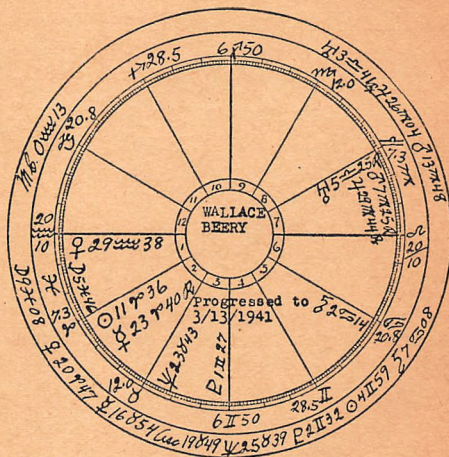

ON MARCH 13, 1941, a jury of nine women and three men found that Wallace Beery in real life is not the villain he so frequently portrays on the screen by returning a verdict in his favor in Whitney's $600,000 false arrest suit.

To understand this suit, due consideration must be given to the afflictions in the house of lawsuits and partners (seventh), and to the square of Sun to Saturn in the house of children (fifth), in the screen star's birth-chart. Also that when a further outstanding development of some important matter comes into the life years after it was first started, the general rule is that the planet a progressed aspect to which indicated its commencement, is receiving another progressed aspect. According to Ralph E. Kraum, the recorded time of Beery's birth is April 1, 1886, 4:00 a.m., Kansas City, Mo. The progressed positions of the planets around the outside of the chart are for March 13, 1941.

With Venus conjunction the Ascendant, the domestic and sympathetic Moon in the first house in emotional Pisces, and Jupiter also angular, not only is Beery big hearted and willing to help down-and-outers, but he loves children. This love of youngsters is increased by both Venus and the Moon being trine Saturn in the house of children (fifth). But as Saturn is square Sun, Jupiter and Uranus, children also at times bring him serious trouble.

Furthermore, Mars in the house of partnerships and lawsuits (seventh) is opposition Venus and the Moon, while Uranus and Jupiter in this same house are opposition Sun and square Saturn. These afflictions indicate separation from partners and difficulties arising from enemies.

In 1926, when progressed Venus came to the opposition of Uranus and square progressed Saturn, Beery found a 13 year old homeless boy on the streets, and out of the bounty of his heart took him into his own domicile. The sudden acquaintance with the boy is characteristic of the progressed aspect to Uranus.

But at the time, progressed Saturn in the house of children (fifth) was not only afflicted by the square of progressed Venus, but also by the semi-square of progressed Sun. Beery says he came to believe the boy, Allan B. Whitney, unreliable, and after four months turned him out.

But the difficulty was not to end so soon; for Mrs. Foyt, who divorced Beery in 1939, when she came to the screen star's aid in the damage action, testified that Whitney had been a "shadow on our lives."

A few years ago, under the influence of Sun semi-sextile Saturn in the house of children (fifth), Beery adopted a daughter, Carol Ann, who is now seven years old. She is the light of his heart, on whom he lavishes money and affection. Because his great love for the child is so well known, there have been a number of kidnap threats. He and his brother, Noah Beery, have been apprehensive for the child. This apprehension was increased when progressed Sun in 1939 was conjunction progressed Pluto, the kidnap planet.

On November 22, 1939, Noah Beery discovered Whitney, who had recently been a film cutter, on Wallace Beery's front lawn in Beverly Hills. He called the police and they arrested Whitney. Whitney later brought suit against Wallace Beery and several Beverly Hills police officers for $600,000 for false arrest. Wallace denied any responsibility for the arrest.

When Whitney first came into Beery's

NAVAL BOMBER CRASH

A Lesson for Those Who Choose to Learn

THE naval patrol bomber P.B. Y-1 left the Norfolk, Virginia base April 7th, 1941 at 7 o'clock A.M. A chart erected for the time of departure shows the "Mystery" degree of Taurus ascending, with Saturn exactly at the horizon at the time of take-off.

This of itself was a serious warning had the science of Astrology been applied for this trip. Students of Astrology always know that Saturn on even keel with the rising sign of the Zodiac at any time gives a bleak and dark outlook with tragedy usually stalking in the offing. No astrological student acquainted with the exact time of take-off would have been greatly amazed at the naval announcement that the plane registered a routine progress report ten minutes out of the base—and was then heard of no more.

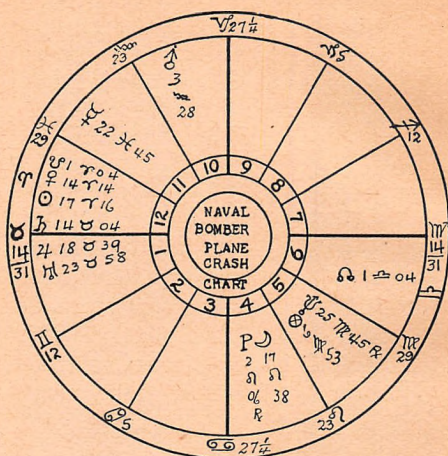

Venus, ruler of the ascendant, is combust with the Sun in the 12th-house of distress with no support in the planetary formation operative at this time, but did have a disturbing contact by parallel with Mercury, who is in opposition to Neptune, ruler of the 12th house.

Jupiter, who governs the 8th house (death and disaster) is also rising, just four degrees following Saturn, and is besieged by two malefics, Saturn and Uranus. It would appear that the last and only report message was sent as Jupiter reached the horizon and that this was followed by an explosion as Uranus crossed the ascendant.

The Moon, ruler of the 4th house (final disposition) because of the surface and coastal watery sign Cancer on the 4th cusp, is in the 4th house, afflicting by square the ascendant and the three rising planets, Saturn, Jupiter and Uranus. This particular formation is ready made for such a disaster as occurred.

Incidentally, a chart erected for the take-off of the commercial plane that nearly cost the life of Eddie Rickenbacker showed the planet Saturn on the 9th-house cusp of long journeys.

We present the astrological findings on the ill-fated take-off of the naval bomber not as a criticism of the air arm of our navy, which is known for its efficiency, but out of hope that in some not too distant time an effort will be made to use astrological indications for determining the advisability of flights by plane.

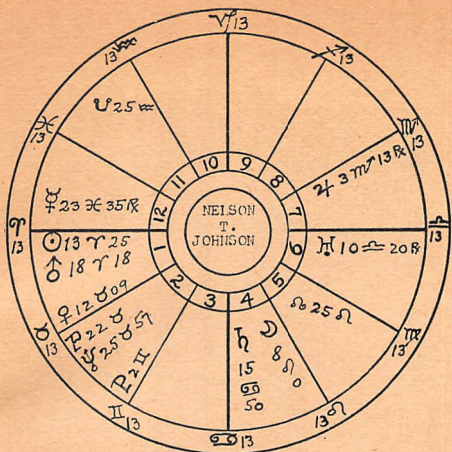

Just because this has never been done is not a sane reason why Astrology should not be applied to the saving of lives and property. It is said that many commercial pilots are becoming interested in Astrology in connection with their work, but they can do little until the leaders of aviation in all its branches open their eyes to the value of the science in the prevention of disaster. Such a course would mean the greatest stride in aviation achieved for many years.

NELSON T. JOHNSON America's Voice in China

IT'S a long, long way to Cathay. And still our national interests are more and more tied up with that of the Chinese nation. Japan, particularly since her non-aggression pact was completed with Russia, has been rattling the Niponese sword, bent on committing political hari kari but also bent on giving the United States a lot of trouble while she's doing it.

Our Man Friday in China, whom we are sworn to assist in keeping Japan busy in the Pacific, is Nelson T. Johnson, not only a shrewd diplomat but a man who fears nothing from a polite Japanese insult hissed over a tea table to actual war with the little brown men under the flag of the Rising Sun.

Mr. Johnson was born April 3rd, 1887, under the militaristic sign Aries. Mars, ruler of Aries, in close conjunction to the Sun intensifies the energy, assertiveness and strong leadership of our envoy, who has earned the gratitude of the Chinese and the wholesome respect of the Japanese as our representative in China during the most trying time for our eastern interests since the Boxer rebellion.

Moon in Leo forms a good aspect to both Sun and Mars, denoting a life expression of accomplishment and the ability to cope with big issues and trying situations. This is one of the strongest success applications of any planetary formation. The "T" cross formed by planets in Cancer (public work and responsibility having a fateful inclination or selection for special duty, further stressed by conjunction to the fixed star Sirius, the latter contact making for a steady, reserved, diplomatic person who benefits through help from friends) with Sun-Mars on left wing and Uranus on right, holds him to a course of action that unites personal, executive and official application to government service along public lines, a semblance of enforced purpose underlies his work and life action.

Envoy Johnson is a result producer, even though faced with serious governmental problems as has been the case since Japan's invasion of China, indicated by the opposition of Sun and Mars to Uranus. He knows what it is to deal and contend with opposing forces and we are assured by his chart that he is fully capable of looking after number one, and number one's principal—the U. S. Government—in his difficult post.

Mr. Johnson's progressed Sun and Mercury, now conjoined are moving to the same area as Uranus in the U. S. Chart, so we can expect to hear more about him and his work, now more strenuous than ever as the United States acts to fulfill its recent promise of more and bigger aid to China in her war with Japan.

Just another fighting Arian, blessed with a planetary pattern at birth that makes his country fortunate to have him in this key position during the difficult days that lie ahead.

life, progressed Venus was opposition Uranus and square Saturn. Whitney came again prominently, and quite unexpectedly, into Beery's life when other progressed aspects formed to both Uranus and Saturn. Progressed Sun was trine progressed Uranus, and semi-sexile Saturn at the time of the arrest, and progressed Sun was trine birth-chart Uranus, and Mercury was semi-square Saturn at the time of the lawsuit.

Fear (Saturn) for the safety of a child being at least indirectly responsible for the difficulty is indicated by progressed Mercury semi-square Saturn. That this is a period of difficulty is more pronouncedly shown by progressed Sun square birth-chart Moon. The nature of the event is signified by the aspect to a planet in the house of lawsuits (seventh), and the lucky ending by progressed Sun in luck (trine) aspect to Uranus.

What comes into the life under a progressed aspect to Uranus is due to a human agency. In this instance not only his previous wife, Mrs. Foyt, came to his aid, but among others, Mrs. Loreen Buffum Robinson, a wealthy widow. And, with such a powerful aspect to a planet in the house of marriage, it is not surprising that rumors quickly developed that Mrs. Robinson would probably be the third Mrs. Wallace Beery.

The house of the birth-chart in which Jupiter is found, irrespective of its aspects, is the house of abundance. In the seventh house it indicates abundance where marriage or partnerships are concerned. The first Mrs. Wallace Beery was Gloria Swanson. She divorced him in 1918, when in his chart progressed Venus, ruling his personality (first), made the separation (opposition) aspect with progressed Jupiter.

The second Mrs. Wallace Beery was Rita Gillman, whom he married in 1924 when progressed Sun came to the sesquicentennial aspect with Uranus in the house of marriage (seventh). This marriage ended in divorce in 1939, when the Sun made another aspect to Uranus, this

Good Results of ADVERSE ASPECTS

Uranus Square Venus

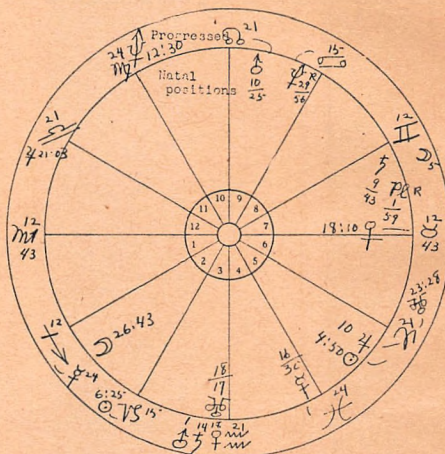

By GERTRUDE W. GASS

A SERIOUS student of Astrology . . . any well informed Astrologer, can perceive the splendid possibilities of the horoscope accompanying this article. A sincere interpreter has but to look at this sky map and see the strength of the Ascendant, the promise of the tenth house, with Mars, the life ruler accidentally dignified and in trine aspect to the Sun from the fifth house. However, there is a type of Astrologer (?) who might say after a brief glance at the planetary positions in this map, . . .

"Uranus square Venus, and a sex sign rising. Illicit love relations. Neptune, the planet of intrigue, and Mars, the planet of passion near the mid-heaven and opposed to the unconventional Uranus. Well . . .!"

From such remarks a listener would naturally think that the native of this horoscope was following an ancient and unhonorable profession. It is just such snap judgment as this that scatters far and wide a very false impression of Astrology. To say nothing of the harm such interpretation could cause. The adverse aspects in this girl's chart did manifest, but not in the manner the careless delineator would have us believe.

Miss "Smith", born March 25, 1916, Alton, Illinois.

Miss Smith (this is not her name) was born March 25th, 1916, at Alton, Illinois. Time, nine-thirty p.m. She was not yet five years old when her Progressed Moon passed over her natal Uranus at the nadir of her horoscope, at which time her parents moved to a not far distant large city. This child was born to wealthy parents. Both father and mother were overly strict with her. In fact they allowed her no social privileges whatever. With the energy and impulsiveness of an Aries Sun, the fire and natural friendliness of a Sagittarian Moon and the intensity of Scorpio rising, such treatment was more than this active, strong-natured child could bear. She began to "play hooky" from school and induced some of her associates to do likewise, simply to enjoy normal childhood companionship. When she entered her teens she acquired the perfectly normal instinct for friendship with boys. Uranus at this time was passing through her fifth house making her somewhat wild and rebellious. Had her parents encouraged her to have friends at home and allowed her to go about with girls and boys of her own age in the healthful pastimes of High school life, all might have been well. But this was refused her. (Note Uranus influencing fourth house and Mars tenth,

The Mental Horoscope

By LOIS HAINES

EVERY student of Astrology is familiar with the Zodiacal Man, the physical horoscope which begins with Aries, the head, and ends with Pisces, the feet. Each sign and house of the horoscope corresponds to certain anatomical parts and functions of the body.

The same horoscope represents also the mind of each individual, and thru the signs and houses can be read the various capacities and functions of that mind.

In Aries, and the first house, we find the brain of man, especially the frontal part immediately above the eyes, which is called the perceptive region. Here we find the powers of observation, discernment, and quick perception necessary to size up a situation and make rapid decisions. That is why we call the Aries person impulsive and say of him "to think is to act." The first house is the house of inspirations — those ideas which are apt to strike the brain or awaken it to a certain line of thought.

Under Taurus and the second house you find the function of deliberation and meditation. These are qualities which enable one to assemble various ideas and organize them into a constructive purpose. The medulla oblongata, which lies at the base of the brain, comes under the rulership of this sign. This is the body's central switchboard, through which the sensory system conveys messages to the brain, and the brain conveys orders to the body. Therefore we find the second house governs the powers of co-ordination and mental poise. That is why we find in most Taurus people the ability to think things out to a finish.

Gemini and the third house are taken to rule functions of the mind in the horoscope. In our mental horoscope, we find under this sign and house the qualities of imitation, intuition, reason, and intelligence. When one enters this sphere of consciousness, one begins to learn by imitating others. This quality lies behind the Gemini's tendency to be satisfied with superficial information. After one learns by imitation, one forms one's own particular viewpoints, begins to reason and evolve individual opinions, and learns to use the mind, or to think. Hence we have what be call intelligence.

The whole first half of the zodiac, from Aries to Virgo or the first to sixth houses, can be said to belong to the intelligence, while the last half, from Libra and seventh house, to Pisces and twelfth house, belongs to the realm of intellect. The difference between intellect and intelligence is this: intellect is acquired knowledge, but intelligence is the ability to use what you know.

Under Gemini and the third house we can also put curiosity, the quality which arouses interest in learning. Intuition is also found here. Intuition is the unexplainable faculty for guessing correctly which forms the very outside fringe of mental telepathy and all extra sensory perceptions.

Under Cancer and the fourth house we have memory, imagination and the quality of receptivity which enables one to gather impressions rapidly. It is this quality which makes us say of the Cancer native "he is sensitive." Memory is stored information and one of the tools of the mind. Under imagination we must distinguish between the habit of idle fancy or day dreaming (found in many Cancer natives) and the creative imagination that takes images and ideas and enlarges upon them to produce something tangible — a plan of action, an invention, or a story.

Have you a love, marriage, or home problem on which you want astrological guidance? As many readers will be answered in the column as space allows. When writing, give (1) place, month, date, year, and hour of birth as closely as known, for yourself and others in your problem; (2) explain your problem frankly; (3) give fictitious initials for column identification; (4) give your real name and address, which are held confidential. Send your letter direct to CHRISTINA DAHL, 3041 NORTH KOLMAR AVE., CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. (Readers who want private, more detailed information than may be given in this column, see Christina Dahl's professional notice elsewhere in this magazine.)

"FOR THE CHILDREN'S SAKE . . ."

Dear Christina Dahl: I was born Jan. 23, 1898 . . . Husband and I have been married 22 years. It was not a union of love. I've stuck to a bad bargain for the children's sake . . . feel that he has too . . . The only way the children and I can have any peace is to give him his way in all things . . . I've tried to be congenial . . . failed . . . he's been unfaithful. Will real love ever come to me? Many thanks.

Mrs. E. S., Alabama.

It often happens, Mrs. S., that parents who stay together solely "for the sake of the children" bring those children even more suffering than they experience themselves in a mistaken sacrifice. Better, in a case of that sort, for the children to commute between two homes being met with a smiling happy face in each, than to live in one home seeing two long faces, listening to bickering, enduring nervous strain, year in and year out. There is a popular superstition to the effect that the "children of divorce" tend to make marriages which also end in divorce. But in this work it has been found that children of unhappy, maladjusted parents who "stick it out in spite of everything" are far more likely than any others to experience marital failure.

The poison of parental marital failure seeping into a child's soul destroys much of his natural, spontaneous faith in love and threatens to leave a serious emotional bias towards marriage, in later life. Think of your problem from this angle, Mrs. S. Bless you, you're one of those staunchly loyal and conscientious Aquarians inclined to feel that the way which demands the most sacrifice from yourself is best for everyone else's happiness! In your case, Friend, the way to happiness for the others concerned is through your own happiness. 1942-1944 will bring you the opportunities you need to make a new, better life for you all. That is my judgment.

TWO MEN AND A GIRL

Dear Miss Dahl: We went together for a while, then tried to stop seeing each other. She was engaged to another man . . . finally broke with him, and I gave her an engagement ring . . . My work took me away, we only saw each other occasionally . . . her letters started cooling slightly. Later, when together I asked her what was wrong . . . finally got out of her that it was the other man—said she loved him, not me. Then after awhile she said she loves me too . . . The girl and I both have the responsibility of supporting relatives. The other man has only himself, and a fair position. Which of us does she love? Which will she decide to take? My date, Jan. 8, 1910. Hers, Jan. 19, 1916. Young man, Oct. 2, 1913. Shoot the answers straight . . . the old goat can take them.

R. E. B., Texas.

Okay, Mr. Capricorn: Straight from the shoulder. Were your and the other young man's economic positions parallel, the girl would without doubt choose you. But your Saturn and Mars (symbolical of your heavy responsibilities) in square her Saturn, Moon and Sun, eventually is likely to drive you apart. From the strictly practical standpoint—which is important to this Capricorn-Cancer girl—marriage with you would

"SO NOW you're going in for spooks," writes Mrs. Sarah Wykhart, of Bloomfield, New Jersey, in a very amusing letter in reference to Miss Dahl's column on "Your Mystic Life." Mrs. Wykhart thinks that there is enough shivers and creeps in the daily news without magazines going in for such things.

So in deference to Mrs. Wykhart and those who feel as she does about such things, we'll have Miss Dahl promise not to bring sheeted ghosts down around our ears to make us shiver and quake o' nights. But this correspondent seems to have had a few quite out-of-the-ordinary psychic experiences herself, so she isn't altogether negative on the idea behind Miss Dahl's research.

"My father was away from home a great deal," writes Mrs. Wykhart, "and Mother could always tell when he was in trouble. This was back in the horse and buggy days and Father dealt in horses. When Mother began to have those 'hunches' that things weren't all right with Dad she would go to the gate and watch for him long before he was due to arrive. We kids finally got on to this and shared in her expectation of trouble when she took up her post at the gate. I very well remember that when I was twelve years old Mother was out watching at the gate, a troubled look on her face, when the party-line telephone rang. I answered it and received the news that Dad had been badly hurt when a young horse ran away with him."

All of which sounds as if Mrs. Wykhart is in reality becoming one of Miss Dahl's fans rather than a detractor. Incidentally, the volume of correspondence accumulating from the new department indicates that Astrology-lovers are also interested in the psychic sides of their natures, which is very good. Self-study is the first step toward immortality and although none of us may reach it, we all long for it whether or not we admit it to ourselves. So long live Miss Dahl, her good work and her interested fans, say we.

That Numerology Story!

Did you read "Five Plus Six Equals Heaven" in our April-May issue? If you did, you were reading what may become some kind of Epic in numerology publishing. It caused a storm protest from some deep and serious numerology students and writers. It caused Miss Florence Moner, who wrote the story, to be called a few polite names by brother and sister numerologists.

Most vociferous of these was our good friend Mary Adams, who has long been our unquestioned authority on the subject of numbers in all their various intricacies. Miss Adams pointed out, as did several others, that simple name numerology without the use of the birth date is in reality only scratching the surface and that conclusions arrived at through merely using the letters of the name can be highly misleading. She also reminds us that when Rosaline married Kirk (see the story) she would have, of course, changed her name and thus some of her characteristics.

Which is true. Miss Moner, the writer of the story knows it is true. Her first submission to us told the story in much more technical language, her conclusions were reached through the use of the birth date, a birth path was set up. All of which was just grand except for the fact that the story was much, much too long, and not at all understandable to anyone who was not very well versed in numerology.

So (the secret is out at last!) your editor sent back the story and told Miss Moner to make it shorter, more amusing, simpler and snappier. Miss Moner complied. Your editor liked the last and shorter version of the story, and recognized in it something that made numerology sound very interesting even to us, who know so little about the science.

Why can't we just go along like anybody else and make a blunder occasionally without having people jump down our editorial neck? Maybe we were wrong. Miss Adams (bless her loyal heart) says we were, Miss Moner says we were, and that will I please let her keep her reputation and stick to sound numerology after this instead of getting her own neck out. Several other numerologists agree with these two estimable ladies that your editor was wrong. But, drat it all, why do people have to spend good postage telling us just how wrong we were? It's terrible on the editorial ego, bad for our prestige and no end annoying. So, no numerology in this issue. Maybe we'll recover our aplomb and take a chance next time. Wait until the next issue and see, for we aren't sure at this writing.

For Those Born March 21-April 19

THE GOOD
mental period mentioned for you during the last days of May continue through the first three weeks of June. Your mental development is the one big and important thing in your life just now. Your mind is keen, receptive and active. This would be a wonderful time to start a correspondence course, try writing if you have any aptitude at literary work, or put in some good study on something connected with your regular job. One note of warning should be sounded; be careful of your conduct during this period, taking absolutely no chance on your reputation. You should use special caution during bad aspects of the Sun, or your ruler, Mars, whose 12th-house position threatens scandal and discredit.

The month following June 22nd brings permanent investments to the fore in your financial life. This is a time in which to give some thought to your security in the future. Not good for quick profits or wild speculation. Your financial affairs are likely to be closely connected to your family or near kin. There is a good possibility that you could close some joint-property deal with a relative that would bring you close to realizing your fondest hopes. A good time to work on legal matters, especially those concerning legacies and family property. On July 2nd your ruler moves into your 2nd solar house, bringing a tendency toward reckless spending and extravagance. Guard against this for this is no time in which to spend money foolishly.

The last eight days of July find you in a more speculative period. You could take a chance financially now, especially if you pick the hours of good aspects (See Aspectarian) in which to take such chances. Remember—first three weeks of June, mental work and advancement, thereafter financial affairs stressed.

Aries Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: A neutral Sunday morning, with Moon position favoring association with children for relaxation and inspiration. There is some danger of sorrow or disappointment over the conduct of the other sex this afternoon and evening so stay among those of your own sex or be extra-discreet.

Mon. June 2: A neutral morning and a rather weak one. Afternoon could bring a nervous upset or trouble with your employees if you hire others. Rest, relax.

Tues. June 3: Doubtful until around dinner time, at which time you could entertain an aged relative or an unfortunate person to your own ultimate gain.

Wed. June 4: Late morning is questionable as to partnership affairs, both in marriage and business, so attempt no adjustments today. Late evening brings a likelihood of a romantic interlude if you are single and eligible. Try it.

Thur. June 5: Another good evening for marital and romantic affairs. The other sex likes you and is attracted to you. If you're married you could gain a new understanding with your mate—one that would mean a better life for you.

Fri. June 6: A neutral, perhaps rather blue and somber morning—if you allow yourself to think about the past. Afternoon brings something good through your sweetheart or marriage partner. Good also for sound business, signing contracts.

Sat. June 7: Be cautious about your diet at noon. Late afternoon would be a good time to try for a loan, credit or anything that would obligate you to another.

Sun. June 8: Be careful of your speech today, for your mind is working erratically, and your thoughts are not sound or constructive. Stay alone or be quiet.

Mon. June 9: Much like yesterday. Keep away from the boss if you're employed. Refuse to discuss important matters at home or you'll be sorry later.

Tues. June 10: A third questionable one in a row! This time there's danger of discredit or scandal with the other sex, and obstacles in business. Take it easy.

Wed. June 11: Better! Your 10th-house Moon gets smiled on by Mars, Saturn, Neptune and Uranus. Now get going on anything relating you to the public. Public work, publicity, recognition or social prestige. You'll win. Good also for getting help from women—could be advice, influence or actual loans if needed.

Thur. June 12: Another good one, especially in late morning. Help of all kinds comes through friends and acquaintances if you ask for it. Good for social calls where business is the keynote. Women and children are your best companions.

Fri. June 13: The "Friday 13th" bug could bite you at dinnertime, especially if you tell your plans and secrets to others. Trust no one too far now.

Sat. June 14: Late morning brings the realization of a wish or ambition if you seek out the right party to help you achieve it. This could mean an introduction to an influential person, a new job or some employment betterment for your kin.

Sun. June 15: Early to mid-afternoon is excellent for straightening out some tangle in your life if you use Astrology or think deeply. Also good for occult study and planning ahead. Be careful in your speech today and shun rudeness.

nothing that requires the help of others or long, hard concentration.
Wed. June 24: Morning much like yesterday, as Mars disturbs your mental processes. Early afternoon fine for influencing others, traveling, selling.
Thurs. June 25: Late morning and the noon hour are good for visiting with the other sex.
Fri. June 26: Probably your best June day. Make a date for lunch.
Sun. June 28: Make a date for lunch. All affairs concerning the home and family. The other sex likes you, including your mate or kin. Do things!
Sat. June 27: Another good one. Gayety is promised if you can manage to be among gay and young people. Good for speculation if indicated. Get out and step.
Sat. June 28: Morning neutral, afternoon rather questionable. Be discreet around the other sex and form no new romantic attachments. Guard your morals.
Sun. June 29: A fine day for entertaining others at Sunday dinner, especially one of the other sex. Try to think of someone you want to visit, then make a date.
Mon. June 30: No sustained cosmic strength for big things. Guard your health and try for no monetary gains today. Think of serving others rather than self.

try for no big gains in prestige, publicity or public approval.
Tues. July 1: Late morning brings a good Venus time to your 1st-house Moon. Get going on all public affairs. You could get public recognition if you try.
Wed. July 16: Daylight hours and evening neutral. Go on your own today.
Thurs. July 17: Much like yesterday. Start nothing new or difficult for you'd likely leave it unfinished and waste your time. Pursue routine matters now.
Fri. July 18: Morning rather questionable. Look for obstacles in business.
Sat. July 19: A neutral or rather doubtful day, due to a probably upset mind in early morning. A late evening party would find you popular, much appreciated.
Sun. July 20: Another neutral one. Moon position favors mental work, planning.
Mon. July 21: A questionable and doubtful morning. Your mind is working crosswise so don't insist on airing your views. Make no important changes today.
Tues. July 22: Not much cosmic strength, but if you have an important contact or decision to make grab that good aspect just after 12:30 p. m. Lunch date?
Wed. July 23: A fine day, especially as regards important home financial matters. Good also for romance, favors from the other sex, dealing in sound investments.
Thurs. July 24: A neutral day, but evening should be gay and inspiring. Step out.
Fri. July 25: Doubtful. Take no chances around the other sex today.
Sat. July 26: Neutral morning, questionable afternoon. Don't gamble today.
Sun. July 27: Morning should bring a chance to serve one who will appreciate it.
Mon. July 28: Variable, but if you will guard your health you can advance your employment or domestic interest through will- ingness to serve others.
Tues. July 29: Mixed aspects make the morning questionable. Stick to routine.
Wed. July 30: Evening is good for romance, marriage, talking over new alliances or partnerships in work or business, adjusting existing partnership matters.
Thurs. July 31: A neutral day, but Moon position favors business trips, partnership affairs. Too weak for forming new alliances or signing important papers.

Mon. June 16: Morning negative with a tendency toward indiscretion on your part that could mean trouble. Avoid unjust suspicions. Afternoon good for thinking out your problems and planning but weak for contacts in business or social affairs.
Tues. June 17: Daylight hours neutral. Evening finds you at your best socially and the center of things if you entertain or go out. Mix around, impress people.
Wed. June 18: A neutral day. Moon position favors your popularity if you don't try to push things or influence others. Not good for aggressive contacts.
Thurs. June 19: Another neutral day, though not at all dangerous. Make usual contacts with confidence but don't talk too much nor try for publicity.
Fri. June 20: A grand day! Now you can borrow, get credits, introductions, recognition. A female relative would help you financially if asked now.
Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through noon hour is good for things mentioned yesterday. Good for getting backing for a new venture if indicated for you.
Sun. June 22: A good social and mental morning. Your mind is keen and witty. Good for travel, meeting new people or associating with learned people.
Mon. June 23: Tricky, largely because of your upset mind and erratic talk. Try not at all dangerous. Make usual contacts with confidence but don't talk too much nor try for publicity.
Fri. June 20: A grand day! Now you can borrow, get credits, introductions, recognition. A female relative would help you financially if asked now.
Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through noon hour is good for things mentioned yesterday. Good for getting backing for a new venture if indicated for you.
Sun. June 22: A good social and mental morning. Your mind is keen and witty. Good for travel, meeting new people or associating with learned people.
Mon. June 23: Tricky, largely because of your upset mind and erratic talk. Try Tues. July 1: Jute times your 7th-house Moon in early evening bringing something good from your partner and popularity where- ever you go, but you'd best be cautious about the other sex after 10:00 P.M. as trouble threatens.

Wed. July 2: Noon and afternoon are excellent for travel, dealing with your in-laws, attending to any family property matters or for romance if eligible.
Thurs. July 3: Rather critical, especially in the morning. Form no new alliances and shun all romantic emotions. Push no legal matters today.
Fri. July 4: There are no danger signs to mar this paralytic holiday for you. Early morning aspects indicate a strong vitality and growing health.
Sat. July 5: Morning rather questionable and should be a cautious one. Afternoon is fine for occult study, straightening out finances with your partner.
Sun. July 6: Daylight hours neutral. Moon position favors mental work, study.
Mon. July 7: A neutral morning. Don't act on your hunches this afternoon as they are likely to be wrong. Avoid discussions on abstract subjects today.
Tues. July 8: A good, strong morning if you have any dealings with the public.
Wed. July 9: Probably your best July day. Get going on employment matters, public affairs, lodge or group work. Good for asking favors of women.
Thurs. July 10: Another good one, this one being recommended for all friendship and cooperative matters. Women and children inspire and strengthen you.
Fri. July 11: Somewhat critical. Guard against estrangement from friends by keeping your secrets and asking nothing of them. Depend on yourself now.
Sat. July 12: Early morning finds you psychic and able to read the minds and motives of others. You could straighten out a family puzzle. Afternoon questionable, so keep your suspicions to yourself and be extra-conventional around the other sex.
Sun. July 13: Variable, but morning promises some new understanding if you seek to grasp some new metaphysical or occult truth. Examine your own mind.
Mon. July 14: Negative but not dangerous. Make all usual contacts with confidence but

TAURUS - - June - July

For Those Born April 20-May 20

★ Your willingness to work for what you get is your capital now.

AS mentioned for you during the last ten days of May, the first three weeks of June are excellent financial ones for you Taurians who are able to capitalize on these influences—and you should be if you watch your opportunities. Gains should come through superiors, or through the father if he is alive. At the same time, the best opportunities arise through industrious effort on your part. There is no indication of “luck” in gambling or speculation. If you are employed you’ll find superiors impressed with your willingness and ready to give you added responsibilities along with some increased gains for you. This is also a good social period—if you watch your tendency toward rash spending. From June 8th to July 3rd your ruler, Venus, in your 3rd solar house accentuates your tastes for art and the higher things. This means you can develop spiritually and mentally as well as in a monetary way during this period.

From June 22nd to July 23rd is almost wholly a mental period for you. There is a tendency to learn and teach. You can grasp new theories and understand their deeper meanings now, or you can advance yourself in your job by study. Taurian housewives can influence the members of their families now and it would be a good time to stress the cultural life of your family, regardless of whether you are the family head or merely a member. From July 3rd to July 26th, Venus accentuates domestic happiness and serenity. A good time to cement relations with kin or straighten out any tangle which might have caused coldness.

The last eight days of July promise the realization of long-cherished ambitions if you work to achieve it. More of that in our next issue.

Taurus Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: You start the month with a rather doubtful day especially as regards the home and family. Don't be aggressive or demanding, but guard your children against indiscretion—and be particularly discreet yourself to avoid trouble.

Mon. June 2: Another doubtful one. No day for chance taking, especially with the other sex. The most innocent act on your part could be misconstrued today.

Tues. June 3: A good, strong morning, with Saturn trine your 5th-house Moon. Good for new business, all necessary speculation. pleasure and stimulation.

Wed. June 4: A cautious day is recommended. Your health may demand attention. If you do this you can gain through doing a favor for an unfortunate this P.M.

Thurs. June 5: Daylight hours neutral, but evening is excellent for a conference on employment matters if you can arrange it. Good for dealing with servants.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon brings your best hour. This could mean romance, a trip, a new friend or partner. Fine for transacting partnership matters.

Sat. June 7: Another good late afternoon, especially if you want to win someone to you. Try this if possible for you're popular and attract others strongly.

Sun. June 8: A questionable day, especially in early morning. Use caution.

Mon. June 9: Whew! Another rather critical one. Guard against hurt, losses.

Tues. June 10: Much like yesterday, except that the danger comes through your own erratic thought, speech and action. Don't act on your hunches today.

Wed. June 11: Now you can come out of your shell. Your mind is keen and brilliant and you can create something beautiful, write a good article about your work, collect money by mail or win a national magazine contest if you try sufficiently.

Thur. June 12: A good morning, especially as regards your relation to women and the general public. A noted woman could and would help you now if you ask.

Fri. June 13: If you'll watch out around 7:00 P.M., you can beat that “Friday 13” jinx by entertaining this evening. Good for your popularity and prestige.

Sat. June 14: Late morning brings your best hour. You could get publicity or recognition if you try for it now. Good for making changes, big or little. You could win over some woman to your cause, regardless of your own sex.

Sun. June 15: Another good one, especially in the afternoon. Now you can find the realization of a long-cherished dream by seeking out the right people for help and influence. This indication is strong, so get going.

Mon. June 16: Variable. A doubtful or critical morning, but afternoon promises gain through friends and associates if you get out among them and ask for help.

Tues. June 17: Venus squares your 12th-house Moon this morning. Guard against sensual emotions where the other sex are concerned. Better stay alone now.

Wed. June 18: Daylight hours neutral. Moon position suggests occult study.

Thur. June 19: Another neutral one with quiet study or work in seclusion recommended for you if it is possible. Don't act on your suspicions and hunches now.

Fri. June 20: You are cosmically strong and impossible to beat this morning. Now you can really accomplish almost anything in regard to your employment, your prestige and standing in your community or intimate circle. Get going today.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through morning much like yesterday. Sell, influence others, get publicity and recognition, impress people. Be seen and heard.

Sun. June 22: Morning good for all domestic matters, especially for dealing with the mother or female relatives. You could have a new family understanding.

Mon. June 23: Now stick to routine matters. Start nothing new or venturesome.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon brings your best hour. Use it to arrange a loan, get a note extended, get new credits for purchases if needed.

Wed. June 25: Late morning and into the noon hour are excellent for all types of mental work, travel, changes of all kinds in your employment, home environment or even in your friendships. Your mind is at its best.

You could charm some celebrity or learned person if you can arrange to be thrown with one. Lunch date?

Thur. June 26: Much like yesterday only more so. This is a strong day for you because your mind attracts others and you can just about get your way with anyone with whom you associate. Try to make this count by meeting an important person.

Fri. June 27: A fine morning, especially if home adjustments are needed. The other sex favors you in all things. Good for romance, buying or selling real estate.

Sat. June 28: Now back up and take it easy. Take no important stand at home.

Sun. June 29: A fine day for a Sunday dinner with a gay crowd, but be cautious around the other sex after 2:00 P.M. Otherwise a neutral day, though pleasant.

Mon. June 30: No sustained cosmic strength. Stick to routine matters and shun any romantic interludes unless they are strictly open to the world.

Taurus Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Good early morning aspects should offset a tendency toward minor health upsets and you can make some strides both at work and in your general popularity by your willingness to accommodate others. Think unselfishly.

Wed. July 2: Much like yesterday. You're weak if you think of self, but strong in public service. Good for employment matters if you're employed or hire others.

Thur. July 3: Rather critical, especially in late morning. Rest if possible.

Fri. July 4: Daylight hours neutral, but Moon position suggests a day of pleasure and some romance if you're eligible. A fine family holiday.

Sat. July 5: Morning rather questionable, especially as regards partnership or romantic matters, but afternoon could bring a new friend or close partner.

Sun. July 6: Daylight hours and evening neutral. Keep cheerful, serene.

Mon. July 7: This should be a day of caution, especially in the afternoon. Stick to safe routine matters and be careful if you drive or ride with others.

Tues. July 8: Late morning promises a stroke of genius on your part if you canvass all possibilities in the line of invention, science, or creative writing.

Wed. July 9: Much like yesterday but stronger. Your mind is keen and receptive. You see ahead plainly and can effect changes for the better. Travel is well aspected and you can get out of the rut if you use your brilliant mind to do it.

Thurs. July 10: Jupiter is in good trine to your 10th-house moon early this morning. This puts you tops with the public. Go after recognition, publicity.

Fri. July 11: Not so good. You're subject to scandal or discredit unless you keep strictly on the straight and narrow path. Walk carefully now.

Sat. July 12: Not much strength from space. Keep your own secrets today.

Sun. July 13: Mid and late morning are excellent for friendships, especially among women and the very young. Something good comes through friends today. Mix.

Mon. July 14: Rather doubtful. Stick to safe routine matters. Don't gab.

Tues. July 15: If you have time for some serious self-examination this morning you can profit by it. Do this, then plan ahead by Astrology.

Wed. July 16: Daylight hours and evening neutral. Moon position favors quiet study or serious thought put in on your problems. No day for action.

Thur. July 17: No cosmic strength, but Moon position makes your personality pleasing and brings you popularity. Try for no aggressive contacts.

Fri. July 18: You'd be a hit around dinner time if you invited or went out among the right people. Saturn, however, cramps your style after 8:00 P.M.

Sat. July 19: Pursue usual routine shunning important contacts or decisions. There is no danger, but you simply are no stronger than other sign natives.

Sun. July 20: Another rather neutral day. Female relatives or the mother make the best companions for you, but don't try to influence them.

Mon. July 21: No aspects during business or evening hours. Moon position favors salespeople, caterers and public servants, but contacts should be routine ones.

Tues. July 22: Doubtful morning with aspects mixed at noon. Mental work is favored but you should hold action on your ideas or plans. Study, learn.

Wed. July 23: A fine, strong morning. Good for changes, travel, adjustments or for getting yourself in good with a noted person who can aid in your plans.

Thur. July 24: Morning and afternoon neutral. Evening brings strength from space, especially if home adjustments are necessary. This would be a good evening to invite your relatives. The clan understands you now, wants to help you.

Fri. July 25: Active hours neutral. Home affairs are stressed, but take no important stand or action. Postpone important purchases, signing papers, etc.

Sat. July 26: Morning neutral with a pleasant experience promised, but P.M. is questionable. Guard against all forms of extravagance and chance-taking.

Sun. July 27: Mercury stimulates you through your 5th-house Moon this morning. You are grand company, gay and witty. You could charm anyone, especially one of the opposite sex. Try to choose gay companions. Romance in the air for eligibles.

Mon. July 28: Late morning through evening fine for the liveliest things of life. Fun and frolic, children, gay people. Good also for speculation if indicated.

Tues. July 29: Late morning brings your best hour. Use it in employment matters if possible. Taurian housewives can earn gratitude through service to the family—which will mean some spiritual or material gain later.

Wed. July 30: A neutral day, but evening offers some chance to adjust employment affairs or to serve an unfortunate person who will show appreciation later. This should be a calm, unselfish day for you. Try for no important gains now.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day, with cooperative and partnership affairs recommended, but deal with known people only and avoid the slick talk of strangers.

GEMINI - - June - July

For Those Born May 21-June 20

★ June may bring you some social honor or distinction.

HERE you Gemini people are with those good 1st-house Sun influences working for you during the first twenty-two days of June, bringing you a marked deference from others, the ability to appear well in public and impress others by your moral strength and dignity. This is the time to cement your relations with the public, build up your political fences, friendships and such, enhancing your position in your community, fraternity or any group in which you move. There is a strong indication that you will move up a rung on the social ladder during this time. Don't waste it by sleeping or hibernating but get out and attend to all matters that relate you to others.

Gemini folk who are really ambitious will find this period made to order for their advancement.

From June 23rd to July 23rd you'll very likely take more interest in your finances, especially as concerns your work if you are the breadwinner of the family, or home money matters if you are a Gemini housewife. Gains come through your ability to please others by your assiduous attention to your work and all the details pertaining to it. This is Gemini's time to strengthen his or her position as relates to salary and responsibility. You are at your best socially and now if you can get into the company of those who are important in your life you will profit by their admiration for you. A good time for spending judiciously if you can entertain the right people.

The last eight days of July bring you into a fine mental period. Canvass your creative possibilities and get ready for some success in your mental field of endeavor. More of this in our August-September issue.

Gemini Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: You may start this glad month of June in a rather upset and disturbed frame of mind. Keep serene and curb your restlessness now. If you desire change, wait until a better time. Don't air your views to others today.

Mon. June 2: Another rather critical one, especially in afternoon. Better stay away from the family unless you can curb your tendency toward erratic speech.

Tues. June 3: Morning brings strength to your 4th-house Moon. Now get going on all home affairs, adjustments, etc. Good also for sound investments, for dealing in real estate, either buying, selling, leasing, or renting. Sign papers if indicated by your circumstances. Some good comes through the family if you ask.

Wed. June 4: Be careful of your conduct and that of your children this morning if you are a parent. Some danger of losses around noon, so take no money chances. Evening brings something good through the other sex or a gay party if indicated.

Thur. June 5: A neutral day, but evening finds you at your best socially, especially if you pick lively people. Good for romance if eligible. Get out and mix.

Fri. June 6: Afternoon brings your best hour. Use it to adjust employment matters if you are employed or hire others. You are pleasing to others now.

Sat. June 7: Be extra-careful of your diet at noon. Late afternoon would be a good time to contact your boss if you have any reason. Don't be selfish now.

Sun. June 8: A rather critical morning, as you are too credulous and are likely to be out-talked, especially by those of the other sex. Form no new alliances.

Mon. June 9: Another critical one. Losses are threatened through partnerships or through love and marriage. Better be a "lone wolf" than be sorry.

Tues. June 10: Still rather negative. Guard against accidents and losses.

Wed. June 11: Better! Some good comes through the mate or partner. Fine for adjusting affairs at home, for all sound investments, legacies, etc. Good also for applying Astrology to your problems, so study a bit if you can, then plan ahead.

Thur. June 12: Late morning brings your best hours and they should be good ones as you are creative, imaginative, at your best mentally. Changes can be made.

Fri. June 13: A neutral day, but after 8:00 p. m. deal with in-laws to advantage, collect money by mail or do something inventive that would mean much later.

Sat. June 14: Rather negative except for late morning, during which you could make changes and adjustments for the better on account of your keenly working mind. You can out-talk others and out-think them now. Act if indicated.

Sun. June 15: Early afternoon brings your best hour. Now you can influence others and impress them if you try. Women influence you favorably, and some learned and refined woman could advance you socially. Mix around today.

Mon. June 16: A negative and trying morning during which you should try for no big gains. Be discreet as scandal threatens. Afternoon is excellent for all that relates you to others and the public. Take feminine advice if offered.

Tues. June 17: Daylight hours neutral, evening rather negative due to a Venus square to your 11th-house Moon. Don't mistake friendship for love this evening.

Wed. June 18: A neutral day. Friendships are accentuated, but don't depend on your friends for much. This should be a purely social day for you Gemini folk.

Thur. June 19: Another much like yesterday. Stick to safe routine.

Fri. June 20: This is probably your best June day, although in a rather odd way. You are keen and psychic and can judge others to perfection. If there is anyone who is an open rival or enemy, this is the time to go to the mat and you'll win.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through morning hours are much like yesterday. You are strong mentally and cosmically. Don't wear a chip on your shoulder, but take on all comers who wish to harm you. Good for occult study and advancement.

Sun. June 22: Jupiter smiles on your Ist-house Moon this morning, so you're tops with the public. Try for a public appearance and watch 'em come to you. Good for church or group endeavors, making influential friends, impressing others.

Mon. June 23: Not dangerous, but you'd best not try dominating others during the noon hour or this evening. Otherwise make contacts and decisions confidently.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon brings your best hour. Use it to enhance your social or employment position in some way as others defer to you. Mix around today.

Wed. June 25: Late morning through the noon hour would be a good time to deal with the mother or a female relative. Fine for loans, credits, backing, etc.

Thur. June 26: Morning and early afternoon finds you strong, impressive and able to sell, please the public and make yourself liked generally. Try it.

Fri. June 27: Morning finds you at your best mentally. You may be restless, and if so it takes an ambitious turn. Good for changes, adjustments, travel, mixing.

Sat. June 28: Morning neutral, afternoon and evening rather negative, due to your upset and erratic mind. Take it easy and try for no aggressive acts or contacts.

Sun. June 29: Noon hour to 1:45 p. m. is fine for home affairs, adjustments, and all kinds of conferences at home, or visits with kin. The family helps now.

Mon. June 30: No sustained strength from the cosmos. Stick to routine today.

Gemini Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: A lot of cosmic strength comes to you during the very early morning, which should start you off with a reserve that will carry you far today. Your best hour is around late dinner time, during which you could charm anyone of the other sex.

Wed. July 2: Noon hour and afternoon is swell for revising your social list. You are charming, gay, witty. Fine for making dates, sending out invitations, contacting inspiring people. Good for speculation if your circumstances seem to indicate it.

Thur. July 3: Now go into your shell, keep your purse closed and your heart locked up. Guard your morals and those of your children if you are a parent. Don't flirt.

Fri. July 4: Daylight hours are neutral, but very early morning aspects promise a grand holiday. Don't overtax your strength in celebrating. Visit, rest, relax.

Sat. July 5: A rather questionable morning due to a weakened constitution, but afternoon and evening are good for service to others. Think and act unselfishly.

Sun. July 6: Daylight hours neutral. Go on your own and expect little.

Mon. July 7: A neutral morning, with trouble threatened this afternoon if you allow others to influence you. Better stay among your own sex if you can.

Tues. July 8: Late morning would be fine for signing a contract, seeing your lawyer, working on joint family property or adjusting things with your partner.

Wed. July 9: An excellent day in many ways. Good comes through the partner or a co-worker if you act to deserve it. Fine for all property settlements, sales.

Thur. July 10: Early morning and mid-afternoon hours are best. Use them to tap your brilliant mind. Good for creative and inventive work, writing, correspondence.

Fri. July 11: Now don't act on your hunches. Your mind works backwards. Be quiet.

Sat. July 12: A good early-morning aspect makes you tops with the public this a. m. Get out and seek recognition, publicity. You're popular. Be discreet in p. m.

Sun. July 13: Late morning finds you popular, so get out and mix around rather than stay at home with the Sunday paper. Use caution in social contacts this afternoon.

Mon. July 14: Morning neutral, afternoon questionable or critical. Keep your own counsel, tell no secrets. Don't trust others too far, even your best friends.

Tues. July 15: Late morning can bring something good from friends. You will know best how to bring this about. Don't be bashful, talk your aims and ambitions.

Wed. July 16: Neutral. Depend on yourself alone today. Don't gab or gossip.

Thur. July 17: Another neutral one, and not good for public contacts. Quiet work and study are best. Mildly good for studying Astrology or philosophy.

Fri. July 18: Rather variable. Dinner time this evening would be fine for a visit with a friend who knows Astrology, or a consultation with a practicing astrologer.

Sat. July 19: A neutral, but not dangerous day. A late party this evening would find you the center of things. A good time to talk to others about your aims.

Sun. July 20: Neutral through daylight hours, but Moon position brings popularity.

Mon. July 21: Neptune may upset some cherished plan this morning. Postpone all important contacts or decisions if possible. Otherwise not dangerous or critical.

Tues. July 22: A Uranus-Sun sextile strengthens you this noon. If you could spend it with a female relative you'd gain something. Good for asking favors, loans, etc.

Wed. July 23: Morning neutral, but afternoon and evening good for all things pertaining to your job or finances. Find out what you want, then go after it now.

Thur. July 24: Curb your restlessness and desire for change until evening, then plan or act on any adjustments that can be taken care of at that time.

Fri. July 25: Neutral. No strength to make the changes you desire. Wait.

Sat. July 26: You may be subject to depression and erratic thinking. Don't act on your hunches now. Stay alone or keep a still tongue—or regret it later.

Sun. July 27: A good morning in the home. The family is with you and you can have your own way if you are just in your demands. Good time for home planning.

Mon. July 28: Late morning through evening good for home affairs, important purchases, investments of all kinds, rentals, leases, handling the funds of others.

Tues. July 29: Aspects are mixed. Better stick to routine affairs. Shun all romantic attachments unless strictly open-to-the-world. No gambling, speculation.

Wed. July 30: A neutral day, but late evening could bring an inspiring visit with a gay young person. Romance is probably for Gemini eligibles this evening.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day, but Moon position recommends care regarding your health. If you feel below par a visit with your physician and a check-up would help you start next month with a credit balance on the health side.

CANCER - - June - July

For Those Born June 21-July 22

★ Begin the month of June with some serious self-contemplation.

JUST AS WAS the case during the last ten days of May, your occult and psychic tendencies will be stressed during the first twenty-two days of June. This should be a time of self-contemplation as well as an analysis of your friendships and all that relates you to others. Some deep metaphysical or philosophical study is indicated for you. We recommend that you study carefully Miss Dahl's department on Your Mystic Life. If you can arrange to try out that psychic test she and her associates have arranged you may find out something about yourself that you haven't even guessed before. Your best work is done in seclusion or semi-seclusion now. No time for public contacts unless your entire life's work is with the public, in which case you are already accustomed to meeting the public when you are not at your best socially.

From June 22nd to July 23rd you'll fit in much better with the public. In fact, you'll be quite at home with others, even those of superior circumstances. This is a good time in which to run for office in your lodge or fraternity, push yourself up the ladder by pulling political wires, increase your earnings by part or whole-time selling, crash into a new social group or entertain the people who can benefit you either socially or financially. Get into the swing of things now, let people see and hear you. Your vitality should be at its best and others will feel the force of your inner power. Make this period count.

The period after July 23rd brings you into a hard-working cycle, could bring you increased responsibilities if you ask for them — with increased opportunity along with them. More of this in our August-September issue.

Cancer Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: A neutral morning. Afternoon and evening should be cautious hours for you Cancer folk, especially if you must deal or visit with relatives. Keep your mind off money, rest and relax to store up strength for busy days ahead.

Mon. June 2: Morning neutral, with quiet mental work recommended. Afternoon could be spoiled by erratic thinking or speech, so keep quiet and try to keep serene.

Tues. June 3: Morning and around dinner time this evening bring your best hours. Use them to tap your keen mind for plans or conferences about your work or living conditions. A good time for minor changes and adjustments.

Wed. June 4: Take no important stand nor make no important decisions about your domestic affairs this morning. Evening would be fine for a party at home for your kin.

Thurs. June 5: A neutral day, with evening bringing something good through the family clan if you plan a get-together with close relatives. Be diplomatic, smile.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon is good for speculation if indicated. Good for dates or sending out social invitations. You'd charm anyone you met now.

Sat. June 7: Variable, with noon hour rather critical. Take no chances in love, or with your children. Late afternoon good for crowds, gaiety, amusements.

Sun. June 8: Rather negative. Pursue usual quiet Sunday routine today.

Mon. June 9: Much like yesterday. Not good for aggressive contacts or selfish thoughts. Try to guard your health by sensible eating and outdoor exercise.

Tues. June 10: Your chief danger lies in your dealings with the other sex. No day for romance or for forming new alliances of any kind. Keep your heart locked up.

Wed. June 11: A grand day, especially for romantic affairs. The other sex favors you. Good also for forming new partnerships or adjusting old ones. Cooperate.

Thur. June 12: Late morning would be a good time in which to sign an important agreement, have a conference with your lawyer or adjust something with your marriage or business partner. You'd make a good financial agent for another person now.

Fri. June 13: Watch out for that "Friday 13th" jinx around dinner time this evening. No joking, you could suffer an accident or loss, with Saturn square your 8th-house Moon. Be extremely cautious if you feel sick or suffer from a chronic ill.

Sat. June 14: Jupiter trines your 8th-house Moon this morning, which should mean money from somewhere. You could collect a debt or straighten out some property matter.

Sun. June 15: A neutral morning, but afternoon could bring you closer to your goal due to your brilliant thinking. Use your mind now for it works keenly and accurately. You're tops socially with the right people now, so get out and mix.

Mon. June 16: From 9:45 a. m. through afternoon is much like yesterday. You are at your best mentally. A good time to write collection letters, advertise, do anything creative connected with science or the arts. Try to think your way through now.

Tues. June 17: A neutral day with some danger of scandal this evening. Stay with your own sex or be ultra-conventional as your speech and actions could be misconstrued.

Wed. June 18: Neutral. You may feel the urge to seek publicity and hog the limelight, but don't do it. Be modest if you must make contact with the public now.

Thur. June 19: A dull day, with obstacles prominent. Stick to routine now.

Fri. June 20: This should be a grand, inspiring day because your friends are drawn to you and try to make things right for you. Get out among them and good will come.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 a. m. through morning excellent for cooperative work, making new friends and widening your social list. You're popular with others now. A good time to bring about something you've wanted through friendly help from others.

Sun. June 22: A good Sunday morning if you can be self-sufficient. You could learn some deep occult truth or plan your life ahead by Astrology and philosophy.

Mon. June 23: A trying day unless you spend it as much alone as possible, and with your own sex if you must mix with others. Shun indiscreet speech and actions.

Tues. June 24: Morning much like yesterday. Afternoon good for a visit with an occult minded friend, or good for a consultation with an astrologer. Try it.

Wed. June 25: A fine day, especially in late morning. Contact those who are important in your life and don't be afraid to ask for what you want. You'll get it.

Thur. June 26: Probably your best June day. Your 1st-house Moon feels the warmth of several major planets. Get going on anything that enhances your social position, your employment or general prosperity. They can't stop you today.

Fri. June 27: Another good one in an almost purely financial way. Fine for loans, credits, note extensions and backing for any business you might want to start.

Sat. June 28: Rather negative. Start nothing requiring hard concentration.

Sun. June 29: A good Sunday for a noon-day dinner with relatives, or with anyone who can have a bearing on your financial condition. You're witty, impressive.

Mon. June 30: No cosmic strength for big things. Better stick to routine and curb that restless feeling. Your mind may be upset by trifles—don't let it.

Cancer Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Your best hour on this first day in July is dinner time this evening. A family gathering is made to order for some new and warm understanding. Try this if it is indicated and you'll reap a rich reward later. Be quiet after 10:00 p. m.

Wed. July 2: Noon hour and afternoon good for all permanent investments, family finances, buying, selling, renting, leasing home property. Your judgment is sound.

Thur. July 3: Not so good. Make no important decisions. Be diplomatic at home.

Fri. July 4: No danger signals mar this holiday. Should be gay and inspiring. You fit in well with young people, children. Have a good time this July 4th!

Sat. July 5: Afternoon and early evening should bring some inspiration into your life through the other sex. Good also for speculation if indicated for you.

Sun. July 6: Neutral, but health care is indicated. Rest, relax, read and study.

Mon. July 7: No day for aggressive contacts. Shun those who tire or annoy you.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings your best hour. This could mean a new partnership of some kind, romance if you're eligible for it. Try for this if indicated.

Wed. July 9: Probably your best July day. Good for all partnership affairs and romantic attachments. The other sex likes you now. A friend may come closer to you and fill a spot in your life that has been vacant if you invite it.

Thur. July 10: Good for all sound financial affairs, especially anything in which your success is tied up with that of another. Married couples can plan, act.

Fri. July 11: Negative, especially in late morning. Guard your health and your body against accidents today, make no important investments or commitments.

Sat. July 12: Early morning would be fine for some quick mental accomplishments. You could write a collection letter, do something inventive to make work easier.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning to late morning excellent for getting out among people as your brilliant mind makes you a good companion and attracts the right people.

Mon. July 14: Rather negative. Be cautious in your dealings with the other sex, or in your handling of the funds of others. No time to push yourself forward.

Tues. July 15: Better! Now you belong in the public eye. Good for all employment matters or for anything relating you to the public. You impress others favorably.

Wed. July 16: Neutral. Not dangerous, but no strength for big things.

Thur. July 17: Another rather neutral day.

Stick to routine affairs now.

Fri. July 18: Your best hours are around dinner time this evening. Your friends are for you all the way, so try to give or attend a dinner and talk up your aims.

Sat. July 19: Daylight hours are neutral, but a period of occult or philosophical study this evening would mean mental and spiritual advancement. Try it.

Sun. July 20: Neutral, but quiet work or study in seclusion is recommended.

Mon. July 21: Much like yesterday. No day for selling, public contacts, etc.

Tues. July 22: Rather doubtful, but not at all dangerous. Just shun a tendency to dominate others and put yourself in the center. Otherwise deal in confidence.

Wed. July 23: Better! Now you can get right out front and ask for what you want. You're popular, impressive and tops with the public. Do something about your job.

Thur. July 24: A good evening if you'll spend it with someone who is important to your job or your financial affairs. A female relative—the mother if she is alive—would help you now through influence, advice or actual cash help if indicated.

Fri. July 25: Obstacles are likely to be prominent if you try pushing things today. Be content with small gains or good routine work well done.

Sat. July 26: Much like yesterday. Stick to safe, easy routine affairs today.

Sun. July 27: This could and should be a rather pleasantly hectic day. You could take a trip, meet new people and impress them with your knowledge. Your mind is keen and brilliant. You are likely to want change. Get it through new contacts.

Mon. July 28: Much like yesterday, except that now you can turn those good influences into business and employment channels. Get around, state your wants and aims.

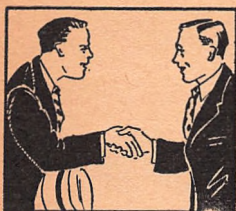

Tues. July 29: Aspects are closely mixed, but you could grab that good moment around 10:30 a. m. to close some important deal connected with your home. Complete any such deal before 11:00 a. m. to dodge that Mars-Moon conjunction.

Wed. July 30: If you want to end this month on the credit side of the ledger as concerns home finances, this is the day to do it. The best way would be through a conference with the family this evening as the partner is for you. This would be a fine evening for romance if you're single and eligible.

Thur. July 31: A "don't" day. Don't flirt or gamble. Shun all romantic attachments. Guard the morals of your children and family if you're a family person.

LEO - - June - July

For Those Born July 23-August 22

twenty-two days in June form the latter part of the "friendship" period forecast for the last ten days in June in our last issue. Now you can make your best gains through cooperating with your friends and your superiors if you are employed by others. Selfish thinking is destructive now. Widen the scope of your hopes and ambitions to include those around you. Your gains must be mutual with those of your associates. At the same time you'll find your co-workers, friends and associates ready to help you. If you aspire to social honors or a stronger social position this is the time to try for them. Now you can depend on the loyalty of your friends. Talk up your aims and ambitions, show them how they also can gain by helping you.

Beginning June 23rd and lasting for a month is a period of occult advancement if you try for it. Your psychic tendencies are accentuated. You can grasp deep occult truths if you study. You should examine your mind thoroughly now for you are able to plan any mental achievement you aspire to, and any study you begin now should benefit you. Here's a good tip for you Leo people now: turn to Miss Dahl's column on Your Mystic Life. Read it and apply it to yourself. If you can participate in that psychic test she and her associates are conducting on June 22nd you'll find out something. True, this test is made just before this period opens fully for you, but it's influences will be beginning to work.

The last eight days in July bring you public recognition if you have put yourself into the limelight. It is a period of leadership for you in your group. Read more about this in our August-September issue.

Leo Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: You start the month with the Moon in your 1st house, but with little or no cosmic strength to back up this favorable position. Make all contacts with confidence but be sure your demands are reasonable and try for no big social gains.

Mon. June 2: There are no danger signals today, but it would be unwise to push any thing important. Be content with small gains or good routine work.

Tues. June 3: Still rather negative, except for the evening dinner hour, which could be turned into a gain by entertaining a female relative if this fits in.

Wed. June 4: A visit with some important person this evening would enhance your social or financial position. Also good for planning changes of all kinds.

Thur. June 5: Another good evening because of your keenly working mind. You would impress an important stranger favorably and it could lead to something good.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon suggests something important concerning the home and family. A good time for purchases, loans or credits connected with your home affairs. Also good for adjusting the budget with the partner of family members.

Sat. June 7: Rather variable. Late afternoon might bring a pleasing and lasting romantic attachment if you're eligible as the other sex likes you now.

Sun. June 8: You are rather weak cosmically. Shun romance, chance-taking.

Mon. June 9: Much like yesterday only more so. Guard your morals and speech.

Tues. June 10: Ouch! These don't are getting monotonous. Don't take any chances on your health or indulge in too much fun this evening. Retire early if possible.

Wed. June 11: Better! Good for employment matters whether you are employed or employ others. You win now through your pleasant personality and consideration for others. Some favor you do for another will be richly repaid later.

Thur. June 12: A fine day, especially in late morning. Good for all cooperative affairs, forming new partnerships. Fine for romance, engagement, marriage.

Fri. June 13: Sun trines your 7th-house Moon this evening at 8:01. Fine for romance, for reviving old romantic feelings with your marriage partner, or for anything that relates you to the one closest to you in your intimate life.

Sat. June 14: Late morning is your best hour. You are popular and attract those of the other sex. A good time to make a lunch date if it fits in for you.

Sun. June 15: A good Sunday spiritually, especially if you are serious and inclined to look into the spiritual, philosophical and occult phase of your existence. Occult study, especially Astrology, will fit you for the coming days.

Mon. June 16: Variable and largely negative until mid-afternoon. Guard your health and your body against accidents this morning. Around 3:30 P.M. would be a good time to sign a contract or adjust some financial matter with your partner.

Tues. June 17: Daylight hours neutral, evening rather critical if you don't guard your tongue. You could estrange a friend or relative by loose talking and argument.

Wed. June 18: Neutral. Moon position favors mental work, correspondence, etc.

Thur. June 19: Another neutral day, but a Sun sextile to your 9th-house Moon during the early morning brightens your mental processes, so use your mind now.

Fri. June 20: Probably your best June day. You fit in well with the public and can effect any needed changes to your advantage. Women help you regardless of your own sex. Good for public appearances, employment matters, enhanced social prestige.

Sat. June 21: Much like yesterday especially in the morning. Your popularity wins for you. Be careful in late afternoon if you are thrown with the other sex.

Sun. June 22: A fine morning if you can use it to contact your best friends and tell your plans and aims to them. They'll help you realize a long-cherished wish or ambition if you invite their aid. Good for social life among women and children.

Mon. June 23: Rather critical. Don't give away secrets or tell your plans now.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon is excellent for all cooperative or group work. You find others willing to fall in with your way of thinking. Don't stay alone now.

Wed. June 25: Late morning would be a good time to expose some supposed friend who has been secretly working against you. Don't act on mere suspicion, but examine your friendships and find out if someone hasn't been using you for his own needs.

Thur. June 26: This can be a worth-while day if you'll use it to analyze your relations with others and the world in general. Plan ahead by Astrology.

Fri. June 27: This is your morning if you'll step out and state your wants. Good for selling, job-getting, financial adjustments which demand contacts.

Sat. June 28: Morning neutral, afternoon and evening negative, although not dangerous. Be reasonable and try for no big gains and you'll be all right.

Sun. June 29: Noon hour and evening are your best time today. Good for visits with relatives, especially female ones. Elderly female kin want to help you now.

Mon. June 30: Business and work hours are neutral. Dinner hour mildly good for home affairs, but take no definite stand with the family after 8:00 P.M.

Leo Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Jupiter in good trine to your 3rd-house Moon early this morning should start you off right in any kind of mental pursuit. Use this good influence to effect any needed changes or adjustments in your home or working conditions.

Wed. July 2: Noon hour and afternoon offer some opportunity to improve your living conditions. This comes through your ability to out-think others around you.

Thur. July 3: Rather negative. Guard against restlessness and wasting your energy in erratic thinking and discontentment. Keep your eye on the ball and work.

Fri. July 4: A quiet, serene holiday with the family is promised for you Leo folk this 4th. Take the bunch for an outing and you'll refresh yourself and them.

Sat. July 5: Be diplomatic at home this morning. Afternoon is a good time for any important adjustments in home life. Good also for sound investments.

Sun. July 6: Neutral. Moon position favors contact with the public, crowds, etc.

Mon. July 7: A neutral morning with some fun promised, but you'd best stay away from the other sex or be extra-conventional this afternoon to avoid scandal.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings your best hour. Good for an employment contact whether you work for others or hire help. Guard your health in afternoon.

Wed. July 9: An excellent day if you can interest yourself in others. Your gains now come through the good you do rather than what you get. Be generous.

Thur. July 10: Jupiter is in good trine to your 7th-house Moon this morning, which should mean money through the marriage partner or the other sex. Good also for romance and forming new alliances in work or business. You're weak when alone.

Fri. July 11: Two critical squares to your 7th-house Moon suggest caution, especially in dealing with the other sex. You are inclined to be weak, credulous.

Sat. July 12: Another rather weak day. Stick to routine affairs.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning brings a Sun trine to your Moon. This is excellent for dealings with your partner, or for planning ahead by Astrology.

Mon. July 14: Rather negative, not because of danger from without, but by reason of your own erratic thinking. Don't act on your hunches nor discuss your thoughts.

Tues. July 15: An excellent day, especially in late morning, at which time you could plan and effect some advantageous change. You're at your best mentally and could do some good creative work of some sort. Try writing if you have talent.

Wed. July 16: Neutral. Avoid too much talking in public, boasting, etc.

Thur. July 17: Another neutral one. Stick to routine affairs, avoid gossip.

Fri. July 18: Variable morning, but around 11:30 is a good time in which to make a contact regarding your employment. An influential woman would be your best ally this morning regardless of your sex. Take feminine advice if it is offered.

Sat. July 19: Late morning through noon hour is excellent for any cooperative work with friends. Women and children inspire you and are attracted to you now.

Sun. July 20: Neutral, but friendships may mean much to you today.

Mon. July 21: Another rather slow day, but a mildly good one socially.

Tues. July 22: No day for contacts, even purely social ones. You are inclined toward suspicion and erratic, even indiscreet conduct. Quiet work is best now.

Wed. July 23: Good in a rather odd way. You are inclined toward mystery and romance, which is all right with all that cosmic power behind you.

Thur. July 24: A neutral day, but evening finds you popular and much in demand. Try to get out among important people and take the limelight. You'll find your prestige enhanced and you may get in line for a good job, a financial boon or some good thing.

Fri. July 25: Negative, although not dangerous. Be content with small gains.

Sat. July 26: Much like yesterday. Curb your ambition and plan for later.

Sun. July 27: A good Sunday, especially if you can spend it with relatives, female ones being the best for you. The mother helps if you can be with her today.

Mon. July 28: A fine day for general finances and employment. You could get loans, not extensions, credits or backing for a new business or your present one. This is one of these days where obstacles are at a minimum. Stir around.

Tues. July 29: Late morning brings an opportunity to meet an important stranger if this is at all possible in your circumstances. Don't pass this up as it can mean a great deal later. Good for starting a trip or making any minor change.

Wed. July 30: Evening much like yesterday. You are at your best in social conversation. Others defer to you now, so mix around.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day, with home affairs stressed but no cosmic strength for the improvement you crave. Just let things slide along until later.

VIRGO - - June - July

For Those Born August 23-Sept. 22

★ Virgo wives should entertain between June 22nd and July 23rd.

YOUR BEST gains are made through contact with the public during the period which began for you Virgo people on May 21st and endures through the first twenty-two days of June. You vibrate well with those in power and are in for some favors from superiors if you are employed by others. You take well to responsibility now and could find yourself in a more responsible position if you are in line for this and try to achieve it. This is a good, steady financial period and one in which you could borrow, obtain extension of notes or credit if needed. A good time to pull wires if you aspire to any public office, either paid or unpaid, which might increase your prestige in your particular group or community.

Beginning July 22nd and lasting for a month is a period of cooperative endeavor. Your friendships count now and you are at best while merging your efforts with those of others. Your ambitions are soaring and your aims are lofty. You could be associated with superiors to your benefit now. Entertainment is well aspected for Virgo wives. This is a good social period and you can make the most of it by choosing the right people to impress. You are possessed of an inner force and dignity that will influence others in anything you undertake. Don't waste this period in day-dreaming or loafing. The loyalty of your friends and associates is your capital now. Get them to working for you and you will find this a period of both social and financial advancement.

The period following July 23rd may find you confused and bewildered if you grope blindly. Be guided by Astrology, study yourself and your friends and you will be wiser if not richer at the end of the period, which lasts through the first three weeks of August.

Virgo Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: This first day of June could be a rather trying one for you, largely because of your own tendency toward indiscretion in thought, speech and action. You'd best let this pass quietly and not go in for social intercourse. Study.

Mon. June 2: Another negative one, but not at all dangerous. Just be reasonable in your demands, do not try to "hog the lense" and wait for a stronger day.

Tues. June 3: Variable, but there is a good Uranus trine to your 1st-house Moon early this evening which stimulates your personality and brings popularity in public.

Wed. June 4: Morning questionable as to your employment, but evening would be fine for a talk about your job, or that of a family member. Entertain if possible.

Thur. June 5: Evening promises something good from relatives, especially female ones. If this fits your circumstances, you should visit them or entertain them.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon brings your best hour. It would be a good time to meet an important person, start a trip or make some minor change in your home or work.

Sat. June 7: Hold anything important until late afternoon, at which time you could hold your own in business with anyone. Use your head and you'll win.

Sun. June 8: Somewhat critical, especially at home. Guard against the possibility that a family member will bring unpleasant notoriety. Be gentle but firm in this.

Mon. June 9: Much like yesterday. Make no important decisions concerning home affairs and guard against an argument that might cause estrangement. Smile, wait.

Tues. June 10: Neutral until early evening when caution should be used in dealing with your children or the other sex. Guard your conduct carefully now.

Wed. June 11: This should be the happiest day in June for you. You find pleasure in young people and those of the other sex. If speculation is indicated by your circumstances you couldn't pick a better day. Get out and have a good time now.

Thur. June 12: A fine morning with Jupiter trine your 6th-house Moon and giving you strong vitality. Good for employment matters as money is now promised you. You could pay a little attention to the boss if you're employed.

Fri. June 13: Be careful at dinner time as the "Friday 13th" jinx might raise the devil in the way of ill health. Eat lightly and retire early if possible.

Sat. June 14: Late morning brings an opportunity to please someone who will appreciate it. Think of the most important person in your life then try this out.

Sun. June 15: Early and mid-afternoon present the best time for cooperative affairs, partnership deals and all that relates you to the one closest to your life. You can effect adjustments with your partner to advantage now.

Mon. June 16: Questionable until afternoon, at which time you could meet your new life partner if you're eligible. An opportunity to make a close partner of a present friend presents itself now. Don't be bashful if this occurs.

Tues. June 17: A good Moon-Jupiter sextile starts you off strongly today, promising money from some source, likely through the partner. Use caution in P.M.

Wed. June 18: Neutral, probably rather somber if you don't make some effort to keep your mind off the past and those who have gone on before. Keep cheerful.

Thur. June 19: Neutral through daylight and evening. Stick to routine matters.

Fri. June 20: Your best mental day of the month. If you have one spark of creative talent—and you can bet you have—it will come out today. Try to do something out of the ordinary, something inventive or having to do with science or the arts.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through morning good for correspondence, advertising, writing, collecting money through the mails, inventive work directed toward your job. Your mind is your fortune now so use it to save your muscles later. Good for travel.

Sun. June 22: A fine morning as the public takes to you. Dress up and go to church or have an outing with people who matter in your life. You're highly popular with both sexes and some good publicity could come through an act of yours today.

Mon. June 23: Unlike yesterday, this one may bring obstacles, unpopularity and misunderstanding from others. Walk a chalk line, especially around noon.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon brings something good through a woman if this can possibly be fitted into your circumstances—influence, advice or real cash.

Wed. June 25: A fine morning if you're expecting help from friends, for you'll surely get it. Women and children inspire you so get out among them now.

Thur. June 26: A grand day because of your popularity. Something connects you to the famous among your group today. Seek them out if indicated by your surroundings.

Fri. June 27: You are strong from within today, but your energy should be spent in some quiet work or experimentation. Not good for contacts, sales, etc.

Sat. June 28: Morning hours neutral, P.M. rather negative. You are inclined toward unjust suspicions, which could estrange a friend or relative. Keep quiet.

Sun. June 29: Noon hour and evening are your best times. You are popular and impressive. A good time to crash a new social set or make a new friend. People defer to you now and you are important.

Mon. June 30: A neutral day, with mixed aspects this evening. Go on your own, not demanding too much nor expecting anything of the public.

Virgo Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Cosmic strength is largely wasted before daylight, but early evening brings something good concerning your employment or that of a family member if you do your part to bring it about. Good also for favors through social channels.

Wed. July 2: Noon hour and afternoon good for public and civic affairs, for dealing with women relatives or for general sales and business if you get out and hustle.

Thur. July 3: Curb any tendency toward rashness and extravagance today. You'd best postpone your judgment on any important financial matters until a better day.

Fri. July 4: This should be a fine inspiring holiday, but you should spend it with someone who can follow your brilliant thought processes rather than with dullards.

Sat. July 5: You may suffer from an upset mind this morning, but it passes by afternoon and you can effect advantageous changes by seeking out the right people to help you. You are tops mentally and can out-think those of other signs now.

Sun. July 6: A neutral day. Home matters are stressed, but confine such things to routine brightening up and repairs rather than any important entertaining.

Mon. July 7: Now guard your family against indiscretions, but take no arrogant or arbitrary stand in doing so. Use gentle persuasion and salesmanship.

Tues. July 8: Late morning promises fun and inspiration if you can get away from the grind. If not you'll be charming, witty and popular at home or at work.

Wed. July 9: This should be the happiest day in July for you. You are at your best with others and very popular. You find pleasure with the other sex and it is mutual for they like you just as well. Get out with someone you like if you can.

Thur. July 10: If you can dodge a critical aspect early this morning, you should enjoy a pleasant day, for your willingness to serve pleases others now.

Fri. July 11: Not so good. Eat lightly and sensibly and don't over work. Shun those who bore and annoy you for your nerves are subject to strain today.

Sat. July 12: A neutral or slightly negative day. Shun slick-talkers and keep up your sales resistance. Your judgment of the other sex is unsound today.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning and the hours after 7:00 P.M. are the best today. During these hours you might enjoy a romantic interlude. Partnership affairs prosper.

Mon. July 14: Morning neutral, P.M. rather critical, so guard against losses and accidents both at home or abroad. Be careful if you drive or ride with others.

Tues. July 15: Late morning brings your best hour. Good for signing agreements, talking to your lawyer, attending to all partnership and joint property affairs.

Wed. July 16: Daylight and evening hours neutral. Go on your own today.

Thur. July 17: Neutral, but Moon position recommends mental study as your mind is keen and active. A good time to try writing or something of a creative nature.

Fri. July 18: Variable, but around dinner time would be a good hour in which to entertain someone who could help you effect a change in some department of your life.

Sat. July 19: Daylight hours neutral. Evening would be fine for a party, as you are popular with both sexes and especially so with women. Mix with important people.

Sun. July 20: Neutral during day and evening, but Moon position brings popularity.

Mon. July 21: Another neutral one. Be content with good work or small gains.

Tues. July 22: Hold everything until 12:30 P.M. then have a late lunch with your best friend. Something good will come if only inspiration and inner strength.

Wed. July 23: Three good sextiles strike your 11th-house Moon this afternoon and evening. This means you're the favorite of your group and your friends will help you.

Thur. July 24: A neutral, probably a rather weird day, with your mind working off key, but evening would be fine for an astrological discussion with a friend.

Fri. July 25: You may wake up depressed and remembering bad dreams. Be serene.

Sat. July 26: Good for occult study and application. Not good for contacts.

Sun. July 27: A fine Sunday morning with your popularity assured. Step out and mix.

Mon. July 28: An excellent day, with some opportunity to put yourself forward socially or better your employment conditions. Ask for what you want and you'll get it.

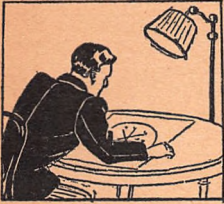

Tues. July 29: Rather negative, but if you pick that good time around 10:30 A.M. for a quick financial stroke you'll win. Complete before 11:00 A.M.

Wed. July 30: Evening brings something good from female relatives—the mother if she is alive. Good for talking over credits or backing in business matters.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day with no strength from the cosmos. Stick to routine affairs if possible or confine your contacts to unimportant ones.

LIBRA - - June - July

For Those Born Sept. 23-Oct. 22

★ Open the month of June with a serious study of Astrology.

THE MENTAL-social period

mentioned for you Librans as beginning on May 21st endures through the first twenty-two days of June. You are promised honors in church, school and group work and gains come through travel if your circumstances permit. It would be well for you to take up some new study, or if you have already taken an interest in philosophical subjects this is a good time for you to pursue it. Your taste for fine arts, literature and allied subjects is accentuated now, and you can gain through associating with people of like taste. It may be that you will find some of your best friends grating on your nerves now because they do not share in your lofty thoughts. If this is true, pick the most learned and refined friends with whom to associate.

The period from June 22nd to July 23rd should be one of some financial gain, though not one in which to speculate. If you seek any kind of public office or recognition of your work this is a good time to achieve it. Your ruler, Venus, occupies your 10th house along with the Sun during the first eleven days of this period and offers an interlude of romance for eligible Librans. After July 3rd and continuing until July 26th this ruling planet of yours transits your 11th house, bringing you unwonted popularity. You can make the most of this in business, work or social affairs. This should be a month of both pleasure and profit if you cultivate superiors, who are inclined to favor you in all things. Your moral standards are high now and you are fitted for refined companions.

The last eight days in July could bring the realization of a long-felt ambition if you will think unselfishly and join group movements, or work cooperatively with others. More about this in our August-September issue.

Libra Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: Start this month with a cautious note, especially as regards your close associates. You are likely to be misunderstood by them and there is some chance of actual disloyalty. Keep your secrets to yourself today.

Mon. June 2: Morning neutral, afternoon rather critical because of your own erratic thought, speech and action. Quiet work in seclusion is best if possible.

Tues. June 3: Morning finds you strong cosmically and able to see through the designs of others. Analyze your friendships and relations with others and then act if you find that someone has proven disloyal to you. Don't act on mere suspicion.

Wed. June 4: Stick to routine through daylight hours. Evening would be excellent for attending a public gathering as you stand out in any crowd. Dress well.

Thur. June 5: Another good evening in much the same way. Moon position, backed up by a good Venus aspect, makes you popular and important in your circle.

Fri. June 6: Hold all important contacts and decisions until later afternoon, then go ahead with confidence. People respect your business judgment, will help you.

Sat. June 7: Late afternoon brings your best hour. Good for sales contacts, loans, extension of credits, etc. Good also for your relations with the public.

Sun. June 8: A neutral day during the hours you might meet anyone, but Moon position suggests your association with learned people. Shun oafs and dullards.

Mon. June 9: This should be a cautious day as regards your relations with others. You don't vibrate well with associates and anything you say will be held against you.

Tues. June 10: Much like yesterday, especially in early morning and late evening. Retire early to avoid a family spat, or get a book and go off to yourself this P.M.

Wed. June 11: A grand day, with the family strong for you and your money judgment sound. Good for investments, important home affairs. Single Librans find romance.

Thur. June 12: A fine morning with fun all around you and you the wittiest of the crowd. If you must speculate this is the time. Get out and enjoy yourself.

Fri. June 13: If you'll wait until 8:00 P.M. to go out this evening, that Friday 13th jinx can't touch you. It should be a gay, sparkling evening.

Sat. June 14: Late morning brings either romance or a "lucky" contact into your life, according to your circumstances. This only if you get out and make it come true.

Sun. June 15: Early afternoon offers a chance to please someone who will mean much to you later. A time for your "boy scout" good deed if there ever was one. This could mean help to an aged or unfortunate person, so be generous now.

Mon. June 16: A questionable morning, but afternoon finds you at your best on the job. It's a good time for you Libra employees, so make hay with the boss now.

Tues. June 17: A negative morning and one in which your judgment of the other sex runs away with you. Not good for new romantic attachments, engagements, etc.

Wed. June 18: Neutral. Go on your own, dealing only with people you know.

Libra Daily Guide For July

groove in your life. Get out of the rut and go places now for you're tops mentally and can influence others.

Wed. June 25: Late morning finds you popular and the center of any crowd you happen to be among. Good for publicity, toothing your own horn, or public contacts.

Thur. June 26: All day today is much like yesterday morning. Women influence you favorably. Take their advice and ask any reasonable favors of them now.

Fri. June 27: This should be a day of warm friendships, especially if you can spend your time with women and the very young. Elderly makes bore you now.

Sat. June 28: Morning neutral, afternoon and evening negative. Your friends may act like your worst enemies, especially if you ask them for favors. Don't.

Sun. June 29: Noon hour and evening good for astrological discussion, study and application. You could have an "Astrology Party" to advantage this evening.

Mon. June 30: Daylight hours neutral, evening aspects too mixed for any big gains. Make this a routine day and get some rest this evening if you can.

continued to temporary and unimportant matters. Make no new alliances now.

Fri. June 20: An excellent day and one in which some good comes through the person nearest you in relationship or marriage. A good time to pursue all pending financial matters such as family property, partnership affairs and legal matters.

Sat. June 21: Late morning is much like yesterday. You'd make a good financial agent for another, especially your partner or a family member. Sign papers if indicated or buy on installments. Good for all sound financial deals.

Sun. June 22: An excellent Sunday morning because of the brilliant brainwork of which you are capable. If you can't get out and show how smart you are, then write letters. Invent or do something to make the world more beautiful.

Mon. June 23: Rather negative, largely because you think in an unorthodox manner and are likely to try to argue others into your weird way of thinking. Don't!

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon brings something good through change, travel, meeting a stranger or something out of the ordinary if you're single. Good for all partnership deals, new and old, and for travel.

Wed. July 16: Daylight and evening neutral. Go on your own today.

Thur. July 17: A rather dull day, if you let your mind wander over the past. Try to get new interests and keep your mind active. Good for astrological study.

Fri. July 18: Dinner-time and early evening suggest some financial deal with your partner or a close co-worker, but complete this before 8:15 P.M.

Sat. July 19: A neutral day, but evening could be exciting due to some change you plan or execute. Good for short trips, mental work, meeting strangers.

Sun. July 20: Neutral, but Moon position suggests mental pursuits and travel.

Mon. July 21: Business hours and evening ing much like yesterday. Study, learning much like yesterday.

Tues. July 22: Largely negative. Be extra-discreet around the other sex, or in handling money that doesn't belong to you. Obstacles may be plentiful.

Wed. July 23: Afternoon and evening bring public recognition of some sort if you try for it. Your hobby may come in for an airing and some local honor is possible.

Thur. July 24: A neutral day, but evening would be grand for a friendly gathering. Try to arrange this as it would mean something good coming your way from friends.

Fri. July 25: If you have any deals pending that involve your friends either socially or in a business way, this isn't the day. Be a lone wolf for once.

Sat. July 26: Largely negative. Expect little from others, go on your own.

Sun. July 27: A fine morning for quiet study, not good for visits or contacts.

Mon. July 28: A fine day for going to the mat with rivals or open enemies. If you're sure you're right, then go ahead for self-preservation is nature's first law.

Tues. July 29: If you can get in a semi-social, semi-business call around 10:30, you'll succeed in getting what you want within reason, but complete before 11:00 A.M.

Wed. July 30: A neutral day, but one in which Moon position suggests mixing around and talking with others. Evening brings a high note of popularity and stresses your importance. This is the time to enhance your social prestige by either entertaining or attending a party of some kind. The public likes you.

Thur. July 31: Neutral. Mildly good for purely financial affairs or dealing with female relatives, but commit yourself to nothing important for the future.

Tues. July 1: A day of mixed and varied aspects, but why be tops socially tonight at dinner. Why not plan to entertain some important friends, or those most important in your life? You'd gain socially and in some way financially by this.

Wed. July 2: Noon and afternoon and you hard to stop if you're out after your God-given right to employment and happiness. You can persuade others, impress strangers and get what you want within reason if you'll only get out and try.

Thur. July 3: Now pull in your horns. Ask little, demand nothing of others.

Fri. July 4: A practically neutral holiday except for some very early morning aspects—but they're good ones. Spend today with female relatives if you can.

Sat. July 5: A negative morning, but afternoon brings strength to back you. Good for all employment matters, borrowing, obtaining credits, etc.

Sun. July 6: Daylight and evening hours neutral. Pursue usual Sunday routine.

Mon. July 7: Rather negative, especially in late afternoon. Curb your restlessness, which is largely discontent and therefore destructive. Make no changes.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings something good through the family if you ask and act to deserve it. This might mean good publicity, influence or financial aid.

Wed. July 9: A very good day, especially as regards domestic affairs. Good for important home purchases, for buying, selling or leasing home property.

Thur. July 10: Jupiter times your 5th-house Moon this morning, so if you must take chances with your money, this is the time to speculate.

Fri. July 11: Now don't gamble either in money affairs or affairs of the heart, as losses are threatened through speculation and love. Stick to hard work.

Sat. July 12: A good early morning aspect starts you off in a healthy frame of mind. It's a good day to talk to the boss—or to your help if you employ others.

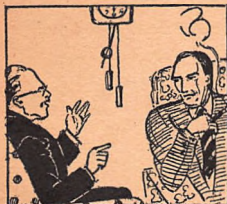

Sun. July 13: Watch your health early this morning, until that good Sun trine your 6th-house Moon strengthens your vitality at 9:51 A.M. Then get going on some church work or something designed to benefit others. You'll win in many ways later.

Mon. July 14: Morning neutral. Afternoon rather critical unless you're willing to associate and deal only with known friends.

Tues. July 15: Late morning could bring a pleasant and thrilling romantic interlude

SCORPIO - - June - July

For Those Born Oct. 23-Nov. 21

★ Early June is a good partnership period for Scorpio people.

IF YOU KEEN and enterprising

Scorpio natives will only steer clear of any important transaction or alliance at or near the hours of bad Sun aspects and also keep a close watch on the contrary aspects of your ruling Mars, you'll find some good financial opportunities awaiting you during the first twenty-two days of June. This is a good partnership period and is especially favorable for married Scorpions who will find their mates anxious to help them by signing papers, cooperating in deals concerning the home, etc. Your vitality should be at its best, which is half the battle. There is some chance of an inheritance if you are in line for it.

June 22nd ushers in a mental spiritual period for you, which will be no less profitable than more material ones if you will take advantage of the influences which tend to make you studious and philosophical. A fine time to start some new line of study, to travel, to take up social work or anything having to do with churches, societies, etc. Good for developing your higher tastes having to do with the fine arts, literature, etc. For the above reasons you should be especially careful in your choice of companions just now. Seek the company of learned and refined people, shunning those of a crass, material nature. This is a good period in which to attend to any legal matters that may be pending. It is a fine social period if you will observe that rule about seeking the right companions.

July 23rd finds you beginning a month of public contacts and appearances if nothing more than local meetings. You belong with others during this period but more will be said about this in our August-September issue.

Scorpio Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: Don't strain your popularity by pushing yourself forward today. There is some threat of bad influence from women, regardless of your own sex, so act on no feminine advice. Be discreet in all things to avoid discredit.

Mon. June 2: Now keep within yourself and expect nothing from your associates. A disturbing vibration exists between you and your friends. Tell no secrets.

Tues. June 3: Early morning brings something good through your associates who will help you realize some wish or ambition if you enlist their aid. A dinner for close friends and associates would win for you if indicated by circumstances.

Wed. June 4: A negative day, especially in late morning when your mind isn't at its best, but evening is excellent for occult application and study.

Thur. June 5: Another good evening in much the same way. Why not read Miss Dahl's "ESP" column and find out how psychic you are. You might be surprised.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon brings your best time—and it's a good strong one. Any public contact you make is likely to win for you. Good for getting publicity or recognition. All employment matters are well aspected. Mix around.

Sat. June 7: Variable, but late afternoon is much like yesterday. Try to make an important contact if you can, for you can influence and impress others now.

Sun. June 8: A negative but far from dangerous morning. Just don't try to act the part of glutton in life's good things and you'll make small gains.

Mon. June 9: Another rather negative one. Start nothing you can't finish immediately, and do nothing risky or daring with your money.

Tues. June 10: Whew! Another slow one, with your restless mind taking up most of your energy in futile fuming if you allow it to. Work constructively now.

Wed. June 11: Much better! Now you can effect those changes you wanted yesterday. You can travel, show off your knowledge in places where it counts, influence others.

Thur. June 12: Late morning could bring something good concerning your home if you've been trying for it. A time for leasing, renting, selling, buying if you can.

Fri. June 13: Wait until 8:00 P.M. then tell that Friday, 13th, jinx to do its worst, for Sun trines your 4th-house Moon then, and the family is for you.

Sat. June 14: Catch that late morning Jupiter trine (see Aspectarian) for any deal you must make concerning your home, especially any important purchase. You can't go wrong if you act during that aspect for Jupiter sends profit your way.

Sun. June 15: A neutral morning, but afternoon brings some inspiration, fun and relaxation into your life if you invite it. This is true even if you're sick, for it's "in the stars" for you. Good for romance if indicated for you.

Mon. June 16: Be careful of your heart and purse this morning, but you can expand this afternoon. Children and the other sex bring pleasure now.

Tues. June 17: That early-morning Jupiter sextile to your 6th-house Moon guards your health today, and it's a good one for employment so adjust matters if they need it, but don't be aggressive or argumentative about it. Retire early if you can.

Wed. June 18: Daylight and evening hours neutral. Go on your own.

Thur. June 19: Another neutral one. Be content with small gains today.

Fri. June 20: Now life should take on more color for you. A new partnership of some kind is in the air, probably a friend coming more closely into your life. Romance is in the stars for you if you're eligible. Good for changes, travel.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through the morning hours are much like yesterday, but you'd best close your ears to the blandishments of the other sex in the afternoon.

Sun. June 22: A fine Sunday morning with your life's partner is promised. Good also for occult study and application. Some good comes through the mate now.

Mon. June 23: Rather critical around noon and in the late evening. Take no chances on accidents or with your health. No time for aggressive contacts or for signing papers. Postpone any legal matters until a better time.

Tues. June 24: Morning much like yesterday, but early afternoon brings relief and a chance to act as a financial agent for your family or a friend. Good for all sound financial matters, straightening out property tangles with the family or mate.

Wed. June 25: Late morning brings a brilliance of thought that can get you out of the rut if you really use your brain. Good for all creative and inventive work.

Thur. June 26: Even better than yesterday. You can write, invent, create, charm others with your brilliant conversation, think your way out of the rut.

Fri. June 27: Another good one in a different way. You are popular with the public and belong in the limelight. Try for recognition, publicity.

Sat. June 28: Rather negative. Walk straight to avoid gossip, discredit.

Sun. June 29: Noon hour and evening are both made to order for mixing with your friends. Don't spend this Sunday alone if you can help it. Get out and around.

Mon. June 30: Neutral day with mixed aspects in early evening. Routine is safest.

Scorpio Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Variable and somewhat questionable, but early evening is good for self-examination and planning by Astrology. Good comes from within you now.

Wed. July 2: Much like yesterday. You could solve some riddle surrounding your life if you really try today. Your mind is keen and somewhat psychic now.

Thur. July 3: Shun the other sex this morning as your sensual desires may cause some minor indiscretion. No day for sales, job-getting or other contacts.

Fri. July 4: You should be the center of things on this glorious 4th, for your Moon influence comes through your 1st solar house. Get out and you'll be popular.

Sat. July 5: Early afternoon until evening is excellent for employment affairs, public appearances or anything that enhances your prosperity and prestige. Don't waste these good hours as they mean success if you get out and try for it.

Sun. July 6: Neutral. Mildly good for dealing with female kin or for general social affairs, but don't push yourself forward among new people today.

Mon. July 7: Obstacles abound. Stick to safe, easy routine or quiet work.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings your best hour. You are restless, but this takes the form of constructive ambition and your mind is active. Good for advantageous changes, travel, new acquaintances. You are an interesting person today.

Wed. July 9: Like yesterday only more so. Get out and tell the world what you want. You can out-think others. Adjust employment or living conditions now.

Thur. July 10: From 7:00 A.M. through afternoon good for dealing in tangible property, especially home real estate. This goes even if you have to deal for another and lack finances of your own. Good for romance if you're eligible.

Fri. July 11: Rather negative. Don't buy or sell, guard your family's morals.

Sat. July 12: Morning is better than average good if you must speculate or take any chances with your money, but afternoon should be cautious and safely lived.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning is excellent for getting out into crowds. You'd be a hit on an outing or at church. Early evening is good for pleasure with the other sex or with very young people. Get inspiration to refresh your mind now.

Mon. July 14: Now be cautious in all you do as regards your health. Eat sensibly, get some outdoor exercise if possible and try to retire early tonight.

Tues. July 15: Early afternoon through evening are fine for talks about your employment or for dealing with servants if you have such things. Be generous.

Wed. July 15: Daylight hours and evening neutral. Go on your own today.

Thur. July 17: An early-morning Mercury sextile to your 7th-house Moon makes you a good companion to someone who could mean a great deal in your life. Try to be with someone like that today and a closer relationship will result.

Fri. July 18: Variable, but early evening is made to order for partnerships and romantic contacts. A friend may become something deeper to you now.

Sat. July 19: A neutral, perhaps somber day, but evening offers mental advancement through occult and philosophical study. Do you own any good astrological books? If not, you're missing a grand, inspiring and enlightening experience.

Sun. July 20: Daylight and evening hours are neutral. Stick to routine.

Mon. July 21: No strength from space today. Postpone important things.

Tues. July 22: A good mental day, but you lack strength to put your ideas across to others. Think, plan and jot down your thoughts for later action.

Wed. July 23: An excellent day, especially in the afternoon and evening. You can learn, teach others, or do something in the way of creative work if you'll only put your mind to it. Correspondence and national magazine contests are indicated.

Thur. July 24: Evening hours bring high popularity and a chance to better your living conditions through a contact you make if you try for a meeting with one who can help to bring about the realization of your wishes. Try this if indicated.

Fri. July 25: Work hours and evening neutral. Don't push yourself forward.

Sat. July 26: Largely negative. Be conventional to avoid scandal.

Sun. July 27: A fine morning with friends anxious to be near you and help you.

Mon. July 28: This would be a fine day for a cooperative move between you and your particular circle of associates. Could be a small investment pool.

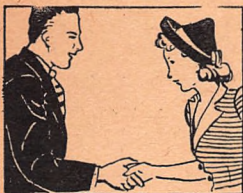

Tues. July 29: No sustained cosmic strength, and at least one disturbing factor that may upset your mind. Quiet work or study is recommended. Don't act.

Wed. July 30: Late evening (see Aspectarian) would be a good time to do some definite planning. Read the Aspectarian and your guide for the days ahead and you can start next month with a well outlined program that will win for you.

Thur. July 31: Moon position favors you, but there is no strength for space. Remain in the background as much as possible and don't try dominating others.

SAGITTARIUS - - June - July

For Those Born Nov. 22-Dec. 21

★ Eligible Sagittarians might meet their mates during early June.

which began for you Sagittarians on May 21st and continues through the first three weeks of June should bring you popularity—even romance if you are eligible for it. Others are attracted to you and it's a good time to find a partner in work or business as well as in affairs of the heart. You are weak on your own during this time, but if you enlist the aid of the right person you'll prosper and find serenity and happiness. Present partnerships can be cemented and adjustments with your mate, business partner or co-worker is well aspected during this time. A fine time to sign business contracts, buy on credit, borrow or extend notes. Fine for getting backing in all partnership ventures but be sure you pick times of good aspects for such contacts.

June 22nd ushers in a good financial period and again partnerships are important in all your monetary affairs. Gains come through your marriage partner, or through your sweetheart if you are single. Your vitality is strong and you shake off fears that may have beset you. For this reason you'll find this a cheerful period. A marriage contracted during this period would likely prosper for you, although this is not a time to seek casual romantic attachments. These good financial influences tie up very favorably with your ruling Jupiter's co-occupation with the Sun in your 8th house. This period is the best financial partnership period of the year for you Sagittarians so make the most of it.

July 23rd brings you into a grand mental period during which your tastes for finer things, including good literature, will be accentuated. It is a "study" period in your life, about which you will read more in our August-September issue.

Sagittarius Daily Guide For June

Sun, June 1: You start the month with what will probably be a trying day, largely because your mind works in an unorthodox fashion and you don't fit in mentally with those around you. Keep quiet and smile through this one.

Mon, June 2: Obstacles will likely be plentiful and anything you do out of the ordinary channels will be misunderstood by others. Curb your sensual thoughts.

Tues, June 3: Much like yesterday until around dinner time this evening, when you could entertain or visit others to advantage. You'll be highly popular.

Wed, June 4: Your friends are disappointing today, if not outright disloyal. Relief comes in the evening when you will find them boosting you. Entertain.

Thur, June 5: Another good evening. Try for a friendly gathering, especially if you have any committee work or promotion matters to push forward.

Fri, June 6: Late afternoon (see Aspectarian) brings your best hour. Use it to contact an occult-minded friend or consult a professional astrologer. This could mean the untangling of some puzzle in your life or home surroundings.

Sat, June 7: Again your best hour arrives in late afternoon. Some bit of secret investigating you did then might expose a false friend or imposter.

Sun, June 8: Rather negative, but not at all dangerous. Make all necessary decisions and contacts with confidence but do nothing that commits you.

Mon, June 9: Much like yesterday. Moon position stresses your popularity and importance but your personality lacks strength to influence others today.

Tues, June 10: Your financial judgment isn't too sound today and there is a tendency to start things you can't finish. Hold all important matters today.

Wed, June 11: Now get going on anything that concerns your job, your home or your general prosperity. You could borrow, get credit or extensions. Relatives help in this if asked, especially women relatives, the mother if she is alive.

Thur, June 12: Late morning finds you at your best mentally and well able to hold your own with the smartest person you know. Good for deals, changes, adjustments.

Fri, June 13: That "Friday 13th" jinx may ride you around 7:00 P.M. but you can dare it to do its worst at 8:01 P.M. and would be the life of any party you gave or attended. Why not give a "Friday 13th" party and have a good time?

Sat, June 14: Late morning would be a fine time to achieve any needed change in your working agreements, your home affairs, etc. Good for starting a trip, meeting strangers or for a talk with some local celebrity. Good would result.

Sun, June 15: A fine Sunday, especially in the afternoon. A good old fashioned gathering of relatives this afternoon would bring a new family understanding.

Mon, June 16: A variable and questionable morning, with family relations somewhat strained, but afternoon would be fine for any deal concerning home property or important home supplies. Good for real estate and tangible investments.

Tues, June 17: Neutral through day with some threat of indiscretion this evening. Stay away from the other sex or shun all romantic thought and speech.

Wed, June 18: Neutral. Go on your own, but take no financial chances now.

Thur. June 19: Another neutral one, much the same as yesterday. Work quietly or seek innocent pleasure and inspiration with children or very young people.

Fri. June 20: The best day of the month as regards your employment matters, and this goes either if you work for others or employ help of your own. Relations should be pleasant and mutually fair adjustments and agreements can be made.

Sat. June 21: From around 7:45 A.M. through morning is much like yesterday. You make your gains through being pleasant and willing. Shun all arguments now.

Sun. June 22: A fine Sunday morning, with a romantic trend running through your consciousness. If you need someone closer in your life this is the time for it.

Mon. June 23: Now live within yourself and close your ears to the blandishments of the other sex. Not a time for new alliances, friendships or partnerships.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon is fine because of your popularity, especially among the other sex. Good for changes, adjustment, travel and romantic affairs.

Wed. June 25: A warm vibration works between you and your mate or partner now. Good for all deals concerning mutual interests, partnership affairs, etc.

Thur. June 26: This is the best purely financial day of the month for you. You could sell, act as an agent for the family, make sound investments, sign papers.

Fri. June 27: Another good one, especially in the morning, when you are capable of doing fine things in connection with science, the arts or writing. Try it.

Sat. June 28: Stay alone or keep a still tongue today. Don't act on hunches.

Sun. June 29: Noon through evening made to order for your popularity and social prestige—if you'll be careful around 2:00 P.M. when criticism and misunderstanding might mar the day. Good for all social affairs, gatherings, outings.

Mon. June 30: A neutral day with closely mixed aspects this evening. Take it easy and be especially careful with the other sex or in handling other folk's money.

Sagittarius Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Variable and largely questionable. If you have any deal pending with friends act between 7:30 and 8:00 P.M. Otherwise follow routine.

Wed. July 2: Better, especially at noon and in afternoon. Good for dealing with women and children or mingling with friends generally. You're strong with them.

Thur. July 3: Rather critical especially in late morning. Keep your own counsel and don't yet your plans out of the bag. It's a time for secret working, planning.

Fri. July 4: Daylight and evening hours are neutral, but a good early-morning Sun trine to your 12th-house Moon should make this a good day for mental advancement. Try to get in some good occult study on this holiday. Beats shooting firecrackers.

Sat. July 5: Afternoon brings your best hours. Try to analyze your friendships and see if you aren't being taken advantage of by a supposed well wisher.

Sun. July 6: Neutral through daylight and evening. Moon position favors your prestige and popularity, but don't ask too much of it. Be reasonable, tractable.

Mon. July 7: Not so good. If you try to push yourself you'll only succeed in looking slightly ridiculous. Be content to remain out of the spotlight today.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings your best hour. Good for employment contacts, financial conferences. You could get backing for a small business if indicated.

Wed. July 9: Even better than yesterday. A good financial vibration works for you. Get going on anything that will make life easier and more prosperous.

Thur. July 10: Your mind is your capital today. You can out-think those of other signs. It's a good day for all kinds of changes and adjustments, travel, etc.

Fri. July 11: Now curb your restlessness and stick to routine.

Sat. July 12: No danger, but little cosmic strength behind you. Make no important decisions, don't try for loans, jobs or favors. Talk as little as possible.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning and around 7:15 P.M. are your best times today, especially if there are important family affairs to adjust. You're strong with the family then and will be listened to with respect. Something good would come from this.

Mon. July 14: Rather negative, especially in the afternoon. Take no chances with your purse or your heart as losses are threatened through gambling and love.

Tues. July 15: A gay morning is promised. You belong in crowds whether at work or play. If you must speculate act around 11:30

A.M.—your "lucky" time.

Wed. July 16: Daylight and evening hours neutral. Go on your own.

Thur. July 17: Another rather neutral one. No time for aggressiveness at work or in financial matters. Ask little and do your work conscientiously. That's all.

Fri. July 18: A neutral or slightly negative morning with a string of mixed aspects advising caution this evening. Retire early if possible, read, relax.

Sat. July 19: A neutral day, but this evening could bring romance if eligible, or could bring a warm, valuable friend into your life. Meet the right people.

Sun. July 20: A neutral Sunday. Associate only with known companions now.

Mon. July 21: Routine affairs are safest today. Just ease along until later.

Tues. July 22: A questionable morning, when you should guard against losses and accidents by taking no chances. Afternoon and evening neutral.

Wed. July 23: Much better! Morning is neutral but afternoon and evening offers many opportunities if you have any financial matters pending. Think of the most difficult things you must do and get to work on them now. Partnerships prosper.

Thur. July 24: Daylight hours neutral, but evening is fine for all types of mental work. You could do something now that would make work easier for you later.

Fri. July 25: A neutral day, but mental work is favored over manual labor.

Sat. July 26: Rather negative, due to your erratic thinking. Those inspirations you have aren't as sound as they seem. Postpone all important decisions, contacts.

Sun. July 27: Mercury stimulates your personality this morning and makes you appear well in public. Try to get out, and shine today. Dress well if you can.

Mon. July 28: A good day at work or in business because you stand out of the crowd and impress others with your inner strength and dignity. Make this pay you.

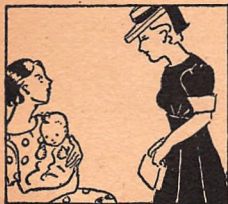

Tues. July 29: Mixed aspects make it unwise to try anything highly important today, but if you have a cooperative deal on a quick stroke around 10:30 A.M. would put it across. Be sure such a deal is completed before 11:00 A.M.

Wed. July 30: A neutral day. Evening would be fine for a friendly meeting. This might work out to your advantage for others favor you and want to help.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day. Quiet work, study and planning are your best fields of endeavor. Avoid suspicions of others that might bring estrangement.

CAPRICORN - - June - July

For Those Born Dec. 22-Jan. 19

★ Unselfish and charitable work should interest you during early June.

THE RATHER quiet period forecast as beginning for you Capricorn natives on May 21st continues through the first three weeks of June. This is a period for quiet work and contemplation, for service to others for which you expect no immediate monetary gain. You are perhaps not too strong physically and should avoid over-work or anything that might upset your nervous system. Choose elderly or quiet companions and don't try burning the candle at both ends. Your best medium of gain is in unselfish endeavors such as group or church work. Capricorn ladies could benefit through giving some time to the Red Cross during this period.

June 22nd ushers in a month of fine cooperative influences for you. It is strictly a partnership period, good for romance, forming new alliances or partnerships and cementing old ones. All deals having to do with the marriage partner prosper now, and you should attend to any matters pertaining to important home purchases, sales, leases, rentals, etc., or any loans, credits, contracts or papers that demand the joint signature of you and your mate. You are likely to be popular both with the public and your superiors during this period and this popularity can be used in many ways, such as new contacts for jobs, sales, etc. This is a fine social period for you and your family. Some time should be spent in relaxation and social affairs, rather than keeping your nose too closely to the grindstone.

Partnership affairs still remain important during the period which opens up for you on July 23rd, but you will hear more about this in our next issue.

Capricorn Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: A rather somber day greets you on this first of June, that is if you don't make a concerted effort to keep cheerful and serene. Avoid all chance-taking and live safely, sanely. Try for some inspiration through light reading or shows.

Mon. June 2: Your troubles today, if they come, arise from within your own erratic mind. Stay away from others or keep a still tongue to avoid coldness.

Tues. June 3: You could do almost anything that requires concentration and keen brain work this morning. Use your brilliant mind to create or invent something.

Wed. June 4: Morning is questionable because Mercury brings rather weird desires. Stay away from other sex or shun romantic thoughts. Evening finds you highly popular and much in demand socially, so get out among the right people if you can.

Thur. June 5: A neutral day, but evening is much like yesterday evening. You appear well in public and people are attracted by your dignity and inner strength.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon would be fine for any dealing or visiting with women and very young people. You're popular and your friends want you near them.

Sat. June 7: Variable. Guard against talking about your affairs to others at noon and in the evening. Trust nothing important to your friends and associates.

Sun. June 8: A rather negative day. You are inclined toward indiscretion in speech and action. Better remain as much alone as possible, read, study, learn.

Mon. June 9: Much like yesterday. Don't act on your suspicions, and be especially careful if you're thrown with susceptible people of the other sex.

Tues. June 10: Negative but not dangerous. Make the usual contacts with confidence but don't demand nor talk too much, especially about yourself.

Wed. June 11: Probably the best day of the month as concerns your prestige and popularity. Good for job-getting, string pulling, all political activities or selling. Some good publicity comes your way if you ask for it today.

Thur. June 12: Late morning would be a good time to try for loans, credits or for backing a new business. Good for public servants, caterers, small business.

Fri. June 13: A neutral day, with a critical aspect working around 7:00 P.M. A conference about your job or finances would pay if you began it at 8:00 P.M.

Sat. June 14: Late morning brings some opportunity to gain by a talk with a female relative as a warm vibration is working between you and women kin. Try this.

Sun. June 15: Early afternoon brings your best hour. It would be good for starting a trip, meeting and impressing some important stranger. Your wit is your fortune.

Mon. June 16: Morning is questionable, largely because your mind is upset and you are too restless to concentrate on sound things. Curb this restlessness and get going on any changes in your life this afternoon when you see clearly and talk convincingly. Good for travel, associating with celebrities and important people.

Tues. June 17: A negative morning, with trouble brewing at home unless you are diplomatic and yet firm. Act to curb the extravagance of your family if indicated.

Thur. June 19: Another neutral one. Stick to unimportant routine tasks now.

Fri. June 20: Now "bust out" and have a good time if you possibly can. Even at work or in the home you breed gayety and good feeling. Fine for getting out into crowds and relaxing. Good also for speculation if indicated by circumstances.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 through morning is much like yesterday, but be careful in late afternoon, especially if you are given to romantic tendencies. Don't!

Sun. June 22: An excellent Sunday morning as you are consecrated to the feeling of service to others. Try for some charitable work today and you'll win ultimately.

Mon. June 23: Guard your health, especially through noon and evening. Eat lightly and observe all health rules. If indicated, see your physician now.

Tues. June 24: Morning much like yesterday as your constitution is weak and your nerves easily upset. Afternoon good for employment affairs, adjustments, etc.

Wed. June 25: Late morning through noon is fine for all partnership and romantic affairs. If you're lonely, do something about it. Why not a lunch date?

Thur. June 26: The best day of the month for those Capricornians who want new friends, or need someone closer in their lives. Good for partnership deals in business, or any kind of adjustments between business and marriage partners.

Fri. June 27: Much like yesterday, especially in the morning. Otherwise neutral.

Sat. June 28: This one could be critical, especially in P.M. Use caution.

Sun. June 29: A grand Sunday, especially around noon and in the evening. Choose these hours to deal with your in-laws, or to figure out a short cut in your work.

Mon. June 30: A neutral day with mixed aspects disturbing your mind in early evening. You'd best plan today and defer action or contacts until later.

Capricorn Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Variable day. Your best time for any public contact is around dinner time this evening, so if something important is pending, or if you simply want to enjoy popularity, give a dinner or attend one this evening.

Wed. July 2: Noon and afternoon find you popular and able to impress others. You belong in the public eye now and would do well in civic work or mixing around.

Thur. July 3: Rather negative, especially in the morning. Any unorthodox speech or action will bring criticism or discredit. Be discreet and silent.

Fri. July 4: Although there are no aspects during daylight hours, a good Sun aspect to your 11th-house Moon early this morning should make this holiday a warm, friendly one for you Capricornians. Try for a good friendly gathering today.

Sat. July 5: Morning could bring disappointments through friends, but afternoon finds you the favorite of your circle. Talk your plans and aims, ask help.

Sun. July 6: Neutral through day and evening. Quiet study is safest.

Mon. July 7: A neutral morning, with some threat of coldness and estrangement this afternoon due to your own actions. Avoiding suspicion of your friends, neighbors.

Tues. July 8: Late morning brings your best hour. You are tops with the public and your friends. Good publicity or a better job could come if indicated. Don't be bashful now but mix, talk, let yourself be seen and heard. Sales come easy.

Wed. July 9: This is the best day in July for your prestige, employment or anything that relates you to others. You can get just about what you want within reason.

Thur. July 10: Jupiter trines your 2nd-house Moon this morning, which is money in the purse if you'll use your head and then go out and hustle. Loans, credits, sales, are in store for you if you're able to cash in on this influence.

Fri. July 11: Don't start anything you can't finish easily and quickly today.

Sat. July 12: A strong morning mentally, but don't act on your hunches in the afternoon as they're likely to be bred by restlessness and discontent. Make no important changes now, but stick to quiet work and planning, deferring action.

Sun. July 13: Sun trines your 3rd-house Moon this morning. A wonderful time in which to impress others with your knowledge without boasting. Good also for all mental work and thinking your way out of the rut. Change is indicated now.

Mon. July 14: Rather doubtful, especially in the afternoon. You may find it necessary to take some definite stand with the family. Curb your temper, act firmly.

Tues. July 15: Late morning through noon hour is excellent for all important domestic affairs, leasing, renting, buying or selling home property. Good also for buying important home accessories on installments. The family is with you.

Wed. July 16: A neutral day. Take it easy and do nothing important now.

Thur. July 17: Another neutral one with relaxation and innocent pleasures recommended for you. Children inspire you and you are at your best with them now.

Fri. July 18: Morning is questionable as are the later evening hours, but dinner time this evening would be fine for a gay dinner party. Use care in later hours, especially if romantic thoughts assail you for love brings sorrow.

Sat. July 19: A neutral day, with your constitution inclined toward weakness. Rest and relax if you can and retire early this evening. Don't overdo at anything.

Sun. July 20: No daylight aspects. Pursue quiet routine today.

Mon. July 21: A rather questionable morning. Live safely, sensibly now.

Tues. July 22: Capricorn girls should keep their hearts locked up and their ears closed to the other sex today as there is danger of misjudgment. Don't flirt.

Wed. July 23: Better, especially in the afternoon and evening. Romance is in the air for eligibles and all partnership affairs should be pleasant and profitable.

Thur. July 24: Good for all financial deals, especially between partners.

Fri. July 25: A neutral day, with caution the keynote in your actions and speech.

Sat. July 26: Rather negative. Guard against accidents, losses, sickness.

Sun. July 27: A fine morning for all mental endeavors. Changes are recommended in any department of your life that needs improvement. You think clearly, soundly.

Mon. July 28: An excellent day for inventive work or something in the creative line. Your mind is receptive, imaginative and you are a fine companion for the most learned and astute among your friends. Now use that brilliant mind!

Tues. July 29: Mixed aspects make action on important matters inadvisable this morning. Be discreet and stick to routine matters today.

Wed. July 30: Evening brings your best hour. Use it for any public contact required to end the month. You are popular socially now, and can attract the right people to you. Your inner strength shines out. Talk with confidence.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day. Just let this last day ease by.

AQUARIUS - - June - July

For Those Born Jan. 20-Feb. 18

★ Quiet, cautious work is recommended after June 22nd.

THIS FIRST three weeks in June could be a hectic period for you if you get the "young" attitude and get into the swing of things, and certainly it should be a lively and happy one. New romantic attachments are promised for Aquarians whose hearts are free and there is a tendency toward extravagance in thought, speech and action. This, however, is of a pleasant, joyous nature and is a part of this cycle in your life. If your circumstances demand speculation and financial chance taking, this is your time, although you should choose good hours for such moves. See the Aspectarian for favorable hours. Outdoor parties, especially trips to amusement places among crowds, are well aspected, and you'll be the life of the party where-ever you go regardless of your age. Enjoy yourself. This happy period begins for you on May 21st, so don't wait until June.

June 22nd begins a more serious period for you. Now come in out of the crowd and settle down to some quiet work, study, charitable work, etc. This is a rather cautious period for you, especially regarding your health. It is no time for aggressive moves, speculation, argument over money or demanding anything from others. A good time for Aquarian employees if you'll depend on service performed by you to get you ahead. Good also for dealing with domestics in the home or for employing new ones. This period will likely see you no farther ahead financially, but you'll gain rest and relaxation for future needs.

July 23rd and the month following it will find you in a cooperative mood, which is fine, for you will prosper through merging your efforts with those of your friends, or with a partner. More of this in our next issue.

Aquarius Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: The month opens for you Aquarians with some threat of trouble through dealings with close partners or the other sex. Avoid this by keeping on an even keel and making no demands until the aspects are better.

Mon. June 2: A neutral morning, but there is some threat of accidents and losses this afternoon. Be careful in traffic or at work today.

Tues. June 3: Much like yesterday, but some good should come through the partner around dinner time this evening. Spend the evening in occult or philosophical study and you may grasp some great truth related to your existence on this earth.

Wed. June 4: Don't take any important action on your own judgment this morning. If you must make a change seek the advice of an older person. Routine is safer.

Thur. June 5: A fine morning, with your mind keen, imaginative and receptive. You could charm a learned person with your conversation. Good also for correspondence, publicity advertising and all brain work. Try writing something short.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon would find you highly popular in a crowd or at tea. Good for all public contacts. Some recognition could come your way.

Sat. June 7: Use caution in both speech and action around noon. Late afternoon brings some opportunity connected with your job or your relations with the public if you have your eyes open. Better stay away from the other sex this evening.

Sun. June 8: Largely neutral or slightly negative. Keep your own secrets.

Mon. June 9: Don't depend on your friends today. Keep to yourself all you can.

Tues. June 10: You are your own worst enemy today. You are likely to think people are trying to wrong you who aren't even thinking about you. Don't act.

Wed. June 11: A fine day if you'll spend it in quiet work and deep study. You could do some sound planning ahead by Astrology now. Read, study, learn.

Thur. June 12: And this morning you step right out front into the limelight. You are very important in your world and people seem to know it. Fine for public appearances, job-getting, social life and impressing others. Don't waste this.

Fri. June 13: Dodge that bad Saturn aspect to your 1st-house Moon this evening around dinner time by remaining quiet, then step out at 8:00 P.M., and you'll take over any party you give or attend. You can make this a good day that way.

Sat. June 14: Late morning is fine for getting around among those who can help you realize your ambitions. You make a good impression and people instinctively trust and defer to you. Good for all public affairs.

Sun. June 15: Try to spend this Sunday afternoon with relatives, female ones if possible. A warm, friendly vibration comes to you from female kin.

Mon. June 16: Start nothing this morning that can't be quickly and easily finished. Afternoon good for sales, business contacts, loans, credits.

Tues. June 17: A neutral day, with some threat of a disturbed and upset mental attitude this evening. Retire very early or avoid others then.

Wed. June 18: No daylight nor evening aspects. Go on your own.

Thur. June 19: Mental work is recommended, but there is no cosmic strength to to put someone under obligations to you and you'll win later.

Thur. June 26: A grand day, especially for Aquarian employees. Some favorable adjustment in your working conditions is indicated if you are pleasant and make your requests so that the benefit seems mutual between you and the boss.

Fri. June 27: This one is fine for all things that bring you closer to another. Fit this into your circumstances as it goes in business, friendship or romance.

Sat. June 28: Rather critical, especially in the afternoon. Your relations with the other sex are likely to be hectic and changeable. If you're unmarried, stay away from your best and only during this time to avoid possible estrangement.

Sun. June 29: Noon, early afternoon and evening are fine for gaining a better understanding of your partner. A sound study of astrology will benefit you today. Do you own any astrological books for such times? You should!

Mon. June 30: A neutral day with mixed aspects this evening. Play safe.

back you in making changes. Curb your restlessness, work constructively.

Fri. June 20: Your best day of the month as regards investments and all domestic and family affairs. If things aren't going right at home now is the time to improve matters for family members will listen to you, take your advice.

Sat. June 21: Morning is excellent for important purchases of domestic accessories or supplies. Good also for signing papers, renting, leasing, selling.

Sun. June 22: A fine morning because you attract gaiety and good feeling wherever you go. You are bent on pleasure and can have it. Fine for romance, or for innocent good times with children and very young people. Get out today.

Mon. June 23: Not so good. Curb your sensual appetites and romantic tendencies today. You may feel the urge to speculate, but don't do it. Losses are threatened.

Tues. June 24: Morning is about as critical as yesterday, but early afternoon brings a favorable speculative influence, so take a chance if indicated.

Wed. June 25: Late morning stimulates you and assures you against ill health. Now try.

Tues. July 1: Your mind is stimulated and active today, but you are apt to think unsoundly. Best time of the day to jot down one of your ideas is around 7:30 to 8:00 P.M. Otherwise defer all action on your hunches and ambitions.

Wed. July 2: Noon and afternoon and you at your best mentally. Now you can concentrate on your problems, planning your way out of the groove if you're in one. Good also for all types of artistry, scientific investigation, invention, etc.

Thur. July 3: Largely negative due to your tendency toward unorthodox thought and speech. You can overcome this by keeping your thoughts on known facts and principles rather than woolgathering about wild theories. Talk little to others.

Fri. July 4: A good 4th of July if you spend it at some public gathering or with women. Strengthen in early morning should carry you through the day.

Sat. July 5: Morning is rather questionable and demands caution against discredit or scandal. You are popular this afternoon so try to mix with others.

Sun. July 6: A neutral day. Ask nothing of friends and avoid disappointment.

Mon. July 7: Rather negative, especially in late afternoon, at which time you should keep a close guard on your plans and secrets when with others.

Tues. July 8: Late morning is good for secret investigation and planning.

Wed. July 9: An excellent day if you'll spend it in quiet work and study.

Thur. July 10: This is your day in the public eye, or in any kind of contacts with a view to enhancing your social prestige and public standing. Ask, "You'll get it."

Fri. July 11: Negative, although not critical. Just take it easy, asking little.

Sat. July 12: A rather positive morning and one in which you could arrange for financial backing for any enterprise with which you are connected.

Sun. July 13: Sun times your 2nd-house Moon this morning. Good for all matters pertaining to your family and kin. Female relatives help you if you ask.

Mon. July 14: A rather negative one. You are restless, inclined to be envious of the other fellows' life. Curb this and try to think constructively now.

Tues. July 15: A fine, strong day, especially in late morning when Venus times your 3rd-house Moon. You're tops mentally and are a good social companion.

Wed. July 16: Neutral, with mental endeavors favored over manual work.

Thur. July 17: Another day in which there are no daylight or evening aspects. Home affairs are stressed, but should be kept down to routine matters.

Fri. July 18: Around dinner time this evening would be good for a family gathering. A new understanding in the clan could result from this, so try it.

Sat. July 19: Daylight hours lack cosmic strength but a late party this evening would be gay and inspiring. You enjoy the other sex and it's mutual if innocent.

Sun. July 20: No daylight or evening planet-ary aspects. Go on your own.

Mon. July 21: Much like yesterday. Seek mild, innocent pleasures.

Tues. July 22: Doubtful. Do nothing to upset your nerves or digestion.

Wed. July 23: Morning is neutral, but afternoon and evening are both fine for any contacts about your employment, or that of a family member.

Thur. July 24: No strength from space during daylight hours, but evening finds you attractive to the other sex, popular with both sexes. Romance is in the air.

Fri. July 25: A slow day, and you should keep it slow. No new alliances.

Sat. July 26: Your judgment of the other sex is unsound now, and sorrow would likely result from any new romantic attachment. Avoid partnership squabbles.

Sun. July 27: A good, stimulating morning, especially as regards association with the one closest to you. Good for family affairs, occult study, relaxation.

Mon. July 28: A very good day to start the week. All sound business practices prosper, especially affairs of joint ownership and family property. You could prosecute any pending legal affairs to advantage now, and any matters pertaining to a legacy should be pushed with vigor. Your money judgment is sound.

Tues. July 29: Late morning brings your best hour, and it's extra good. You are as bright as a new pin and can top those of other signs in a battle of wits. Good for writing, corresponding or any social activity.

Wed. July 30: Evening is much like yesterday. Let your imagination soar and keep your brilliant mind working every minute. Something you create or invent could open up a new life for you. You can't lose by trying.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day to end the month. Try for no big gains, and don't push your popularity too far. Be content to remain in the background now.

PISCES - - June - July

For Those Born Feb. 19-March 20

★ Pisceans could invest in property to advantage during early June.

THE PERIOD which began for you Pisceans on May 21st and which lasts through June 21st is one of steady financial gains if you are in a position to take advantage of your opportunities. You should spend some time now looking to your financial future as this is a fine time to invest in land, property and all kinds of tangible things. If you are not financially able to do this you would prosper in acting as agent, buying, selling or transacting such business for others, especially for members of your family and close kin.

July 22nd brings in a month of joyous pleasure, financial opportunities in speculative lines, some chance to start a new business if your circumstances indicate. But your big gains come through inspiration. Children inspire you and all young people are attracted to you. This is a good time for romance to come into the lives of single Pisceans, so if you are lonely do something about it. You vibrate well with crowds and should spend some time with the public if possible. Pisces wives could profit in many ways by entertaining gay young people. There are, however, three days to watch in this period: June 23rd, July 13th and July 21st. On these three days your ruler Neptune, still occupying your 7th solar house, receives bad aspects, and there is a threat of jealousy, scandal and disappointing relationship with the other sex. Otherwise this should be a gay and prosperous period for you if you will do your part by getting out among people and making friends.

July 23rd ushers in a more serious period, with gains coming through service to others rather than careless pleasure and selfish thinking. More will be said about this period in our next issue as it extends well into August.

Pisces Daily Guide For June

Sun. June 1: This first day of June should be a cautious one especially as regards your nerves and digestive system. Avoid people who annoy and upset you, and get all the rest and relaxation possible. Save your energy now.

Mon. June 2: Quite as negative as yesterday but in a different way. Your judgment of the other sex is unsound, so form no new romantic attachments. Pisces girls should avoid contact with susceptible males if possible.

Tues. June 3: This morning is different. Welcome new friends. There is some indication that someone will become related to you in a new and closer way.

Wed. June 4: Be careful if you drive this morning. Afternoon brings something good through the mate or business partner if you act to deserve it.

Thur. June 5: A good, strong morning, with partnership affairs well aspected. Good also for planning ahead by means of astrological guidance. Read your daily guides and apply them to your problems. Also check ahead on the Aspectarian.

Fri. June 6: Late afternoon brings a quickened mentality and a flock of new ideas if you open your mind to them. Let your imagination soar, for your inspirations mean something now. Use your brain to think your way out of the groove.

Sat. June 7: Avoid a spat about abstract things at noon. Late afternoon is good for correspondence, general writing, advertising and all creative work.

Sun. June 8: A somewhat critical morning because you are subject to discredit unless you act in a very narrow groove. Avoid unconventionality with the other sex.

Mon. June 9: Rather like yesterday. If you handle the funds of others be especially careful of them. Commit no act that could possibly be misunderstood.

Tues. June 10: Now stay within yourself and make your own plans in secret. Any loose gabbing about your plans and prospects to friends will be misconstrued.

Wed. June 11: A fine, warm and generous vibration comes to you from your friends today. You can use this in many ways but should see that any joint endeavors bring mutual profits rather than seek selfishly for your own gain.

Thur. June 12: A good mental morning if you will seek to apply Astrology to your problems rather than solve them by past precedent. Good for all occult study.

Fri. June 13: That "Friday 13th" jinx could become a reality for you if you let your sensual appetites get the better of you around 7:00 P.M. Be careful.

Sat. June 14: Late morning could bring a pleasant psychic experience if you open your mind to it. Go back and read Miss Dahl's ESP column and study it now.

Sun. June 15: You're socially tops today, especially in the afternoon. You make a good appearance and are likely to be in the center of things. Don't be bashful.

Mon. June 16: Questionable until mid-afternoon, at which time you could effect some change in your status. Good for employment and your relations to the public.

Wed. June 18: Another quiet one with no aspects in daylight or evening. Mildly good for routine business contacts or for visiting with women relatives.

Thur. June 19: No cosmic strength to back you now. Stick to routine affairs.

Fri. June 20: A grand day in a great many ways. Good for all mental activity, travel, social affairs, making new friends, effecting advantageous changes.

Sat. June 21: From 7:45 A.M. through morning is good for all kinds of adjustments in either home or working conditions. Your mind is at its best, so step out and better yourself in some way. It's in the stars for you if you grasp it.

Sun. June 22: A fine morning especially in the home and among loved ones. You are tops with the clan. The other sex admires you, so if you're single there is romance in the air. Some good comes through family members today.

Mon. June 23: Rather critical. Some mystery or complication may arise in the home. If so, be philosophical about it and take no arrogant stand.

Tues. June 24: Early afternoon could bring you into closer touch with a member of your family and this could mean much later. If a misunderstanding exists, act.

Wed. June 25: Late morning is fine for all kinds of relaxation and pleasure. Even if you must work you'll find people coming to you. Meet them half way.

Thur. June 26: The grandest, gladdest day of the month. You find pleasure everywhere, especially among the other sex and the very young. If your environment demands taking chances with your money this is the day for speculation.

Fri. June 27: A more serious mood possesses you today. You are attuned to the spirit of service and helpfulness. You'd make a grand companion for an elderly person or an ailing and unfortunate relative or friend. Try to be generous.

Sat. June 28: Rather negative. Guard your health at all costs.

Sun. June 29: Noon and afternoon are good times for making friends. A date with an acquaintance might cement the relation and cause a deeper feeling.

Mon. June 30: A rather questionable day. Take no chances on the word of the other sex early this evening or you might be sorry later. Don't flirt tonight.

Pisces Daily Guide For July

Tues. July 1: Variable, but some new and closer agreement could be reached with the partner at dinner tonight. Otherwise it should be a routine, cautious day.

Wed. July 2: Noon and afternoon would be a good time to discuss your birth chart with a friend who knows something about Astrology, or perhaps a consultation either by mail or office with a professional astrologer would be better.

Thur. July 3: Some threat of accidents mars the late morning. Be cautious.

Fri. July 4: Seek out the most learned and refined people you know to spend this holiday with, for your own mind is brilliant and quick. Dullards bore you now.

Sat. July 5: Afternoon is your best time of day. Mars and Venus both trine your 9th-house Moon. This means you are brilliant, fiery, witty and can out-talk and out-think those of other signs. A good time to seek honor or social prestige.

Sun. July 6: No aspects during day or evening. Go on your own today.

Mon. July 7: Rather negative, even critical if you don't keep a guard on your speech and action while with the other sex. Be conventional, avoid scandal.

Tues. July 8: Late morning finds you tops among your friends and able to head any group in which you find yourself. Friends help you realize your aims now.

Wed. July 9: About the warmest, friendliest day of the month for you. People just naturally want you near them and will be extra nice to you. Mix around.

Thur. July 10: An excellent day mentally if you'll use your mental energy in occult study and application. You could solve a riddle surrounding your life. If you have no good occult books it's time you started a library of them.

Fri. July 11: Somewhat critical unless you stay alone or keep your weird thoughts and suspicions to yourself. Be discreet in thought, speech, action.

Sat. July 12: You are stimulating to others this morning and will be popular wherever you go. Remember this and make all contacts with aggressive confidence. Quiet down a bit this afternoon as there is no cosmic strength.

Sun. July 13: Mid-morning finds you the leader if you get out in public. You have an inner strength that shines out of you. Good for social prestige, honor.

Mon. July 14: Obstacles may plague you today and your work and business relations could be changeful. Take it easy and shun any aggressive action.

Tues. July 15: Late morning brings some opportunity to better your employment or financial conditions. This could come about through a female relative.

Wed. July 16: Daylight hours are neutral. Go on your own today.

Thur. July 17: No sustained cosmic strength. Depend on yourself alone.

Fri. July 18: This could be a rather critical morning as you are likely to be restless and discontented. Hold all action until afternoon at which time you can effect needed changes, travel, impress people and be the big frog in the puddle.

Sat. July 19: Probably a slow day, but evening would be excellent for a gathering in your home with close relatives invited. Something good would result.

Sun. July 20: No aspects during daylight or evening. Stick to routine.

Mon. July 21: Watch out for a family spat this morning. Be diplomatic.

Tues. July 22: Doubtful morning with mixed aspects at noon. Probably you'd best stay with those of your own sex during noon. Don't gamble today.

Wed. July 23: Afternoon and evening are made to order for gayety and pleasure. Shun dull companions and go out for a good time. Speculation is well aspected during afternoon hours so if you must take chances act at 3:30 P.M. or 5:20 P.M.

Thur. July 24: A good evening for visiting the sick or serving others.

Fri. July 25: No cosmic strength. Stick close to shore and play safe.

Sat. July 26: Another negative one. Guard against nerve and stomach upsets.

Sun. July 27: Mercury sextiles your 7th-house Moon this morning. Good for your popularity with the public and the other sex. Romance is in the air now.

Mon. July 28: Today is good for all partnership affairs and for forming new alliances. Those of you who are single might meet the only one today if you try.

Tues. July 29: Late morning would be a good time to sign papers of any kind, especially co-signing with your partner. Fine for all sound business deals. Money is likely to come through the one closest to you in business or friendship.

Wed. July 30: Evening would bring some worth while knowledge if you could talk over your birth chart with an astrologer or an astrology-minded friend.

Thur. July 31: A neutral day for you. Stick to safe routine matters and don't let your rather erratic mind run away with you.

JUNE-JULY VIBRATORY COSMIC WAVE ASPECTARIAN

How to Use This Feature: First, make all recommended decisions and begin favorable actions ONE HALF HOUR BEFORE LISTED TIME OF ASPECT. Ignore daylight saving time, using standard time only. Meaning of symbols: In the first column are the aspects themselves, in the second column is the time of aspect. In the third column, G. means Good, A means Adverse, or bad for certain activities. D means doubtful.

IMPORTANT: The fourth column contains the KEY FIGURES that refer to the ASPECT CHART which you will find printed below the last day of the month. USE THIS ASPECT CHART! It tells you what activities are ruled by the aspects, thus: 03 in the fourth column refers to the key numbers, 03 in the ASPECT CHART. 03 means an aspect of the Moon to Venus, and it controls such activities as partnership, marriage, social life, art, entertainment, buying or making clothes, finance, pleasure, dancing and friendships.

Don't go another minute without learning to use this aspectarian. Run down the column to an aspect on a certain day, then check the KEY NUMBERS in the fourth column against the same KEY NUMBERS in the ASPECT CHART. You will find what activities are controlled by the aspects. Then turn back again to the aspect and find if the initial in the third column is G, A, or D. This will tell you whether the time is good for the things mentioned in the Aspect chart. This aspectarian is really easy to use if you will put in a few moments learning the meaning of the symbols, and Astrology will take on a new meaning for you. LEARN TO USE THE ASPECTARIAN NOW!

It is safe to say that most of Miss Rogers' trouble in her life has arisen and will always arise from marriage, partnership and relationships with others. Sun opposite Uranus brings sudden breaks, estrangements and difficulties with close associates. Miss Rogers has too much self-will and independence to enter into an ideal co-operative arrangement.

She is gifted with true Cancerian memory and rarely forgets anything. She is also subject to the Cancer touchiness and tendency to be easily offended, plus the temperamental attitude given her by Neptune on her Sun and Uranus in conflict, which makes easy entanglements and resultant conflicts. Stubbornness and rebellious flare-ups are parts of her nature, but these elements of character add to rather than detract from her ability to portray a human role on the screen. It has been pointed out before in these character studies of motion picture stars that no actor can give out on the screen or stage what isn't inside him. This is why temperament and what often seems like pure lack of reason in a star is what makes him or her a success and it is thus with Miss Rogers.

With Neptune close to her Sun at birth, and now in exact conjunction by progression, it can safely be predicted that Ginger Rogers will suffer no let down in her dramatic efforts. More now than ever, her art will be the dominating factor in her life. The Moon in good working contact with the Sun heightens her popularity and brings enthusiastic public response to her efforts. Her mother will continue to exert a favorable and pronounced influence upon her. Moon good to Saturn gives her stability of character (this should not be confused with stability of temperament) and preserverance in the face of both major and minor set-backs.

The Moon in good aspect to Uranus (Also in the chart of Mary Pickford) sponsors inconstancy and changeable-

31. Mars to Jupiter: Active expansion, industry and enterprise, success to personal efforts, gain by speculation. Confidence and determination may lead to extremes. ACT.

32. Mars to Saturn: Actively and assertively ambitious, determined to succeed at any cost. Reserve force fortified with daring and courage. Holds to selected line of effort. Favorable for exploration, beat new trails, mechanical construction, military leadership; engineers, civil, mechanical, mining, contractors. Lawyers and political office.

ness in her likes and dislikes of others, but also brings originality and inventiveness, agility in thought and action, active imagination and a fair degree of eccentricity for good measure. This somewhat mitigates the severity of the Solar clash with Uranus that could prove so disruptive in her disposition and in the events of her life. The latter influence sorely needs the offsetting qualities just mentioned, for they are accentuated by the clash of Mars to Uranus in her chart, denoting fretfulness, impatience and irritability.

Mercury in Leo supplies that mental spark so necessary to those engaged in the dramatic arts. Venus in Virgo makes for precision and exactness in style, dress and ornamentation. Even with a highly organized sensitivity and emotionalism she can show composure and coolness in the face of difficulties. This very often in her work (perhaps unconsciously on her part) evidences personal strength to the delight of her audience in the midst of a tense and dramatic scene on the screen.

2-Ginger Rogers Andy M2 Ap22 Astrogy

We note as this astrological character study progresses that Miss Rogers' ability and talent were not merely lent her by some instructor in elocution, voice and poise, but that they are an integral part of her character, woven into genius by the planetary pattern at her birth, stimulated and directed by the progression of her planets and released by her as the stern demands of a stellar dramatic career demand.

Because Miss Rogers was born in the last decanate of Cancer, from her ninth year to the present time, progressed Sun in her chart has been moving through Leo, giving her a definite leaning toward drama and entertainment. This has united the showmanship of Leo to her native dramatic emotionalism from Cancer and Pisces, giving sparkle and zest to her performances. It can be clearly noted in the impressiveness and ease of execution of her every word and act. Her Sun progression has nine years more before this Leo influence fades out of her life.

Moon, by progression in her chart, formed a good aspect to progressed Sun at the time she received the Motion Picture award. Such an aspect is always promising for honors, recognition, popularity and fortune. With Mars and Saturn merging into a conjunction by progression, and both receiving the cooperative support from progressed Mercury, much progress, favorable publicity and roles calling for more and greater talent can be expected by Miss Rogers. It is not impossible that some new or revived angle in her marital life will come more into the open in the immediate future.

According to her birth chart, Ginger Rogers should reside near a large body of water and be comfortably housed in a home of her own. Silver, lavender and dove grey are natural colors harmonious to her ever receptive and sensitive nature. She easily takes on environmental influences and should seek quiet and agreeable companions. While she responds to public life and applause, deep in her heart is a vibrant feeling for home, family and country.

LEND-LEASE BILL

One of these is the Moon (public) in the department of money opposing Mercury (agreements, documents, promises, commitments, etc.) in the sector of foreign finance, both Moon and Mercury governing the 12th house (sorrows, distress, secret enmity, failure—the foregoing when considered in its negative manifestation.) Moon and Mercury always indicate changes, thus their opposition can lead to differences in opinion, instability caused by changing conditions, reversals of attitudes—this even with both planets in fixed signs, the fixity in this case being likely to show more as obstinacy.

The 12th-house influence brings involvements, back-of-the-scenes activities, under-cover moves and secret motives wherein all is not above board. Both the conditions and psychology in the countries being helped differ widely from our own.

It should interest students of Astrology to note that Mercury, who moved forward into Pisces, returned by retrograde position into Aquarius and went "direct" on March 11th, the day this bill was signed by the President. This return to Aquarius had further significance for Mercury, governing the personal 1st house and official 10th in the President's chart, moved back to the locality of its own birth-chart position in the 6th house of the Roosevelt chart at the time of the signing. There is a cosmic meaning in this date, shifting and position of the planet Mercury.

A further distraction is the Sun forming an opposition to Neptune in this Lend-Lease chart. Neptune governs the 9th house of foreign commitments, agreements, trade and the navy, operating in the 3rd of domestic promises, reports, news, communications and arrangements. Some of the execution or administrative program applying to this bill is subject to change, confusion, instability, and can result in our being victimized by some of those we desire to help.

Thus every precaution should be taken by our government administrators in the management of this vast scheme for the mutual defense of foreign nations and our own. This indication is more impressive because Mercury moved back near to the U. S. radix Moon in the Libra ascendant chart.

But perhaps the most ticklish joker in the Lend-Lease bill in the Sun opposition to Neptune, having a heavy bearing on shipping, conveyance and transportation in which we are at a disadvantage. We are subject to a reversal of plans in the execution of the intent of this bill, and even at this early date (this is being written on April 15th) it would seem likely that we will have to protect shipments of this material by our own fleet and armaments if we are to complete the program outlined in the passage of H. R. 1776.

WEATHER

Western Hemisphere? Just as I have always maintained about the importance of weather in history, the weather of South America will play a big part in whether or not the Axis powers will be able to get a foothold there and thus menace our own shores, including the Panama Canal.

In point of size, South America is not so vastly different from our own continent, but from the standpoint of weather and climate the proportions are utterly different. Here we have the tropical portion of the country to the south, where the continent is narrow, but in South America the tropics are in the northern and wider portion of the continent.

Here we have vast arctic countries extending away up to Alaska and Greenland while in South America the only really antarctic country is the southern tip of Chile and Argentina. Here in North America there is a huge middle belt of temperate climate. The U. S. has most of it. Canada has some and Mexico a small portion. In South America the temperate zone is only five hundred miles across at the widest place.

The weather zones of South America are much the same as our own, but because the continent of South America lies south of the Equator the seasons are reversed. There summer comes in December and January, winter in June and July.

Here at home rainstorms whirl to the left while in South America they whirl to the right, but in both continents the rains come out of the west. Our rains have a tendency to come from the northwest, while South American rains come from the southern Antarctic regions and sweep sharply downward to Brazil then pass to the northeast off towards Africa.

The continent of South America is much colder too, considering its latitude, than is our own continent. Floating ice has been seen as far north as Rio de Janeiro. Very often southern Brazil and Uruguay are swept by cold waves and the piercing cold of the pampas of Argentina is noted for its severity. At times severe frosts sweep the grain fields of Argentina.

But despite these differences in climate, enough similarity exists to cause rivalry in agricultural products, which is the gist of this article. The wealth of Argentina consists principally of meat, leather, wool and other animal products. The grass of Uruguay is exceptionally good and free from weeds and outdoes our own west as grazing land.

The highlands of Brazil raise about everything that is produced by our Southern States. About the only products of South America that do not compete with our own are minerals, coffee and bananas.

Now, try as we might to make these southern neighbors of ours understand that our interests are identical, the rivalry between the United States and South America still is there. Europe raises less food than it eats, both the United States and South America raises more than enough for their own needs.

This makes us competitors in the European market. South America is a better market for European manufactured products than the United States because we have achieved mass production and can turn out manufactured goods as cheaply and as rapidly as can the countries of Europe.

For that reason South America and Europe are naturally complimentary to each other from an economical standpoint. Since Hitler is out to dominate Europe and shows a fair chance of doing so, he naturally looks like the best customer for South America.

There is where the weather comes in. Poor weather conditions in South America would cause a panic of sorts and money would be needed in vast quantities to rehabilitate the country. Even though Hitler might win this war, he will end up without money and would not be in a position to finance the South American countries. America has just about tied up all the gold in the world and we could easily lend vast sums to our southern neighbors.

In other words, good weather conditions in South America will naturally throw South American sentiment toward Hitler, who can buy their bountiful crops and meat, while poor weather conditions will throw South American sentiment our way because we have the cash they will need. Here you see why weather in South America during the next few years will affect our hemisphere defense, so it remains only to give you this weather forecast, which is as follows:

The chief rains of South America for the next ten years will come in over the Amazon Valley, curve south over the western side of the Parana Valley, and pass out to sea considerably south of Aires province in Argentina. These forecasts are, of course, general, and there will be many local variations from them during the next ten years, but in general crops will be good in the rain path through northern and central Argentina, less good in eastern Brazil, Uruguay and eastern Argentina.

The prospects then, are for a fair yield in South America during the next few years, and South America is going to keep an eye peeled toward Hitler and the big food market he is trying to dominate.

Naturally the heads of South American governments do not relish outside influence and will do their best to hang on to their jobs, but if the sentiment of their people turns toward Germany there is little the leaders can do to stem it over a period of years.

The conclusion seems to be that South America is the Achilles heel of our hemisphere defense, for once the Axis powers have conquered Great Britain they will move toward the vast bread basket of South America.

TODAY'S ASTROLOGY

EACH OF US AN AQUARIAN

tions, discovered very early that it was not in thinking of himself that the truths and secrets of the universe were to be found, but in the great book of the world which lay open before him.

He was imprisoned for insisting that the sun is the center of the universe, and held to his belief, because he knew he had achieved these truths for the good of the race.

More recent, within the field of science, and beloved to us all, is our own Thomas Edison, also a son of Aquarius, a man who shed a new light upon humanity that we trust shall not, during the finite years of our existence, be extinguished. But the interesting thing about Edison was the fact that he did not look upon himself pompously and importantly, he believed and felt himself to be an instrument through which the forces of the universe should be operative for the good of his fellow man, and how very operative those forces accordingly became.

Our Aquarian sun-sign references could be endless, but let us see how the Aquarius element, fused into every living being works out through other sun-signs just as satisfactorily when an individual has become conscious of its influence.

No man can claim our attention more specifically than can our good Mr. Henry Ford (native of Leo) king of the industrial realm, whose sensitized and forward looking Aquarius moon gave him a burning desire to create a queer little gas-buggy that would help the poor as well as the rich to get out beyond the narrow limits of four walls and an enforced narrowness of thinking, far beyond the barriers of the city and into fresh green pastures, not only of the country, but of the mind as well.

And just so you and I, if we wish to accomplish something worthwhile, must first probe within ourselves to find that fusion of Aquarius given to all men, which indeed like truth, may lie sleeping but is never dead, and wake it to a new and vitalized consciousness. Now where is YOUR Aquarius in this present scheme of things and how are you using it for the betterment of your country of your fellow man?

Get out your natal chart and give it the most critical of eyes. What aspects do the planets make or not make to this particular Aquarian area?

Maybe that portion is an unsuspected division. Well and good, you can then start from scratch and with a clean new sheet, to cement a little enduring mortar into that groove with this character building opportunity.

Or suppose, because of previous good effort, you have merited a trine, or sextile from some of the major, or less important planets—congratulations! But get going and use these fine tools for useful endeavor for it is almost certain that your efforts should meet mostly with bright green lights ahead.

But again, just suppose you discover the reverse situation to be the case with your Aquarius, and you find it to be a dead and sere looking affair. Be very glad of this, for herein lies the supreme challenge of life, your chance, against crushing odds, to transmute into a fruitful, productive, and constructive area, something which is now but a desert wasteland.

Do not worry about those squares and oppositions that look so threatening, view them only as the things that are going to happen TO you, and not the things that are going to happen IN you. For, within this attitude, lies all the difference between positive and negative action and reaction.

To be sure, if your Aquarius receives unfriendly aspects there will be friction, confusion, and unpleasant activity without a doubt, but these conditions can make the good results you may achieve all the more worthwhile because of the testing.

The same principal holds true in life as you observe when you watch close at a thrilling game of football, that it is the boys who run the interference that make the backfield look so good. And just so no real achievement in life is ever attained without the overcoming of obstacles and it takes the squares to prove the trines to be the fine aspects that they should be.

Now just suppose that it is Mercury which is the planet most propitiously governing your Aquarian endeavors, why there will be plenty that you can do about passing along the grand things you are bound to discover once you step across the borderland of unselfish thinking, for Mercury is the winged messenger of the heavens, you know, and if you write these thoughts he will carry them on their way to men.

But suppose it is your Mars that you are going to put to work to direct your Aquarian energies. Well, if you have some accented aspect of this grand fellow you are bound to be doing something for sure, and it might just as well be constructive.

You can go far, and fast, and forcefully, too, but Mars needs direction. It always seems as though all the good things that every Mars governed individual could ever hope to be are tied up in that neat, little package of Carl Sandburg's called, PRAYERS OF STEEL, which, if you take it with you on your journey across the borderland of unselfish thinking will be just about all the equipment you are going to need.

PRAYERS OF STEEL

Lay me on an anvil, O God.
Beat me and hammer me into a crowbar.
Let me pry loose old walls;
Let me lift and loosen old foundations.

Lay me on an anvil, O God.
Beat me and hammer me into a steel spike,

Drive me into the girders that hold a skyscraper together.
Let me be the great nail holding a skyscraper through blue nights into white stars.

Or, if you have sufficiently evolved to vibrate to the highest which Uranus can give us, you are well-equipped to make a study of the undiscovered, so go ahead, and if you do not think that you have quite the developed sufficiency, go ahead anyway because:

"If you don't aim high you will never hit high.

We aim above the mark to hit the mark."

That is a piece of advice our good friend Mr. Ralph Waldo Emerson brought back with him on one of his many trips across the border, and he ought to know whether or not it is true, because he was a pretty good marksman when it came to hitting the bull's eye of truth.

But if it is Uranus you choose through which to operate, never let your service drift back into self-centered thinking, for Uranus is, like the sign it rules, the planet of Universal Brotherhood, and it is important that we keep remembering this all-important rule.

And so we could go on to consider the various planetary influences individual with each of us, but the all important thing is that we have the yearning, the burning desire, the urgent wish to be of service to our fellows.

And should that yearning within you be a persistent, stubborn, indefatigable, little fellow that tugs incessantly at the corner of your mind's coat tail by all means give him (your Aquarius) a chance to try his stuff. All urges that have taken men out beyond the ranges of self-centered thinking have been prompted by continuous inner desires that nudged us such as this:

"Came one everlasting Whisper day and night repeated:—So Something hidden. Go and find it.
Go and look
Behind the Ranges—
Something lost behind the Ranges.
Lost and waiting for you.
Go!"

operative success in foreign affairs. Worthy of the astrological student's attention is the same ascendant and 9th cusp of the President's third-term inauguration chart and that of the Third Reich—a true hook-up, although an antagonistic one.

The Gemini lunation brings official prominence to the President. The Cancer new Moon stresses public and national issues in which the navy is emphasized. The Cancer chart shows trouble and danger for the president from both militaristic and political enemies. The progressed Sun affliction to Neptune in the U. S. chart gets a rub in the end of June from the department of labor, workers, public health, commodities and supplies, social service and Military activities.

National and international issues now mount in size and importance, the outlook reaching beyond the capacity for the ordinary human mind to grasp.

interesting to note, Mr. Goldfine, that Neptune, which rules the psychic faculties and the little-known powers of the mind, was exactly over your Cancer Sun at the time you had the dream, and that the Neptune influence continued particularly strong between your 13th and 18th "psychic" years.

What causes prophetic vision such as this? How can you develop your innate forecasting ability? In the next issue we will deal with this question in the light of recent researches.

LOVE AND TELEPATHY!

Do you suppose, Miss Dahl, that our being so much in love has anything to do with it? At least two or three times a week my husband and I send each other telepathic messages—spontaneously, that is, we don't make any previous arrangement to try. Last week, when he was at work during the day, I heard (mental radio) Hubby say: "I'm bringing Charlie home for dinner." So I got some extra steak. Sure enough, Tom came home bringing Charlie! Said the latter: "You two are always bragging so much about your mutual-mental-marvels—this is one time you're on the spot! Ha, ha. I didn't let Tom get near a phone—" Stopping short with his mouth open, our critic saw there were three places set for dinner! Our birth-dates (deleted by request) . . .

Mrs. Mary L. Pollok, Chicago, Ill.

Rather convenient for a wife to be forewarned of an extra guest by mental radio! We have found in this research work much to indicate that deep love and telepathic communication between two people go hand in hand. It would seem that the greater the love, the more numerous the ties that bind them, the more perfect and consistent is the mental communication. We have not found any cases where mental radio between persons having little affection and few interests in common, was consistent or in any way above what scientists call "average chance expectancy." Astrologically, it is interesting to note the many mutual Neptune, Uranus, Sun, and Moon contacts made between you and your husband's planets.

In our next issue, watch for "Rating Your ESP Ability," and more real-life psychic experiences from our readers.

Now, this is all you do. Try to empty your conscious mind of all distracting thoughts, and concentrate all your attention towards picking up mentally the signal we are broadcasting to you. Between 10 and 10:01 p.m. EDST, you will record your first telepathic impression on your paper, alongside of number 1. Between 10:01 and 10:02 p.m., record your second impression alongside number 2. And so down the line until at the end of 25 minutes you have recorded all 25 impressions. You may draw the symbol or you may write it out thus: "Cross, Circle, Wavy-lines"—as the case may be. Do not list more than one symbol beside any one number. Only one trial for one number! Write down your first psychic impression immediately, for the first one is most apt to be right. Do not try to keep count of how many Circles, Stars, Crosses, etc., you have put down as you go along. Some of your guesses—more correctly, Trials—may be wrong, and this may account for the scarcity of some symbols and the preponderance of others. Therefore, do not add to the error as you go along, by any attempt to "even them up." The most important thing is to "listen" for and record the first, strongest telepathic signal you get in each trial.

Your ESP Test # 1 Paper should be in the mail before midnight, Tuesday, June 24th, in order for you to be eligible to win a prize, and for scoring. Those enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope will be notified by mail of their score. The names, addresses, and scores of the winners and runners-up, together with the correct order of the cards drawn in ESP Test # 1 will be published in the earliest possible issue of TO-DAY'S ASTROLOGY.

GEMINI LOOKING AHEAD

jected into this prediction for your sign because—due to the sway of planetary motion aligned with your own intellectual urges—many of you Gemini natives will be thrown into work that either directly or indirectly relates to education and instruction.

There will be a greater demand than ever for your Gemini type of interest and ability to assist in the molding of the new economic, social and political order that is rising upon the eastern Cosmic horizon. Information, instruction and education are the new tools that will be used in presenting the new pattern to the rising generation and it is you Gemini natives who are destined to take the lead in this. It is YOUR DAY. Your section of the Zodiac takes first place and you Gemini natives receive the strongest planetary (life) impulse for physical, mental and spiritual action. Persons born when planets were in Gemini share in this to the degree of planetary strength in this sign at birth.

The new Gemini expression gets under way beginning with the shift of the planet Jupiter into Gemini on May 26, 1941, but the full swing to Gemini will not be evident until Uranus enters this sign on May 15th, 1942. The old (Saturn) is united to the new (Uranus) and the trend is to bring new ideas into conflict with those who would maintain the status quo in all phases of our life.

The battle then is between the new and the old, the reactionary and the radical. Some will bemoan the passing of the "good old days" while others will cry out for ever more drastic and radical changes. Saturn and Uranus are of opposite temperaments and a clash is inevitable. This is what occurred as Uranus traveled over the Taurus localities of Europe in the recent years up to 1941.

Gemini has a special significance in our own land, for the planet Uranus (revolutions, changes, upheavals, reforms, etc.) and Mars (pioneer, soldier, miner, explorer, forced issues and situations, etc.) were passing through Gemini at the time our nation was formed. Uranus returns to this locality of the Zodiac, thus the U. S. Horoscope, every eighty-four years. The first return brought the Civil War. The third return takes place on May 15th, 1942 (although a brief Gemini entry by Uranus is made during August and September, 1941) and we face disruption of our normal national routine because of disputes between factions in power politics, capital and labor, education and the church. This is a churning process of thought which will be painful until nature finally weaves it into our new national pattern of endeavor.

The big feature in the planetary setup for you Gemini people in the year ahead from June, 1941, is the entry of Jupiter into your sign, which occurred on May 26th and continues to June 10th, 1942. Jupiter will thus be a 1st-house expression, bringing personal inflation and expansion, wider opportunities and advantages, improvements of a personal and business character and more travel than usual.

This looks as if you are confronted with a year during which you "go places and do things," accomplish more, bring long hoped for plans into realization, be "somebody" and amount to something. If you were born between five and seven in the morning, other things being equal, you can expect to take on added weight. If you are of the feminine sex, your father, husband or employer's conditions will be improved, which will react to your benefit. If you are male your father, partner or employer's better state of affairs will improve your own.

Saturn and Uranus will be in the last degrees of Taurus up to May, 1942. This is a 12th-house influence for you Gemini people, emphasizing all that concerns the financial affairs of others, such as the business or marriage partner, estates, legacies, etc. It also stresses such activities as the church, politics, law, education, scientific interests, land and travel. Some secluded activities that keep you in the background are likely, such as research and invention. If you can merge this influence with the Jupiter expansion which now favors you, you can make unusual strides toward success. Some special literary, scientific or artistic effort now merits the attention of many of you Gemini people.

The position of Jupiter is also good for aviation as regards the activities of you Gemini folk, either by travel for business or personal reasons, government service in the air corps, or working in airplane factories in some capacity. The year ahead (provided your individual birth chart is not afflicted for aviation) is one of the best periods you will ever have for learning to use air travel in preference to other modes of getting places.

Another outstanding phase in your years ahead is Mars in Aries, your 11th solar house, from July 2nd, 1941 to January 11th, 1942. This acts as a stimulating indicator to your Gemini or 1st-house interests and activities in a productive manner, favorable for the help of friends, military service, and business advancement or advantages because of your own push and efforts.

CANCER LOOKING AHEAD

tion with all types of service in connection with our defense and war program.

If you have been troubled or threatened by other persons in your personal affairs or employment, Jupiter's position will be helpful in adjusting the situation and bringing relief from such annoyance. It might be well to make a study of your birth chart to ascertain if any affliction occurred involving Jupiter, for if so his passage through Gemini may prove troublesome and costly. At best or worst, some form of concern involving sickness, medical attention or employment or close relatives is due to show in the year ahead. Relatives, neighbors and purely local environment take on new significance because of people and conditions brought about by the new planetary set-up.

Saturn and Uranus in close conjunction up to May, 1942, in the end of Taurus, brings a combined expression closely affiliated with marital, partnership affairs having a bearing on your financial dealings and possessions. In this connection a friendly influence operates, this being especially true for those born from the 15th to the 22nd of July. This can bring friendly financial aid from friends, associates or the partner and is good for all dealings in land, property, mining, inventions and investments. Gain and profit are indicated in these lines.

Be especially watchful for opportunities if you have birth-chart planets in the latter part of Cancer. Elderly persons and strangers (The latter may appear somewhat eccentric) are united together in some form of favorable attention to your affairs. If you work for others your employer's financial condition is likely to expand, thus opening wider opportunities for you. At the same time you are subject to sudden attachments and estrangements and may form alliances without proper consideration of the other party. Guard against this, for these personal distractions can disturb your mind to the detriment of your work.

Regardless of how your affairs proceed, be prepared for a pronounced change following May 9, 1942. Business matters that have progressed favorably may not hold up so well after this date, so keep liquid and avoid too many obligations and too deep indebtedness. New developments depend on conditions over which you have little or no control at least until you have had a chance to size up conditions and the effect on them of the new planetary arrangement.

If you are a typical Cancer native you either own a home of your own, or are on the verge of obtaining one. Hold on to your home if you have one, if not then establish one prior to May, 1942 if you plan to do so at all, but you should be conservative in this rather than obligate yourself to heavy payments, even though your outlook up to April, 1942 may be unusually optimistic. This is mentioned because your financial affairs may be affected by the return of Uranus to its location in the U. S. chart, signifying a disruptive national condition.

Mars is in Aries from July 2nd, 1941 to January 11th, 1942 and this occupancy has a two-fold meaning for you. First, Mars excites your professional and business department into a greater activity than can be accounted for by general conditions. Second, this can—if your birth chart shows afflictions in Aries, Cancer, Libra or Capricorn—produce troublesome conditions such as loss through bad partnership, or domestic, marital or family disturbances. In other words, a generally upset state of affairs pivoted to personal, business and public relations is likely to exist.

Neptune by transit in Virgo operates in your solar 3rd-house, a mental type of influence that has favorable indications for those born from the 15th to the 22nd of July with some connection to the Saturn-Uranus combination previously mentioned. This can mark a high tide in the affairs of you who were born in this latter part of Cancer and it stresses travel, drastic changes, identification with shipping to distant lands. Some peculiar situations can occur in connection with letters, communications with relatives and neighbors. Be on the conservative side in signing documents, guarding against schemes of an uncertain nature. If an opportunity for big business schemes seems to present itself be sure you don't get in over your head, but keep your feet firmly planted on Mother Earth.

The occult and mystic side of your mentality now takes on a broader and higher degree of manifestation, and real progress can be attained in study and practice for spiritual growth and development. Keep to that of the highest order even though your psychic temptations show more than the usual signs of activity.

Watch the progressed Moon in your chart, for it will be one of your chief barometers in the year ahead and will have considerable meaning to you, bearing on your success or failure.

ASTROLOGY AND YOUR SALES

lands and mines. Timber, lumber, building material, and all kinds of clothes and cloth goods.

Taurus folks are very determined, thorough and conservative, but must guard against obstinacy and argumentativeness or they will lose the sale. Virgo salesmen are strong on service. They study, analyze and discriminate. But many have been known to fail because they were too critical, cynical and introspective. The Capricorn is ambitious to rise to a high position (like a sales executive). He is an organizer with justice, caution and economy. However, he may fall through pride and suspicion.

If your element is Airy your best bet is in handling supplies for clerical work (books, stationery, etc.), draftsmen, civil engineers. Anything that requires travel and mental processes, like promotion work. This field also includes all things pertaining to the air such as aviation and electricity, as well as contracts, bonds, insurance, etc.

The Gemini salesman is usually intellectually inclined, very versatile, but his weakness is indecision and changeability. The Libran is artistic, balanced, courteous and optimistic, but he also is inclined at times to indecision. And must strive to keep his poise and emotions under control. The Aquarian does best in new inventions, corporations and humanitarian work because he is diplomatic and progressive. The weak point here is dictatorship and impracticality.

Salesmen in the Watery class will find success in fluids, milk, chemicals, oil, etc. This department also takes in sea foods, shipbuilding supplies, mariners goods and soda fountain supplies. In fact, anything that is watery or directly connected with it.

The Cancers of this element are very tenacious, impressionable, sympathetic and sensitive, but have to watch out for timidity, restlessness and indolence. Scorpions are courageous, resourceful and great to investigate "what lies behind the effect." However, they have a temper and can be jealous, willful and vindictive. The Piscean is also sensitive and sympathetic. He has an unusual amount of intuition and inspiration but he sometimes lacks confidence, will do too much self-analyzing, and procrastination.

The general idea of the foregoing guidance is, as stated at the outset, get into the right line, and cash in on your strong points, ever keeping in mind where you can weaken yourself. If you have a customer or prospect that is hard "to crack," perhaps it will be worth your while to get his sunsign and study him by the guide here even as you do yourself.

As a salesman for about fifteen years before taking up a profession, the writer can readily see plenty of mistakes he made. And if you are skeptical as to the certitude of astro-sales guidance all we can do is dare you to TRY IT.

time trine progressed Uranus, progressed Venus being semi-square progressed Sun at the trine. Mrs. Beery then married stockbroker Albert Foyt.

Beery began his career by joining a circus while in his 'teens. The originality conferred by Uranus in an angle opposition Sun was soon evident. He is credited with being the first to train elephants to walk in procession each holding to the tail of the one in front. When progressed Sun reached the sextile of Venus, at 18 years of age, he had an opportunity for work on the stage. Later the movies claimed him, and his originality in depicting a ruffian, or a worthless scamp, who at the same time has a heart of gold, has won him a place in the hearts of the American people. At the finish of the false arrest he beamed, "This is a six hundred thousand dollar smile."

the sections of a chart ruling parents). When less than fourteen years old this girl began to slip out at night when she was supposed to be sleeping and meet her class-mates for the usual fun and frolics of youth. From this she easily formed a habit of slipping out to meet boys . . . of learning to smoke and to take a drink. The girl was not immoral, but she sooned was accused of being so. The parents found out about her misbehaviour and decided to put her in a very strict boarding school. The girl refused to go and they could not very well tie her and force her to travel. When she was seventeen years of age she fell in love with a young man, a stranger several years older than herself. At this time an aunt from California visited the family and seeing the situation offered to take the girl home with her. Miss Smith loved her aunt better than any other human being but she refused to leave town because of the young man she was going with and whom her parents very much disliked. Suddenly during the Christmas holidays after her seventeenth birthday, she asked to go to her aunt who had returned to California. On December 28th, 1933 her father put her on the train for California. Before the day was over she left the train, met her "young man" by previous appointment, and they were married. At least she thought she was being married. It turned out that this man had a living, undivorced wife. Miss Smith afterward confessed that he had tried every way to seduce her, and failing that he offered marriage.

At the time of this so-called marriage the Sun was more than six degrees in Capricorn opposing Saturn in the natal horoscope. Saturn is posited just under the ninth cusp. It is said that when a planet is on the under side of a cusp it denotes secret matters. Saturn here indicated some secret matter taking place away from home or on a journey. The transiting Saturn was in Aquarius forming a wide square to the natal Venus in the seventh. Venus was also in Aquarius making an exact square to the natal Venus. Mars had also entered Aquarius and these three planets were applying to her natal Uranus . . . approaching her nadir and indicating a change that would not be for the better.

In this chart Mercury rules the 11th house. Neptune was in Virgo and near enough the 11th cusp to indicate deceit from a friend, as it was in opposition to the natal Mercury. Two distinct aspects of unfair play and three planets approaching a square to Venus, the planet of love posited in the house of marriage.

The law lost no time in catching up with Miss Smith's "husband" and the girl's father had no trouble in persuading her to go on to California after this escaped. Fortunately, Miss Smith's aunt is a very understanding person. Her sincere love for her niece did a great deal to bring the suffering girl back to normal living. As the horoscope indicates, Miss Smith has decided artistic and dramatic ability, also a splendid voice. With several years of intensive training she developed into an artist of no mean quality. When Jupiter was in Aries in early 1940 and making good aspect to Mars her ruler and to the tenth house of career, she made many successful public appearances. As Jupiter made a trine aspect to her Moon in her second house she signed a contract that makes her financially independent for some years to come. The talent and ability has always been in her chart. It just needed love, kindness and encouragement to bring it to expression.

Under Leo and the fifth house we find originality, and the ability to build up, dress up, or, as we popularly say, dramatize, an idea. To its first form, Leo adds emotion and makes it live. That is why we say the Leo native has dramatic instinct. Included under this sign and house is teachability — the quality which makes a person a good or poor learner.

Under Virgo and the sixth house we find the qualities of assimilation, discrimination, and criticism. Thus we have the (Virgo) utilitarian's instinct for choosing only such knowledge as he finds will serve a definite purpose, as well as finding a purpose for each fact he acquires. In this sign and house you find the quality of mental detachment, the faculty of separating one's rational mind from one's emotions and sensory impressions. In Virgo the mind truly becomes the servant of the master. In this sign and house also is found the ability to work out details and form plans or patterns, to analyze and synthesize.

Under Libra and the seventh house one finds the qualities of comparison and judgment. These qualities enable the mind to make decisions. They are also necessary to the accurate evaluation of things and people. This is why we ascribe to Libra natives the trait of diplomacy. They can judge situations and people impartially and hence deal with them effectively.

Penetration, investigation, persistence are the qualities belonging to Scorpio and the eighth house. Penetration is back of the Scorpio native's desire to discover causation — to delve into the esoteric side of any subject, to study the occult. These qualities lie also behind the research worker in his laboratory, and the scientist and doctor who are eternally seeking to know the why and how.

Under Sagittarius and the ninth house we find the qualities of pure logic, integration, and rationalization. From these qualities of mind develops the philosopher. Under this sign and house you also find the quality of vision — the heightened intuitive perception which gives so many Sagittarian people the power of prophesy. The ninth house is the realm of the higher intellect.

Under Capricorn and the tenth house we find the quality of concentration. This quality is back of every success (tenth house) story. This is why we call the Capricorn native a specialist. He gets there by sticking to one line. Under this sign and house we find accumulated knowledge (built with the tool of Cancer memory) and the quality of judging and making use of experience which is the basis of wisdom.

Ingenuity, inventiveness, originality, are the mental qualities which belong to Aquarius and the eleventh house. These are the qualities which indicate in each individual his degree of resourcefulness. They are also back of all those inventions which have raised the standard of living.

Under Pisces and the twelfth house we find the qualities of human power which links with the super-sensory world. Here we find psychic penetration, telepathy, and extra sensory perception. This is why so many Pisces natives are mystics, psychics, or spiritualists. They have tapped the outer wave of that mind current which enables one to "know" without the conscious transference of information. Pisces is linked strongly with the sub-conscious mind, the mind which continues to function when the conscious mind is asleep.

To some extent all the water signs have psychic penetration, just as all the fire signs have the quality of inspiration, air, intuition, and earth, concentration.

Now you can study your own mental horoscope. The signs on the houses will tell you to what degree each quality of mind may be present in you. Planets in the signs and houses will indicate not lighten her burdens. She would still feel obligated to help support her family, and you would need to continue supporting yours. Unquestionably, she feels that the double load would be too much for you two. But the other man—he has only himself to support, a good position. Isn't it natural that the girl feels he offers the better future, though her affection for him is less than that she bears you? Miss Capricorn is wavering now, but the near future may bring a decision in favor of Mr. Libra. Uranus coming to a square of your Venus and hers, strongly inclines to your separation, Mr. B. Taking the long-range view of the future years, the probability is that she will achieve nearer the kind of life she wants—with the other man. A Taurus or Virgo girl about 7 years your junior may come along for you!

ANSWERS ONLY

Including Home Life, Vocational, General Queries

E.F.R., Canada (July 7, 1914): You have more to offer your country in groundwork along mechanical-engineering lines than as a pilot, with that Capricorn Moon and Virgo Mars. Use July 2-21 for another try at entering the service. It is unlikely that you were turned down due to your step-father's nationality. Look for another reason. Good luck!

BABE, Wis. (July 11, 1905): The Sun sign isn't everything. Sure, you and Hubby are both Cancer people. But you have Moon conjunct Mars in the possessive Scorpio, while his Moon trines his Cancer planet-cluster from the sensuous Pisces. Don't try to force him to be loyal by creating jealous scenes, delivering ultimatums, using strong-arm methods. They simply will not work. Be your best, most charming self—the self that first attracted him! You must make him want to be loyal to you! Better not take too seriously a bit of innocent flirting on his part. He wants to be assured he still has his masculine magnetism!

Suppose you contribute a little more to that assurance, Babe!

D.M.C., Kans. (Apr. 10, 1918, Mar. 2, 1923): July 2-10 suggested for your son's marriage. He and his fiancée are well mated. Your daughter's Uranus-Sun conjunction shows the probability of several strong infatuations before she finds out what she really wants from love. Marriage before her 23rd birthday is not likely to last. Better advise her to wait, Mrs. C.

G.D.S., Ohio (May 1, 1903): Husband and wife must develop mutual tolerance when Mars squares Mars in their Union Chart. Try a marital vacation of a month or so, to get a less emotional perspective of your problems. Marriage between astrological opposites, like you two, often threatens to be a tug-of-war. You must agree on enough mutual wants and aims to start pulling together in the same direction. If you can't do so before next spring you will be best apart, Mrs. S.

X.X.X., Calif. (Sept. 5, 1900): Yours is an enviable marriage blend. Only one caution: Miss Aries' Mars on your Neptune tells you both to use care about having any secrets between you. Watch out for unintentional deception, and don't idealize each other to the point of expecting perfection. Congratulations, both!

A.M.S. Penna. (Oct. 3, 1902): You are the executive, practical type, having Sun in Libra and Saturn in Capricorn. Cafe work is well fitted to give you the self-expression and security you want. Summer, 1942 is suggested for your start in the field. About your Aquarius daughter, you must take more than Sun sign factors into consideration when determining marriage compatibility, Mrs. S. The Taurus boy is congenial.

P.G., Texas (June 19, 1926): Plenty of versatility in your chart, P.G.! A flair for the dramatic, ability for writing, journalism, and mechanical talent as well. Your best chances for success are likely in Radio and Television Engineering. Birth Uranus square Sun gives you energy and power, plus. Don't waste it making changes. Keep practical, stick at one main line of work, and you'll go places, P.G.

ESTHER, Penna. (Feb. 5, 1916): Your son has good concentrative force and energy (strong conjunctions to birth Sun and Moon), but his powers of persistence work sporadically. Help him to attain a clear practical vision of what he wants. He tends to waver between many vague desires. When one main want or ambition is crystallized in his mind, he will have taken the first important step to self-integration and success. Good work opportunities for him likely in July.

E.E.B., Maine (Mar. 4, 1888): Now that prog. Venus has moved from the opposition to p. Uranus and p. Mars, you should have good opportunities to get your love and domestic life settled happily. You and "Gemini" have much in common. Why not let your friendship ripen? You have much to give each other emotionally, intellectually. It could bring interesting progress this summer!

T.S., W. Va.: Don't be too disappointed! Your Sanskrit was quite comprehensible, my only "bewilderment" is that your vaunted powers let you down on a couple of bad guesses — like Your-Love-Life-Dahl not married! Personal experience convinces me we should all be enthusiastic about promoting more love and marriage for everybody! Even tho the study of Sanskrit may suffer by comparison. Sure, your Love-Life Astrologer freely concedes she was probably a babe in arms or not born yet while you were, as you claim, "sitting at the feet of the Masters on the banks of upper Ganges." Sure, I'll even concede I'm a "platform astrologer"—for I believe in bringing Astrology to the masses, not only the privileged few. Yes, even if it has to be deleted of five-dollar words when plain English will do as well. Don't inhibit yourself on my account, Mr. S., any time you want to criticize my work publicly. Go ahead, you have my blessing! Free speech is the soul of progress. Just so your arguments may not be too easily refuted—a little tip: It might be a good idea to compare 26,000 Union Charts before you start your anti-Christina-Dahl-Astrology campaign. The collecting and comparing shouldn't take more than, say, 12 years. Nitya Tittvas always to you too, Friend!

A.W.M., Mo. (Mar. 7, 1901): You are a sensitive mental-spiritual person. Your mate is a sensuous-materialistic type. Thus he feels that you are cool, unresponsive; while you may feel he places too much importance on the physical side of marriage. 12 years of "argument" and "not agreeing on anything," of having so little in common that you have not even been living together! Why waste more years of your life, Mrs. M.? Is the money question bothering you? You'll be far happier earning your own living. Uranus in Gemini will help you promote a new, better cycle in home life. Meet it with decisive action, Mrs. Pisces.

J.J., W. Va. (Feb. 9, 1918): A separation in your love life seems likely under the present Uranus square your Sun. Also likely, a romantic infatuation which may be mistaken for enduring love, as Neptune over your Venus stirs imagination dangerously. Use this energy to perfect your creative talents. About summer, 1942, you can safely start thinking seriously about love and marriage!

MINN. Subscriber (May 10, 1908): Every intelligent human being is credited with "free will" (ability to choose between any several courses of action), which means that in connection with such individuals Astrology must forecast tendencies, rather than actual events. This, apropos your fatalistic question: Will this marriage last? It can last if you and your wife now make consistent efforts to nourish the growth of your shared interests. Both are now in an emotional cycle emphasizing differences, sharpening your separate individualities, causing tension between you. With May, 1942, more creative emotional influences for you both will help towards the curing of now-disturbing marriage problems. A complete Union Chart analysis, or serious astrological study of each other's nature, can help you.

C.E.L., Ill. (Mar. 17, 1910): What is Mr. Taurus doing with his Moon-Neptune conjunction of birth? Be sure of the answer to that question before you marry. Like any other aspect, it can be used constructively or otherwise. (1) Does he use it in creative work, projects requiring emotional sensitivity, imagination, originality, dramatic expression, and such? Or (2) does he indulge in intoxicants to excess, flights from reality? Does he postpone and try to evade practical issues, or go in for any form of "escape" from real life? If the former, you two can be very happy together.

FRANCES M., Texas (Oct. 2, 1926): That's a fatalistic question! The planets only incline, you know, they do not compel. Thru your own choices you will make your own doom or destiny. You are an imaginative, emotional, ardent, impulsive and often rash person. (Moon conjunct Neptune in Leo, square Mars and Saturn.) You must control this power so it does not express destructively in infatuations, seeking for thrills, and flights from reality. Use these forces in creative work along dramatic and entertainment lines. You're temperamentally fitted for a career in the theater. Wait until you're 20 at least before planning about marriage. Your ideals for a mate are due for plenty of change between now and then!

A.V.W., Iowa (Oct. 8, 1891): What Saturn has taken away Uranus will help you restore in a higher cycle of progress and growth. Transit of Uranus thru the first part of Gemini, spring 1942-fall 1945, should bring you opportunities to make a new life with one you love. In choosing a mate avoid strong planetary emphasis in Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces. Strong emphasis in Leo, Cancer, Aquarius, and Scorpio tend to be congenial to your interests.

M.A.C., Texas (Oct. 15, 1901): Marriage with "Pisces" would bring you many material advantages that marriage with "Gemini" would lack. What is most important to you, love or money? You must be sure of the answer if you want to choose between these two. My advice is to wait—at least another year, when you will have met, very probably, someone who has more of happiness and security to offer than they.

M.M.F., W. Va. (Aug. 9, 1896): Mr. Aries likes to do his own courting, preferably with a bit of running and hiding on the part of the lady, to keep things exciting. You're naturally open, frank, honest, direct, Mrs. Leo. The direct route is not always the shortest distance between two points, Friend—not when it comes to loving an Aries person. Better results when you get those emotions in hand, under conscious control. A good cycle for romance: July 1943-July 1944. Marriage then probable!

WANG, Shanghai (May 1, 1914): Thank you for the astrological data on those 47 marriages. We are always happy to receive such data for further research into the astro Whys and Hows of marriage problems. All success to your splendid work in the field, Mr. Wang! Let us know how we may cooperate.
